

ing the teeth there-Recorder regretting country, sentenced at the Dominican inquisitive audience
 subject was transub-considerable ingenuity Seymour, brought an ning, which forcibly s of the Drama in splendid assemblage of royals not only gave
 's benefit, but almost person to encourage The performance
 an of Geneva, passed and Miss Huddart,
 crown which awaits
 the Glasgow theatre
 ived in that character.
 res are to be sold at Thomas F. Carroll, a errion-square, Dublin,
 oom-keeper's Society,
 hool of Francis-street, Saggard, 20l. to each ies in St. Michael and l, 30l. to Rathmines to the Sisters of the Society, and 10l. for ally acknowledges the Grady, on account of the County Limerick
 of £1 10s. per Captain Petty Sessions,
 Esq. M. P. in reply
 l, by the Rev. Edward r next.

KS—JULY 19.

91
 98
 99
 87
 59

Richard Davis, Esq. of Middlesex, to Harriet, eldest daughter of the late Col. Alpe, of Hardingham, Norfolk.
 At Bath, the Rev. Richard Wetherell, of Pashley House, Ticehurst, Sussex, to Sarah Maria, widow of Captain R. Duff, 93rd Regiment.
 At St. Peter's, Colchester, Joseph, son of S. Hoare, Esq. banker, London, to Anna Amelia, only daughter of the late C. Buxton, Esq.
 At Walcot church, Bath, Richard Jenkins, Esq. 41st Regiment, son of the late Richard Jenkins, Esq. of Beachley Lodge, to Julia, daughter of the late Thomas Castle, Esq. of Clifton.
 On 15th inst. by the Rev. Dr. Auld, Lieut. William Macpherson, of the Royal Regiment, son of Major Macpherson, of Ayr, to Mary Isabella, daughter of the Hon. Roger Rollo, and niece to Lord Rollo, Duncrub, Perthshire.
 At Hitcham, Bucks, Lieut.-Colonel Home, Madras Native Infantry, to Harriet, eldest daughter of D. Campbell, Esq. of York-place, Barnsbury Park, Islington.
 At Poona, James Erskine, Esq. eldest son of J. Erskine, Esq. of Cardross, Perthshire, to Mary Eliza, second daughter of Brigadier C. S. Pagan, C.B. of Southampton.

DEATHS.
 At the house of his son-in-law, Robert Ruskell, Lower Sackville-street, Dublin, aged 70, Patrick Kirk, Esq. formerly of Lugbarn, Loughrea, son of Simon Kirk, of same place, a descendant of the late General Kirk.
 At Pallaskenry, yesterday, Mr. John Havener, who departed this life in the blessed hope that when Christ who is his life shall appear, he also shall appear with him in glory.
 In Boherbuoy, Mrs. Hallinan, relict of Mr. J. Hallinan, whose death we recorded a few days since.
 At Liverpool, on Friday, Mary, daughter of the late Js. O'Neill, Esq.
 At her residence, Russell-place, Dublin, Mrs. Clarke, relict of the late David Clarke, Esq. of Dublin.
 Of rapid decline, Matilda, youngest daughter of Wm. Lodge, Esq.
 of Kildare-street, Dublin.
 Of scarletina, Emily, aged 13 years, daughter of Deputy Commissary-General Elliott. A visitation more afflictingly and suddenly severe, seldom has befallen any family; five beloved children having sunk victims to the same fatal complaint within one brief month.
 At Sidney Place, Cork, Catherine Anne, youngest daughter of the late Michael Wood, of Cork, Esq.
 Maurice Otho, second son of Epenetus Fitzgibbon, Esq. of Innis-tinga Abbey, Cork.
 In Ballineen, Cork, Thomas, son of Wm. Fuller, Esq. county Cork.
 At Greenfield, Cork, George, youngest son of George Sullivan, Esq. of Greenwich.
 Mr. Miles Walsh, of Kilmacthomas, county Waterford.
 At Tramore, Jane, wife of John Anderson, Esq. of Kilkenny.
 At an advanced age, at Belmont, near Galway, Mrs. Kelly, mother of the late John Kelly, Esq.
 On Wednesday, aged four years, Robert, son of Mr. Daniel Norman, of George's-street.
 Mary Anne, wife of John Smith, of Sackville-street, and eldest daughter of John Dodd, Esq.
 Henry Rathborne, of Dunsinea, county Dublin, Esq.
 In Hanover-square, London, Viscount Clifden, aged 76.
 At Chatham, Mrs. Ballingall, widow of the late Lieut.-General Ballingall, Royal Marines, and mother of Capt. Ballingall, R.M.
 At Loudwater, Bucks, aged 72, Charlotte, relict of J. Hamman, Esq. of Clapham-common.
 In London, Dr. Rhynd Lawder, Surgeon of the 7th Hussars.
 In London, Susan, daughter of Frederic Gunning, Esq.
 barrister-at-law.
 Colonel John Cunninghame, of Thorntown, N.B. in his 81st year.
 At Boulogne sur-Mer, Martin French, Esq. of Calais, formerly of the 18th Hussars.
 At Pisa, in the Grand Duchy of Tuscany, aged 16, Emily, second daughter of Sir Bouchier Palk Wrey, Bart. of Tavistock, Devonshire.

mentation of one selves they never purpose have been itself, which in the
 it the character it Messrs. O'Kelly
 to deceive a gene bottle will produce fair trial of a few effect will be prod
 mend it as a beau
 as it removes Dan the Hair to very Messrs. O'K.
 this Extract, gen
 O'KELLY & Co.
 the Label, withou
 that may be done
 feits. In Bottles

Caledo

For changing Red
 needs no comm & Co. purchase money, and onl
 article, will mak
 its wonderful e
 4s. 6d. and 4s.
 Prepared by Dublin and Galv
 by the following London—By Sutton and Co.
 St. Paul's Churc
 side. Liverpool
 Glasgow—Cam
 Pring and Rav
 Anderson and Fumuth, Sack
 and William B
 By Malcomson
 Hackett. Tip
 And by all Pat
 and in the Eas
 N.B.—Agen
 applying with
 In Limeric
 GUERIN, a