DEATHS.

On Monday morning, rather unexpectedly, after a few hours illness, at his residence in the Crescent, James O'Grady, Esq. next brother of Lord Viscount Guillamore, and a Burgess of the Corporation of Limerick,—a gentleman of the greatest suavity of manners, of truly gentlemanlike and affable deportment. Few could excel him in those rare qualities which enhance the charms of social life, and constitute the delight of the domestic circle. The loss of such an estimable character, which is felt with bitter anguish by his immediate family, has diffused a sensation of general regret amongst all ranks of our fellow-citizens. The remains of Mrs O'Grady will be interred in the family vault at Knockany in this county, the resting place of his ancestors.

On Saturday last, at his seat, Ballinakill, in this county, Godfrey
