

and they intend building ford.

monial of the consecration of Killaloe, took place on iversity, before a most ion. The ceremony was nop of Dublin, assisted by Kildare. The usual service as chaunted by the choir; hed by the Rev Dr. Sadlier, the Messiah, "Thou art ve the Word," &c. ering his residence at Cove enevolence and religion. racted his attention is the nnual sermon for whtch is the 26th instant.

ady Grace Vandeleur, their ed from Dublin at Kilrush, their return with music, nd presenting a piece of his promotion to the Royal ss of Kent has subscribed Doctor M'Hale's Roman l between Ballinamore and on the road last Saturday ers, who beat him despe-up fortunately secured the a named Sinnot, burglari-of Mr. George Edwards of on keys, and proceeded to having attempted to take ed most desperately, and eing obliged to fire, shot e deceased, had been tried years ago, for the murder n, but the sentence was nd subsequently remitted

West, is committed to Cork a Friday night, by striking g her, in the presence of pose for their mother's life. amed Dalton, clerk in the was drowned while bathing e gaol have been dismissed y, a prisoner, under charge keale on the Sabbath, the a petitions passed for the he amended municipal bill. as among the unsuccessful Dublin Library Society, de-Grace, to Anne, daughter of the late C. Chambers, Esq. Hon.

East India Company's service.

At Richmond, William Bouverie Pusey, Esq. youngest son of the late Hon. P. Pusey, to Catherine, second daughter of T. Freeman, Esq.

At Preston-Candover, William Hunter Little, Esq. of Llansanfraed, Monmouthshire, to Georgiana, youngest daughter of Winchecombe H. Hartley, Esq. and the late Lady Louisa Hartley, and niece of the late Earl of Scarborough.

DEATHS.

On Thursday morning, at Kilmichael, county Clare, Mrs. Breen, wife of Mr. James Breen, of fever, deservedly regretted by her family, friends, and the poor in her immediate neighbourhood.

At the New Barracks, Mrs. Lynch, wife of the Messman.

At Phibbsborough-road, Dublin, Jane Lloyd, aged 60 years, wife of John Lloyd, Esq. Denzille-street.

At Decberth, near Kilmallock, Maryann, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Samuel M'Connell.

Jeannette, eldest daughter of William Russell, of Edenderry, Esq.
Of fever, Mr. Samuel Walshe, of this city, cabinet-maker.

At Castlecor, Cork, the seat of Joseph Deane Freeman, Esq.
Elmina, daughter of the late John Berkeley Deane, Esq. of Berkeley, county Wexford.

At Breagouge House, Cork, the residence of her father. of rapid consumption, Isabella, eldest daughter of John Rogers, Esq.

At Ballinlough, aged 76, Martha, the widow of the late Thos. Gregg, Esq. formerly Deputy Registrar of the Diocese of Cork and Ross.

At the Presentation Convent, Kilkenny, Mrs. Mary de Sales Farrell.
Richard Morris, Esq. of Ballycanvan, near Waterford.

In Clonmel, Mr. Patrick Ryan, many years a non-commissioned Officer in the Tipperary Militia.

At Kilbeggan, William Hussey, Esq.

At Ballindolan, county Kildare, suddenly, Humphry Bor, Esq.

James Scott, Esq. son of the late Dr. Scott, of Pettigo.

In Killaloe, James, eldest son of Michael Martin, Esq. a young gentleman of most excellent character.

In Dublin, Anne, relict of Robert Shearman, of Kilcreen, Esq.

Mr. Thomas Wall, for many years a respectable stuff manufacturer in Mark's-alley, aged 78 years.

At his house, on Cambridge-terrace, Edgware-road, near London, Barry Edward O'Meara, Esq. late surgeon to the Emperor Napoleon, and author of the "Voice from St. Helena."

In Leonard-place, Kensington, after a few days' illness, Eliza, wife of Lieut.-Colonel G. E. Pratt Barlow.

The Hon. Mrs. Donovan, sister to Lord Huntingfield, and wife of Alexander Donovan, Esq. of Hertford-street, Mayfair, London, and Framfield-park, Sussex.

In Connaught-terrace, Edgware-road, near London, Edmond, youngest son of the late T. Lenigan, Esq. of Castle Fogerty, county Tipperary.

In London, General William Scott.

At Alverstoke, Colonel Nicholas Ramsay, Knight of the Hanoverian Guelphic Order, lately Inspecting Field-Officer at Leeds, and many years Assistant Adjutant-General in Dublin.

Aged 70, Rebecca, wife of T. Usborne, Esq. of Gillwell House, Essex.

Peter Watson, Esq. of Cheltenham, formerly of Glasgow.

Seymour Saffery Sayer, eldest son of Capt. Sayer, of High-street, Portsmouth.

At Chelsea Hospital, Mary Anne, the wife of Captain W. M'Leod, of that establishment.

At Cheltenham, where he was residing for the benefit of his health, Edward Brewster, Esq. late of French-street, Dublin.

At Edinburgh, Captain J. Hodderwick, hp, 93d Highlanders.

At Santander, of fever, Lieut. Thadeus M'Cartie, 7th Regiment British Auxiliary Legion, son of the late Charles M'Cartie, Esq. of Church-hill, county Cork.

At Calcutta, John Palmer, Esq. styled by Lord Hastings, the Prince of Merchants.

On board the "Caledonia," in the Mediterranean, in consequence of an accident whilst shooting at Syracuse, Charles Paul Irby, aged 18, son of Captain the Hon. F. Paul Irby, R.N.

At Meerut, in Bengal, the Lady of Captain Mylne, 11th Dragoons.

ENNIS COLLEGE.

REV. DOCTOR KING, & THE SCHOOLMASTER, T. C. D.

4. E and Pr proven Cultiva
duction a Gene Statist
its Fut
8vo. w
1300 P
The
Lon

INSP

W

Munste
as Insp
New C afforde very gr ment t and w Lieuten
qualifie ing rec confide

Havi dischar and un your ar stitutio strict i of delin

Ente
racter, cannot possess and ser genera

We Govern
advant sincere to whi always which had th

We
disapp have e
Plate
memor