

...nd express, but the subtlety of man will obligation, where his present interest is ancing in proof of this assertion, the ven by the Church of Rome to other ation of the commandment (Exod. xx. enjoins that all worship be given to arguments by which it is attempted to e a breach of the Divine command, he the following heads :—1st—By conse-
be drawn from doctrine, confessedly Sophistical distinctions as to the objects, of worship. 3rd—By authority of Reserving it for his concluding discourse will appear in our next,) to examine etail, he proposed upon this occasion generally—in direct reference to the so doing clearly shewed—that no such llowed to stand a moment against the ssly revealed law, especially where the such, that, whatever reasons may be de, it must still be acknowledged to be pleasure of the law giver,—which to e, that, until an express law be duly d, no arguments nor reasons should be obligation—inasmuch as it depends, not on of the law, but upon the authority that the very reasons, by which Roman ad their creature-worship, were as much prohibition against it was first delivered, that if they were then of no weight the commandment, neither should they de, or rendering it of none effect.—
'distinctions' by which the obligation worshiping God only' is attempted to be e objects, mode, and degree. By conwas against the worship of false Gods, and Angels, who are the friends and By distinguishing between absolute
—between supreme and inferior—Latria se distinctions he clearly shewed to be aw as given by Moses (Exod. xx. 3.) in (Deut. vi. 13, and x. 20,) and by
iv. 10,—and from hence urged as an ce, that no distinctions can justify our ter of the law, if they have not the same Lastly—He examined the argument og down the axiom that no authority repeal a Divine law, and having proved rse from the same text—(1, Tim. ii. 5.)
his Apostles had not repealed but con-demanded, had the whole Church in ity to repeal it? or to make any altera-ts of faith and worship? If so, then les preached the gospel to very little the power of the Church to make a she pleased, contrary to (Gal. i. 8. 9.) ming the authority of lawgiver—the Apostolic Church never pretended to witness, and on this point her testimony e modern Church of Rome: for, (to is many proofs under this head,) a chief primitive fathers to prove the divinity Ghost was the Catholic doctrine of nd they charge the Arians (Athanas, os,) with idolatry for worshipping Christ,
to be a Creature.
ious document was introduced by the itate his Roman Catholic Brethren, as but to illustrate the practical conse-Worship, and to shew the awful resurch of Rome in inculcating, as "good Trent, 16. 25.) a doctrine, which not the guilt of opposing the law of God, y such practices, the more reasoning mmunion secretly to embrace infidelity.
bbing in a Cathedral Church in Bohemia, rom the German—Charges turned into or solidly repairing St. Joseph, 4d.; for d Virgin Mary before and behind, and 5s.; to turning a nose for the Devil, his head, and gluing a joint to his tail,
0d. sterling.

jun, Moateview, county Westmeath, to Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Samuel Bewley, Rockville, county Dublin.
At Clonallen church, William Parsons, Esq. of Newry, to Julia, eldest daughter of Captain Ogle, of the Armagh Militia.
Mr. Edward Carroll, of Thurles, cloth-merchant, to Kate, daughter of Mr. Francis Morony, of Templemore.
At the Holy Trinity Church, Kingston-upon-Hull, Joseph James Forrester, Esq. of Oporto, to Eliza, only daughter of W. Cramp, Esq. Collector of Excise.

DEATHS.

