

The devouring element. The exertions of some worthy exertions of some and properties of several. Great praise is due to with his engine, and con- The fire was caused by a e-house, putting his pipe industry acknowledges to Ghent, of Bath, who have Establishment. keale, gratefully acknow- g sums from the under- school-house, lately erected Esq. Abbey, £1; Julius k's Orphan Society thank- f One Pound from the course of Lectures on the ng, in which he brought anœuvres of Lord Wel- and described the closing y contest for the indepen- ok place before Toulouse ap of which action was eature, Mr. Douglas gave ent seat of war in Spain, tures of the country, and bitants, and pointed out nhabitants of the Basque of Don Carlos. By his pture of St. Sebastian in both natural and artificial, e of the troops under Sir ld be formed of the nature s troops. The Lectures safely congratulate Mr. e anticipations we hazarded s a most pleasing mode of of that eventful period to avocations preclude them le works that have been

DOCKS—MAY 20.

.....	204
.....	907
.....	988
.....	994
.....	878
.....	581
Paid.	Last Price
£25	144 0
100	113 0
25	22 15
10	5 2
25	35 0
7	5 17
60	78 0

... bought it from a woman in the street. John Downes was fined 10s. for rioting in the streets.

DEATHS.

On Thursday last, at Barrington-street, Pery-square, after a short illness. Croker Barrington, Esq. late of Blackrock, Cork, aged 64. At the house of his father, Mr. Neptune B. Conway, Thomond-street, the Rev. John Conway, Roman Catholic Priest, a victim to consumption at an early age.

Suddenly, on Thursday last, at a house in Mary-street, where he had arrived from the country that morning, Samuel Adams, Esq. of Churchtown, Newcastle, in this county.

In George-street, after a few days' illness of fever, Mr. George R. Crowe, Auctioneer and Valuator, sincerely lamented by a numerous family, to whom his death is an irreparable affliction.

On Thursday morning, in George's-street, aged two years, Thomas, only child of Thomas Morony, jun. of Miltown-house, county Clare, Esq.

On Tuesday evening, in Galway, of typhus fever, Mr. Denis Lenigan, merchant, formerly of this City.

Of fever, at Nenagh, on the 19th instant, Pierce M'Keogh, Esq. M.D. a Gentleman whose loss as a physician, a friend, and a social companion, must prove irreparable in the circle of his residence.

Mrs. Martha Geoghegan, daughter of the late Owen Doherty, Esq. of Dublin.

At Lower Kilshanic, near Rathcormac, Mr. Edward Hawkins, Revenue officer.

Isabella, wife of George Maybury, Esq. of Gortroe, near Killarney.

At Rakenny, county Cavan, Margaret, relict of the Rev. Shuckburgh Whitney Upton.

At his father's residence on the Mall, Tuam, Mr. Henry Burke, third son of Major Burke.

On the 5th of December, at Nusserabad, Bengal, the wife of the Rev. W. Palmer, and mother of Mrs. Joseph Ousley, of this City.

On Wednesday, in Shannon-street, in the prime of life, aged 18, Mr. Thomas O'Mealy, only son of Mr. James O'Mealy, bookbinder. He was a young man of religious moral habits, loved and esteemed by every person who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

At Hillmount, near Ballymena, Margaret, wife of Robert Young, Esq., daughter of the late James Stephens, Esq. of Dublin, and Elizabeth, wife of Captain James O'Hagan, of Meath.

At Whitworth-row, Dublin, Mr. Robert Madgett, printer.

At Ballymoyer, the Rev. P. O'Toole, Roman Catholic Curate of Longhilly.

At Lismore, of fever, Mr. Richard Hickie.

In Belfast, Mr. Charles Prior, comedian, a native of Sheffield, for several years acting manager of the London and other theatres.

At Arbour terrace, Commercial-road, London, Captain G. Brown.

In Osnaburg-street, Regent's-park, Robert Thorpe, Esq. LL.D.

At Camden-town, Peter Bordes Fletcher, Esq.

In London, of decline, Mr. Francis Huggard, printer, formerly of Tralee.

At Wrexham, Lieut. R. S. Parry, Royal Flint Rifle Corps.

At Walmer, Gilbert Karney, Esq.

After giving birth to a daughter, Emma, wife of T. H. Osborne, Esq. of Gillwell House, Essex.

The Rev. James Ellis, M.A. Rector of Ashurst, Sussex.

In Chichester, Lieut.-Colonel George Humphry, many years in the 14th Light Dragoons.

At the Vicarage, Ormskirk, Harriet, wife of the Rev. Joshua Thomas Horton, and the eldest daughter of Sir Thomas Dalrymple Esqeth, Bart. of Rufford Hall, Lancaster.

At Schoonbeck, near Leige, Lina, wife of Edward Count Preston, son of the late Hon. Jenico Preston, and brother to the late Viscount Germanston.

Sir Charles Wilkins, K.H. LL.D. F.R.S. aged 86.

At Langley Courtenay, Esq. nephew of the late Earl of Bute.

At Catherine Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Seton Forman, Esq.

At East Mousley, aged 98, Mary, relict of Sir Edmund Nagle.

At the house of the Rev. Mr. Inglis, Angushire, Edward Hart, Esq. son of the late General Hart.

At Calcutta, Lieut.-Colonel W. Kennedy, of the Bengal Army.

At Madras, Captain Kerr, and Lieut.-Colonel Ritchie.

COMPANY, House, L Establishment, 48, U letter post-paid) which

Adv

HYDRAULICS.— &c. Wanted a take the supply of the commonly called the and its vicinity. This liable to choke, and be man to perform the w any other Pump, in sho profitable to any man Contractors and other gress, is tenfold great the vast superiority of being received in the F for House and domestic Water Closets, being Well work, Street and and Distilleries, for Co and Bleach Works, fo tion and all practical u the invention a public

Apply personally, BEARE, Civil Engineer

AT a Meeting of a Dispensary, held golden, on this day, for Attendant to this Ins the Chair—The Rev. C. Langford, Esq. sec of Medicine, of the U the Royal College of S of Midwifery of the unanimously elected.

Proposed by Bourke Langford, Esq.—That Treasurer.

Proposed by James Rev. George Vincent—Secretary.

Proposed—That the Bourke White, Esq. J Esq. John Morgan, Esq. William Morgan Treasurer and Secreta

Sir A. De Vere hav Vincent being called Proposed that the A. De Vere Bart. for Chairman.

May 18, 1836.