

et Police Office,
ut. Greig, 24th
in bank notes
at the Guildhall,
edlar, who had
s, has taken his
terests he repre-
vation to a seat
Earl of Hillsbo-
m the Continent,
urned without a
ervative.
of Mrs. Captain
months married,
She was the only
Belleek, Ferma-
ondon last week.
rment Steamer,
snuff-box value
Cork to convey atal day of the Sunday will be in 1765.
ony in the Chair,
monument in the
he late Dr. Jebb, usly resolved that
the base of the
on a very elegant
cimen of art:—
hop of Limerick,
s of Religion and
ca—in commemo-
piety and virtues
Nat.—Sept. 17th,
night, from Dub-
at St. Michael's his rapid route for
ening.
in London. Mr.
m London.
remaining in Dublin
s, to proceed on
rough the counties
Donegal, and will
van, &c.
on, an Irish Peer,
Hon. George Allan
s, which latter are
and Tipperary.—
ns in Surrey, which olonel of the Irish representative Peers.

Lough Corrib Regatta is postponed to the 19th inst. in consequence of the consecration of the new Chapel at Tuam. At Galway races on Wednesday, Mr. M'Donough's Sir William won a free handicap of £5, and £60 added, and Mr. Horan's Miss Huddart, won another plate. The winning horses at Bonmore races, Sligo, were Mr. Kelly's Irishman, Mr. Somers' Hotspur, Mr. Kelly's Langer, Mr. French's Piscaro, and Mr. Hassard's Off-he-goes. Captain Faulkner, of the brig Britannia, Mr. Roxby owner, with passengers from Tralee, in 14 days after his leaving Galway, took soundings on the Grand Bank of Newfoundland, and landed all safe at Quebec. Fruit eaters should be cautious at this season. A fine little boy, son to a gentleman residing near Cork, died on Saturday from eating unripe fruit.

The races of Cork commenced yesterday, at Ballyvolane. The stand-house accommodates 500 spectators. Mr. Farren made his debut with Mr. Seymour's company at Galway theatre on Monday night, in the character of Lord Ogleby.

Mr. Seymour has engaged that accomplished comedian, Mr. Wm. Farren, to come out at our Theatre, on Monday evening next.

In the neighbourhood of Nicker, this morning, a countryman taken prisoner under writ of rebellion by the bailiffs of the Rev. Mr. Scott, was rescued in view of the Police.

Patrick Hort, a countryman, returning from this City on Saturday night, fell off the bank into the water at Guilloge, near Plassy, and was drowned.

Summer has at length opened in all its glory, and the sea coast of Clare teems with visitors; Milltown in particular exhibits its usual attractions, among which, the brilliant talents of Messrs. Crenny and Connor, the celebrated Irish harpers, stand prominent. A concert given by those gentlemen at the Atlantic Hotel on Monday, drew together all the fashionables; and Hehir, the proprietor of that establishment, was not deficient in affording them every accommodation. This Hotel is kept in the neatest manner by Mr. Hehir, who is always prepared for his visitors.

The sickle is busily at work this week in the corn fields, and the weather is most favourable to its operations. The wheat appears likely to turn out a fair average cup.

Mr. Commissioner Farrell held his Insolvent Court at Tralee on Friday, when forty-two Insolvents were discharged; one remanded, and eleven petitions dismissed.

Dr. Barter has resigned the Inniscarra Dispensary, county Cork.

Mrs. Abigail Stoney, wife of the Rev. Ralph Stoney, dropped dead in her drawing-room, in the neighbourhood of Berrisokane, on Friday last. She was a beautiful young woman, enceinte, the mother of several children, and daughter of Thomas Sadleir, Esq. Clerk of the Peace for Tipperary.

The Hon. and Rev. Baptist Noel, brother of Lord Barmah, preached at the Asylum Chapel, in this city, on Sunday last. His text was taken from the 1 Tim. 1 c. 15 v. :— "This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save Sinners, of whom I am Chief." Upon this beautiful portion of Scripture, this legitimately interpreted, maintained, in her 6th England. In fine, Sir Gentlemen who decline to them, and in the d R. C. Brethren who di a striking practical cor upon the important coincidence between t of England advocate w upon the personal n people were to be rest mere, down-facing arg own. 'Have any of on him'—(John 7, 48. condescended to subm rity to the test of H (we read) heard him.

I am, S

(The following appear

Lieut.-Col. M'Don in England from the Pitcairn and Ensign the service companies

The out-detachmen into Charlesfort, Kin for Chatham, in a few

Sir William M'Ma Portsmouth from Dub General Sir Thomas

Lieut.-Colonel De embarking for India,

Lieut. Shiel, 94th

On Thursday, a Edinburgh Castle, L Lancers, President; Judge-Advocate.

The Hon. John Stockholm, will retu Bligh, the new Mini

Lord Mulgrave to Wednesday, proceed seat of Lord Carew, the night. He proc ford dinner, and the morning.

Mr. Alcock, May from Lord Mulgrave

Lord and Lady St to-day for their seat

Parliament will n 24th instant.

The High Sheriff ing at Naas on Mon Corporate reform qu

The late Lord Du year, was Aid-de-C shire Militia, and a