On Thursday last, at Ormond Cottage, county Tipperary, the residence of her father, of a rapid decline, aged 28 years, Elizabeth Waller, relict of the late Edward Waller, Esq. of Castle-Waller.— Her remains were borne to and placed in the grave by the Gentry of the County, in testimony of the esteem and affection she universally possessed. Pure unaffected piety marked her departure from this life.
In Mungret-street, George Unthank, Esq. eldest son of the late George Unthank, of this city, Esq. one of the Society of Friends.
In Frederick-street, after a lingering illness, John Conran, Esq.
of the firm of Conran and Fisher—a worthy member of the highly respectable Society of Friends.
In Upper Cecil-street, after a few days illness of fever, the Rev.
John Neilson, Assistant Pastor of the Presbyterian congregation in this City, a pious and exemplary Clergyman, whose premature death is a source of the deepest affliction to his loved and loving flock.
In Cork, Emily Victoria, second daughter of the late Chambre Corker, jun. Esq.
On the Mardyke Parade, Cork, aged 9 years, Parker Dunscombe Webb, second son of the Rev. Dr. Webb.
At Ennis, aged nine years, John, son of the late Robert Hewson, of Rathkeale, Esq.
In Upper Dominick-street, John Pilsworth, Esq.
Anne, wife of Henry Pettigrew, Esq. of Dublin.
At Stephen's-Green, after a short illness, Joseph Minchin, Esq.
In Rutland-square, Captain Charles Higgins, late of the 46th Regt.
In Cuffe-street, Mrs. Power Byrne.
At Elephant-lane, Dublin, Mrs. Susan Hyland.
Captain Arthur Annesley Cotton, 7th Hussars, aged 24 years.
At the Castle, Wexford, of decline, aged 17, Henrietta Eleanor, only daughter of the late William White, of Upton, Esq. and granddaughter of the late James White, of Ballinahound, Esq.
At Rathangan, Mr. Henry Farrell.
At Richmount, county Cork, John Sealy, Esq.
Of fever, at Farm-hill, county Fermanagh, Baptist Scott, Esq.
a ruling elder of the Presbyterian congregation in Enniskillen.
At Hillmount, near Ballymena, Margaret, wife of Robert Young, Esq.
At an advanced age, Ellen, relict of the late James Dundon, Esq.
of Annaholty, county Tipperary.
Of fever, Mrs. Londregan, Mother Abbess of the Nunnery at Dingle.
At Killeen, near Borrisokane, Mr. James Reed, aged 68, who was never a day sick.
Suddenly, Peter Fitzgerald, Esq. late of Kilmacthomas, county
Waterford.
In Dublin, Mr. John Fitzsimons, of Waterford.
Emily, youngest daughter of Mr. Henry Morrogh, Patrick's-hill, Cork.
Helena Mary, daughter of Robert Welsh, Esq. of Maryborough.
In Waterford, Mr. W. Irwin.
In Maryborough, Jane, wife of Mr. James Vanston.
Of a lingering illness, aged 35, Sarah, wife of James Carleton Hill, Esq. Distributor of Stamps for the county Wicklow.
In London, aged 64, Lieut.-General Viscount Lake, formerly Lieutenant-Colonel 60th Regiment.
In Upper Grosvenor-street, London, General Milner, late Lieut.- Colonel of the Scots Fusilier Guards.
At Ham Common, near London, the Hon. Frances, relict of Admiral Sir J. Sutton, K.C.B.
In Upper Grosvenor-street, London, Elizabeth, wife of Rowley Lascelles, Esq.
At Bryanstone-square, London, Maria, daughter of Sir J. Graham.
Susannah, wife of Mr. Rickman, of the House of Commons.
At Grove-place, the Lady of Capt. J. Fawcett, of the Bombay Army.
At Chelsea, in her 82d year, Frances, widow of the late Killingworth Hedges, Esq. of Sunbury, Middlesex.
At Ashford Grove, near Ludlow, Marianne Josepha, youngest daughter of the late Sir W. Syer.
At the East India College, Herts, aged 65, David Shea, Esq.
At Liscombe House, Bucks, in her 84th year, Sarah, Lady Lovell, relict of the late Sir Jonathan Lovell, Bart. of Liscombe.
At Morben-lodge, near Machynleth, Montgomeryshire, aged 90, Margaret, youngest and last surviving daughter of Edward Williams,
Esq. and of Jane Viscountess Bulkeley, his wife.
At Fairfield, near Manchester, aged 79, the Rev. Christian Ignatius Latrope, many years Secretary of the Brethren's Society for the Furtherance of the Gospel among the Heathens.
At Stainsby, Derbyshire, aged 87 years, Edward Sackeverell Wilmot Sitwell.
At the family residence, in the neighbourhood of Glasgow, Lieut.- Colonel M'Nair, of Greenfield, formerly of the 52d, and latterly of the 73d Regiment.
At his house in Edinburgh, Dr. Fletcher, lecturer on physiology and medical jurisprudence. Dr. Fletcher has fallen a sacrifice to his ardent prosecution of scientific pursuits.
At Chatham, near Miramichi, Richard Lowes, aged 19, a native of Limerick, going to Canada in search of his parents.
At Paris, Daniel Halliday, Esq. M.D.
At Vittoria, in Spain, of malignant fever, in the 24th year of his age, Gerald Fitzgerald, Esq. Chief Surgeon of the 7th Regiment of the Auxiliary British Force. Doctor Fitzgerald was the third son of the late Gerald Fitzgerald, Esq. formerly a Captain in the 11th Regiment of Foot, and grandson of Thomas Fitzgerald, Knight of Glin.
On the passage home from Madras, Mrs. Hawker, wife of Major-General T. Hawker, on the Staff at that Presidency.
At Francfort-sur-Mein, Arthur, youngest son of Lieutenant-Colonel Sir C. Dance.
In Bohemia, aged 72, the Prince de Rohan, Lieutenant-General in the Austrian Service, Knight of the Golden Fleece.

