

King's Bench, Dublin, on Friday, was James v. Anderson, an action by the pro- and lodging-house in Marlboro'-street, having been indicted by defendant lodging-house and a house of ill-fame, but for plaintiff £175 damages.

Exchequer, on Saturday, in the cause of Er of Killaloe v. Otway Cave, and Studdart upon sequestration were obtained.

ices of registry served with the Clerk of county Carlow, against July Sessions.— These were sent in by the Roman Catholic sequence will be another conflict between ts in that county of agitation.

Quarter Sessions only two electors were county Kerry.

Irish Priests, and 1,500 Curates in Ire- me of the former £300 a year each.

n Kent, of Sunville, Killaloe, is said to Catholic, and on his death bed persuaded a member of the same communion.

these patriotic Gentlemen who have been in forming that truly national and pros- the Agricultural Bank, are also the origiw Commercial Insurance Company of and it cannot fail of becoming one of g Companies known, being so framed as n its favour nearly the whole community, Proprietors, or Agents, extending thro' country its salutary influence, we do not institution that promises so ample a nvested in it, and entertain no doubt of on at a considerable premium.

addressed by the Rev. J. Hastings Allen, hishop of Limerick, to the Editor of the

give a copy :—

“ Corofin, June 18th.

st seen your Paper of the 14th instant, he head of “The Limerick No Popery he following passage :—‘ We do not quar- done so, with fair and free discussion ;

of unfairness, of wanton and insulting ng to the use of means which every indig-

ng and charity could not but feel to be improper.’ To this passage there is ‘ Vide the Rev. Mr. Allen’s expose of ne of faith and works, as reported in the ect that my expose of the doctrine of the rmed any part of the review of my sermon and as I have always studiously abstained s offence to those whose religious opinions think myself quite justified in calling rward any statement from my sermon, or rt of it which appeared in the Chronicle, ace any unfairness, any wanton or insult-y resorting, on my part to means, which by any person of good feeling, unwar-per. The statement which I made of the urch of Rome, on the subject of Justifica-authorized, or merely inferential state- tion, a literal translation of the canon of

nt. Your’s, &c. &c.

“ J. HASTINGS ALLEN.”

appeared in part of our last impression:—) Sir James Lyon, a Waterloo Officer, and h Regiment, is to succeed Major-General eney in the command of the Army in er, and Sir Edward Blakeney will have Mediterranean, as Major-Gen. Ponsonby om Malta.

n received by the Colonels of Militia, y of State’s Office for the Home Depart-mediate return of the names, ages, and length ficers and non-commissioned officers now their command.

man of the name of Bourke, who was a Massy Dawson, 14th Light Dragoons, on Tipperary, was shot at the Glen of Aherloe, daughter of Trafford Trafford, Esq. of Oughtington Hall, Cheshire.

At Clapham church, R. H. Carey Hunt, Esq. eldest son of R. Hunt, Esq. of Sidbury, Devonshire, to Bridget Margaret, eldest daughter of J. Barber, Esq. of Clapham-rise, Surrey.

At St. John’s Episcopal Chapel, Greenock, Edward Candler, Esq. of Norton Pinkney, Northampton, to the Right Hon. Maria Janet, Baroness Sempill, in her own right, in the Peerage of Scotland.

At Meerut, Bengal, William Barr, Esq. Bengal Artillery, to Maria Louisa Johnston, eldest daughter of the late Colonel Lamb, of the Bengal Army, and grand-daughter of the late Rev. Patrick Sands, Vicar of Celbridge and Straffan, Diocese of Dublin.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, Richard Stephenson, Esq. of Curriheen, in this county, aged 75 years.

In William-street, after an illness of some duration, Jane, widow of the late John Carroll, Esq. of the Chamber of Commerce,—a Lady whose life gave faithful testimony of those Christian virtues which so eminently endeared her to a fond family, while they prepared the way for a transition to those happy scenes which are the reward of the just and good in life eternal.

The Rev. E. Palmer, late Rector of CloghJordan. Of fever, the Rev. John Purcell, Roman Catholic Curate of Thurles.

On Sunday last, Mrs. Burke, wife of John Burke, of Tintrim, Scariff, Esq.

At Bushy Park, in her 14th year, Maria, youngest daughter of Sir Robert Shaw, Bart.

Master George E. W. Butler, eldest son of William Deane Butler, Esq. of Stephen’s-Green, Dublin.

William Alley, of Townsend street, Dublin, jun. Esq. In Dublin, Richard Graves Mayne, second son of the late John Mayne, Esq. barrister-at-law.

In Harrington-street, Dublin, Isabella, widow of the late Howe Green Manders, Esq.

In Lower Pembroke-street, Dublin, of scarletina, Robert William Clarke, third son of Deputy Commissary General Elliott.

Emily Elizabeth, daughter of John Brennan, Kingston Lodge, county Dublin, Esq.

At Glanmire, Cork, Luke Godfrey, Esq. third son of Sir William Godfrey, of Kildoleman, county Kerry, and late Major in the 61st Regiment.

Edmond Barrett, Esq. of Boulamore, county Cork. At the house of the Rev. Silver Oliver, Loughgall, after a few hours’ illness, Olivia, third daughter of Acheson St. George, of Woodpark, county Armagh, Esq. in the 18th year of her age.

William Ham, of Queen-street, Dublin, Esq. a respectable timber merchant.

At MacVilla, near Morina, Mr. James Nerney, of Nerney’s-court, Dublin, job coach proprietor.

