

and stakes of £5
Farrell's Arab won the personage on the week sowing pota-
where the former preached his fare-diocese, to a highly reply at the parting
at kind intercourse, between them. The now officiates as Trinity College, the Middleton School,
eleventh, and twelfth
R. Gibbings, Butler, ton—76 candidates
Examination, six of ps out of the eleven lectures on Animal
the various important knowledge of this o society, groaning
inflicted by causes operation from an
and of the relations each other, and to ch knowledge widely riums of health, and its security. Many afflictions of disease
were they acquainted by which the healthy ed; then would our n to prevent than to more brilliant success
ed in the confidence
ogy has no less extenpire of living nature, han is afforded in the cellence to creatorial
livering a lengthened
y in the approaching
d all who value alike,
n and that knowledge
e maintained, and life
o give diligent attends occupied the thinking ity from the earliest ing, by its importance, ebrated Dr. Paley an
to convince mankind, every living thing, of deity, which popular
ged by Lord Brougham.
d delivered

At Welsh, Devonshire, Lieut. H. Jackson, of the to Georgiana, youngest daughter of J. Goss, Esq.
At Southampton, Mr. Silver, of Wooton, Isle of Wight, to Hannah, the eldest daughter of the late Captain Brandreth, R.N.
At Poynings, Captain C. Bradford, to Anna, daughter of the Rev.
Dr. Holland, Precentor of Chichester, and grand-daughter of the late Lord Erskine.
At Marseilles, Frederick Rabaud, Esq. of that city, to Eliza, eldest daughter of E. Hayes, Esq. of Smyrna.

DEATHS.

At Derryquin Castle, Kerry, the seat of his brother-in-law, F. C.
Bland, Esq. Captain Massy H. Herbert, R.N.
At Arthur's-quay, Mr. Patrick M'Mahon, father of the Rev. Francis M'Mahon, Roman Catholic Curate of Roscrea.
In William-street, much regretted, Rose, wife of Mr. Wm. Hill.
In Mungret-street, of consumption, Mr. William Nagle, Architect.
A gentleman much regretted by his young family and friends.
In Thomas-street, after a few hours' illness. Mr. Michael Walsh, Notary Public, and Commissioner of Affidavits, to the deep and lasting regret of his family.
At Newcastle, Mr. Richard Loane, a respectable man, and many years Weighmaster in that town.
In Peter's-row, Dublin, Mr. Joseph Lumley, jun. printer.
Mr. William Walsh, of South Great George's-street, Dublin.
At Tralee, Francis Godfrey Martelli, Esq. eldest son of the late Captain Martelli, of the 69th Regiment, and nephew of Sir John Godfrey, of Kilcoleman Abbey, Bart.
In Milltown, Kerry, Triphenia, daughter of Dr. Tidmarsh.
In Clonmel, Mr. Thomas Shortis.
James, son of the late Robert Johnson, of Cork, Esq.
In Cork, Robert Gumbleton, eldest son of William Percy, Esq.
of the Ceylon Rifle Corps.
At Labertydaly, near Skibbereen, Alexander M'Carthy, Esq.
Suddenly, at Dunkettle, Cork, Mary, relict of the late William Crawford, of Lakelands, Esq.
Tuesday, in Nelson-street, Sergeant Christopher Shire, of the 97th depot, stationed in Portsmouth. The Surgeon and Officers of his Regiment, with a feeling almost parental (which reflects the highest honour on them, while it speaks equally strong for the character of deceased) ordered him home in a delicate state of health, in the hope that his native air (Limerick) might be serviceable to him.
At Montpelier-Parade, Kingstown, Mrs. Hamilton, relict of Francis Hamilton, Esq. Assistant Barrister of the county Cavan.
At Cheltenham, Jane, wife of Thomas Christy Wakefield, of Moy-allen, county Down, a member of the Society of Friends.
In Merrion-square, Dublin, John Barron, of Georgestown, county Waterford, Esq.
Of fever, in the North of Spain, Lieut. William Oscar Bible, only surviving son of Dr. Bible, of Dublin.
In London, Susan, daughter of Frederic Gunning, Esq.
barrister-at-law.
In London, aged 15, Harriet Selina, last surviving daughter of William Ormsby Gore, Esq. M.P.
In London, Sir Francis Freeling, Bart. Secretary to the General
Post-Office, aged 72.
Evan Griffiths, Esq. of Chapel-street, Somerstown, London.
At Bath, Eliza, widow of the late Colonel Barclay, 56th Regiment.
At Clifton, near York, aged 77: the Rev. James Britton, D.D.
At Chorlton Lodge, Cheshire, Thomas Tarleton, Esq.
At Oban, Lieut. Colin Campbell, of the 60th Regiment, aged 51.
At Plymouth, William Queade, Esq. late Captain 40th and 77th Regiments.
In Kirkdale, Liverpool, aged 93, William Farrar, of the Society of Friends.
In York-street, Bristol, in her 92d year, Ann Clark, widow, of the Society of Friends.
At Linhope, Roxburgshire, William Aitchison, Esq. one of the most extensive farmers in Scotland.
Thomas Graham Stirling, of Airth, Esq.
[The report of Mrs. Vetch's death, which appeared in a London Paper, and copied in our last, was wholly groundless.]

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—JULY 15.

Bank Stock, .....	91 3/4
Irish Three per cent Consols .....	98 1/2
Government Stock, 3 1/2 per Cent. ....	99 1/2
Government (New), 3 1/2 per cent. ....	87 1/2
Grand Canal Debentures, 6 per cent

Most

TO BE LE
AND IM

AN extensive, Establishme
extended Mercan Grocery, Wine, I
require the expe
Office and Ware
valuation, with th
as may suit the i seldom offers in I Application to Auctioneer and H

TH
DOC

I, PATRICK
from Limer Ulcerated Leg, v
having grown po
their care, with t
of the surprising
a trial, and in th
I soon had the sa
ulceration had st
four pounds of r
sound, and my l this 20th day of
Dr. S—

MUNSTE
ENDC

M INSTITUTED AN 10th GEO. IV
Annuities
by p

William Monse
G. H. Fitzgerald

William Monse
G. H. Fitzgera
J. W. O'Grady
Robert O'Brien
F. J. O'Neill,
R. G. Maunsel
A. F. O'Neill,

David Fitzgera
John Owens, I

Wm. Roche, B
Wm. S. O'Bri
Alderman Gab
Ph