the Hunt.

JOSEPH MARSHALL, Auctioneer and George's-street, Limerick, of whom further be known.

One Day's Auction of FURNITURE IN ARBITRATION.

JOSEPH MARSHALL will peremptorily on FRIDAY, 20th May instant, at the William-street, by order of the Arbitrators quantity of Fashionable, excellent and very hold Furniture, comprising the entire equipment of a roomed Cottage, with every useful requisite, a quantity of Glass, Delft, Pantry and Kitchen Paintings, Engravings, Outside Jaunting Car,
Horse, &c. &c.

Sale at 12 o'clock precisely, as the entire one day,
JOSEPH MARSHALL, Auctioneer and
George's-street, Limerick.

Auction of the Tervoe
JOSEPH MARSHALL
RESPECTFULLY informs the Grazing Farmers, that he has received from the Administrators of the late Col.
MONSELL, Tervoe, to sell by Auction on THURSDAY, 26th May, the ENTIRE OF It consists of Milch Cows, Heifers, Straggling Pigs, Ewes and Lambs, Haggets, Kerry Horses, Colts, &c. &c.

Sale at Twelve o'clock to the minute. No chargeable.

TERMS—Cash, or Approved Bills at Ten Days.
The condition as well as the prime quality renders the Sale at this time particularly desirable. The Auctioneer need hardly remark, that the Sale will be a totally unreserved one.
JOSEPH MARSHALL, Auctioneer and
70, George's-street, Limerick.

Sale of Dwelling House and Premises,
In the City and Liberties of Limerick, to and Judgment Creditors.

Michael Clanchy, } Mortgagor, } BY virtue of the John Perrott, Esq. } Mortgagee, in this Mortgagee. } take place on Wednesday, the 12th day of June next, at Buildings, Limerick, at the hour of One afternoon, of all the Mortgagor's Estate in several Dwelling-houses and Premises, and yielding a Yearly profit Rent of £100
For further particulars apply to J.C.
Attorney-at-law, No. 3, Upper Cecil-street, whom printed rentals may be had.

ADMIRALTY.
By the Marshal of His Majesty's High Court of Ireland.

The King in his Office of Admiralty, against several Beams or Logs of Timber, found Derelict at Sea, and now lying at Liscanor, Lahinch, Dunboy, Kilkee, Dunbeg and Seafield, and other places along the Coast of the County of Clare.

TO be undernounced
Derelict
mentioned be and now replaces
tioned.
Lots, for chasers.

The Sale will commence at Liscanor, day of May, Inst. at the hour of 12 o'clock ceeded with in succession until the whole
For Inventory and further particulars
WATT, Esq. his Majesty's Proctor, Cumberland-street, Dublin, and to J.C.
Deputy Marshal, 6, Cope-street, Dublin
Dated this 3d day of May, 1836.