At Dromore, Tyrone, Miss Rebecca Scott, aged 22 years. Among her bequests, she has left the sum £100 to the Home Mission Society.

In Killarney, Ann, wife of Mr. John Lewis. At Mount Carmel Convent, New Ross, Miss Roche.

At the Palace, Tuam, the infant daughter of Captain Gascoyne, and grand daughter to his Grace the Archbishop of Tuam.

Lieut. John Butler, formerly of the 22d Regiment, and son to the late Captain John Butler, of the 61st Regiment.

On Saturday, on Arthur’s-quay, in an advanced age, much regretted, Mrs. England.

At Armagh, Isabella, relict of the late H. M’Master, Esq. formerly Registrar of the Diocess, and Proctor of the Metropolitan Court of Armagh.

At Rathfriland, Lieutenant David Read, late 11th Regiment. In Patrick-street, Cork, Mary Ann, daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Varian.

At New Ross, Eliza, wife of Edward Kough, Esq. J.P. At the house of her brother, Lieut.-Colonel C. Boyd, Ebury-street, Pimlico, London, Mrs. Bennett, wife of Major Bennett, late of the 69th Regiment.

At her brother’s house in London, Emily, wife of Major Bennett. In London, John, son of the late Capt. Barnard, of Scots Fusileers.

In Pembroke-square, Kensington, Christopher William Fisher, Esq. aged 73 years.

At Hammersmith, Captain Joseph Macdowall, hp Unatt. At Shootesbrook Park, Berks, Christopher Watson, Esq. formerly Lieut.-Colonel in the 3d or King’s Own Dragoons, aged 85.

At Alexander-square, Brompton, Major George Ross. Emma, wife of T. J. Foord, Esq. of Great Portland-street, London.

At his seat, near Salisbury, Earl Nelson, aged 49. The Earl was nephew of the hero of Trafalgar ; he is succeeded in his titles by his eldest son, Viscount Trafalgar, now in his 10th year.

At Cambridge, Lady Horwood, relict of Sir Busic Horwood, Knt. M.D. and only daughter of the late Rev. Sir John Peshall, Bart. of Oxford.

At Thames Ditton, Surrey, Mr. Cæsar Picton, in his 82d year. At Gosport, aged ten years, Donald Francis, fourth son of the late Captain Donald Maclean, Queen’s Royals.

At Nottingham, aged 90, Thomas Bentley, Esq. formerly Captain in the Foot Guards ; he served with Elliott in 1783 at Gibraltar, but some years since out of the army.

In Edinburgh, the Hon. Mrs. Rollo. On passage home from Jamaica, Henry Simpson Elmslie, Esq. formerly of the Grenadier Guards.

At Greenock, Susan, wife of Mr. Hugh Stevenson, Surveyor of Customs.

At St. Sebastian, of wounds he received on the 5th, Lieutenant Courtenay Chadwick, third son of R. Chadwick, Esq. of Treleigh, county Cornwall.

At Swan River, Western Australia, William Trimmer, Esq. of 17th Regiment, aged 40, drowned by the upsetting of a boat.

Important to the Public.

PETER GIBSON begs leave to inform his Friends and the Public, that he will sell off the Timber in his Yard in Jail-street, and on the Borheen, at the prices annexed to each kind, in order to make room for the Cargo of the Isabella of Sunderland, which he expects daily, direct from Quebec, with as well-assorted a Cargo as ever came to Clare.

Bruff, June 22.

To the Freemason

THE Grand Lodge of Free Ireland, having found it expedient that Processions, do hereby enjoin a from, under penalty of the most severe Lodge. By order of the Grand Lodge.

June 22.

Desirable Residence

TO BE LET for such term as may be desired, in immediate possession given to MARYVILLE, within a very short distance of the Town of Charleville, in the County of Wick. MARYVILLE combines in itself all the advantages of a desirable residence for a family. The House is in good order having lately been repaired, and the addition of a well-cropped Garden. The Lands are principally Meadow and are well cultivated. A small quantity of Tillage is attached to the house, which can be had at a very low price. Limerick Mail-Coaches pass the house. Application, if by letter, post-paid, to Dr. PEARSON, Esq. Maryville ; or to Dr. PEARSON, Limerick.

AUCTION

Of excellent Household Furniture, elegant Plated Ware, a Lady’s Inside Car, &c. &c.

JOSEPH MARSHALL will sell at the City Sale-Room, Wilkin-street, on 23d June instant, the Furniture removed from the County Clare, which consists of Mahogany Parlour and Drawing Room, elegant Set of Dinner Tables, Sofa and Work Table, Music Cabinet, Bedsteads, Bedding, Bedstead, Commodes, Basin Stand, Blinds, some fine proof Engravings, a fine copy of John Kemble, as well as elegant Plated Ware, China, &c. &c. Requisites, &c. &c.

JOSEPH MARSHALL, Auctioneer, 23, Wilkin-street, Limerick.

BATTY’S CIRCUS

(HAY-MARKET,) ELLEN-STREET.

(Under the especial patronage of the Hon. the Lord Mayor.)

CHALLENGES COMBAT

With any other EQUESTRIAN ARTIST.

MR. BATTY, Proprietor of the Circus, in different Cities of London, &c. &c. has the honour to announce that he is immediately opening a Splendid New Circus in Ellen-street, with his extensive collection of HORSES, and a very numerous and popular EQUESTRIAN ARTIST, in combination of Equestrian Talent, never before seen on any former occasion, been