

Wigan; one, Hay-
of the 23d. Head-
two, Chester; two,
ice at Clonmel and
k for the murder of e 1833.
march from Temple-
gave his firelock to untry fellows leaped
th which they imme-
by Court-Martial.
of Ely's yacht Ber-
sh a lace manufactory
d out of danger.
y, Dean Adams pro-panegyric upon the arried off by fever in red flock.
d their late Curate, Russell to be one of ngland.
victs and 21 children
on board the Ship
les.
name of Colvey was ship, died in a fit of
ay.
the Bench were the
on.—Lucy O'Brien,
and Mary Sheehan,
se of Industry two nn Gleeson was fined
g drunk in the streets.
len Hutchinson, for e Brig Sarah, from his crew, who had
o Quebec, and from
on reaching the Pool
betook themselves
them 40s. each.—
ance on the streets;
with having seized a ers, which she had dismissed. Infor-
Kelly, for assault;
trick Hynes; against yan; against Michael Keogh; against Wm.
erine Healy; against
t Connors. Michael
son of Ellen De Vere, Denis Sheehan was street, according to the rites of the Roman Catholic Church, Henry Standish Barry, Esq. son of the late Standish Barry, Esq. of Lemlara House, county Cork, and brother of G. Standish Barry, Esq. M.P. to Angelina Anne Maria, youngest daughter of the late William Brander, Esq. of Morden-Hall, Surrey.

At Bath, Major C. L. Boileau, of the Rifle Brigade, to Margaret, relict of the late Claudius Kerr, Esq. of the Hon. East India Company's Service.
At the parish church, Wakefield, Robert Dudgeon, Esq. son of the late John Dudgeon, Esq. Leith, to Mary, eldest daughter of T. Tootal, Esq. Wakefield.
At Mhow, Bengal, Ensign Whish, 60th Native Infantry, to Maria, only daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Tulloch, 60th.

DEATHS.

Percival Banks Wallace, Esq. second son of William Baily Wallace, Esq. of North Great George's-street, Dublin.
On the 20th instant, after a short but severe illness, the infant son of Captain Hoskins, Royal Regiment.
John Sewell, fifth son of Alderman Hobson, Waterford.
In Castle-street, Dublin, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. J. M. Barnardo.
At Belcamp, county Dublin, Edmond Malone, late of Ballynahowron, county Westmeath, Esq.
Mrs. Bridget Monaghan, of Stoney-batter.
At Ranelagh, Travers Adamson, Esq.
At Mr. Sherrards's residence, Coolock Lodge, Dublin, after a short illness, John Blacker, Esq. of Drogheda, Esq. aged 75.
Fedelia, wife of Joseph Stringer, of Hampstead, county Dublin, Esq.
In Paris, Richard Nagle, Esq. second son of the late Pierce Nagle, Esq. of Anakissy, county Cork. This lamented gentleman's death was the consequence of mortal wounds inflicted by robbers on the night on the 8th instant.
At Tyhollan Glebe, county Monaghan, the Rev. Charles Crookshank, second son of the late Judge Crookshank.
At Hammond's Marsh, Cork, Miss Irish.
At Newgrove, county Galway, Terence M'Donogh, Esq.
The Rev. John M'Hugh, P.P. of Cliffony, county Sligo.
At City View, Waterford Frances, daughter of Daniel Durnford, Esq.
At Kilmacthomas, Ann, relict of the late William Moore, Esq.
At Tullamore, aged 76, Anthony Pim, one of the Society of Friends.
At Grove-lane, Camberwell, Surrey, Edward White, Esq. many years Chairman of the Society of Postmasters.
In Well-street, Hackney, William Bell, jun. Esq. of Cheapside.
At Eastover-house, Egg Buckland, Major Richard Julian, aged 85. This highly respected gentleman was one of the few survivors of the celebrated engagement at Bunkers-hill. He then belonged to the 23d or Welsh Fusileers. He was also with the same regiment at the Battle of Waterloo.
James Bradley, Esq. of Portsea, and formerly one of the Professors of Mathematics to the Royal Naval Academy, in Portsmouth Dock-yard.
At All-Cannings, Wiltshire, Lilla, daughter of the Rev. T. A. Methuen.
At Chiltern Hall, near Clare, Suffolk, William Merritt, LL.D.
At Nunsbury, Cheshunt, aged 73, John Earley Cook, Esq. formerly Sheriff, and many years Magistrate of the county of Herts.
At Edinburgh, Eleanora Renton, relict of Charles Sharpe, Esq. of Hoddam, and mother of Lieut.-General Matthew Sharpe, M.P.
At Calais, Captain Charles Alexander Macbean.
At the Cape of Good Hope, Major Wm. Johnston, late of the Rifles.
At Montreal, Upper Canada, Charles, son of Henry Dyer, Esq. late Captain 37th Regiment.
At Montreal, Charles Plenderleath, son of Mr. James Buchanan, formerly Colour Sergeant 49th Regiment.
In Bengal, Surgeon Henderson, of the Medical establishment, and Lieut. G. Dwyer, Invalid establishment.

and may be weather.
Ballast O
Phoeni
JOHN
THE abo
upon s prietor hope Nobility and Nothing s
lishmect effi
with their o expense and
from Englar
his Concern
to place hi
works with

Theatr
(By Perm
ON this 1836,
Mr. W. FA
and Coventelicited the appearance
HELEN FA
MR. SE
announce to rison, and t
that never h ducing befo
First Order
above High announced
numerous F
City in Ire
rivalled tale
supported b
The Eve
favourite pl

Mr. S
Mrs.
The S
After the
The who
time, the fa
Farren,
Uncle
Notice—Comedy of Gover

To be Sold by Auction,

ON THURSDAY, the 10th day of November next, in the Public Sale Room, No. 11, Upper Ormond-quay, Dublin, at the hour of two o'Clock in the afternoon, by order of the Trustees and Executors of Major Jonathen Willington, and to fulfill the Trusts of his will, the Lands of LORAN, and its subdenominations—called GURTNASKEBA and