

to-morrow at have applied to es of Mr. O'Con-xiation, and riot
ll, Egan, French, hy.
ford, purposes to o make a diocesan
, under a pain of
c. on Sundays or g port for tobacco
wens, master, was y of Leghorn, on posed, was caused vessel was princi-
She belonged to e bark trade from Assurance Com-
annual meeting in Colonel Westenra's
sweepstakes £20,
ia, and Mr. Watt's Anglesey stakes of
ng 17 competitors.
he first heat of the rsday, and there is
had not the trainer
paratory stages.
elly's Palgrave won Lord Lucan, beater of the day prep won a free handi-and hunters. The ment, played every pectable patronage,
central part of this explored in Limerick.
opened the Cork
ide yacht, Robert e cup, beating the West, proprietor,
Institution at Edg-
have been received
-Lady Douglas, £1;
rchdeacon Maunsell,
£1; Rev. Richard mallock, 10s.; Rev.

second daughter of S. North, Esq. Police Magistrate.
At the Hotel of the British Embassy, Paris, Newton Saville Scott, Esq. attached to his Majesty's Legation at the Hague, to Catherine, eldest daughter of Henry Fitzwilliam Barnard, Esq. of Paris.
At Ballary, Madras, A. E. Angelo, Esq. to Eliza Law, daughter of Captain Frazer, 55th Regiment.
At St. George's church, Cape Town, Horatio Clarke Beevor, Esq. 13th Madras N.I. to Ellen, fifth daughter of the Rev. Dr. Okes.

DEATHS.

On Monday, at Cappanahane, the seat of her brother, Richard Mason, Esq. Harriot, wife of Peppard Knight Sullivan, of Camas, in this County, Esq. a Lady sincerely and deservedly regretted by her family and friends.

On Sunday last, at her son's residence, in this city, at the venerable age of 90 years, Catherine, widow of the late Mr. James Hogan, of Finnisterstown, in this county, and mother of the Very Rev. Dr. Hogan, P.P. of St. Michael's. It is no panegyric to say of this good and worthy woman, that her life, extended to a period beyond the ordinary lot of mortals, was a bright example of those Christian virtues which illumined her earthly career, and prepared the way for the enjoyment of eternal happiness. Her remains were interred yesterday in the family vault near Adare, followed to their resting place by a numerous and highly respectable cortege of friends.

In Mary-street, of typhus fever, Anne, daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Ryan, of this City, a young lady whose early death is a great affliction to her family and friends.

Mary, wife of Mr. John Rahilly, of the King's Island.

In High-street, Mary, wife of Mr. John Byrn.

Of a short illness, at his lodgings in Parliament-street, Dublin, Talbot Glascock, Esq. solicitor, and formerly candidate for the county Clare.

In Dublin, Mrs. Jordan, wife of William Jordan, of Galway, Esq. The Rev. Patrick Duffy, P.P. of Kilmule, near Castleblakeney.

George Woods, second son of George Woods, Esq. of Milverton.

At his residence, Sackville-street, Dublin, Sobieski Kildahl, Esq.

Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Joy Walker, of Upper Dorset-street, Dublin.

At Serpentine-Avenue, Sandymount, Surgeon William Goodison, half-pay late 15th Light Dragoons.

Mary, wife of Mr. M. D'Arcy, of Great Brunswick-street, Dublin.

At Dromagh, between Millstreet and Kanturk, the Rev. John Barry, brother of Mr. Peter Barry, of Killarney.

In Oyster Hall, Tralee, (the seat of his brother-in-law, Daniel Supple, jun. Esq.) in the 30th of his age, Geore Tierney Supple, Esq.

At Killeigh, King's County, Margaret, wife of Thomas Conroy.

At an advanced age, the Rev. Mr. Jones, Rector of Kiltoghart, county Leitrim.

At the residence of her brother, the Rev. Mr. Lloyd, of Smith-hill, Elphin, Sarah, wife of John Carson, Esq. of Roscommon.

At Heartsford, county Down, George Houston, Esq.

At Leamington, Margaret, daughter of the late Matthias Maher, Esq. of Ballymullen, Queen's County, and sister to John Maher, Esq. M.P. for the county Wexford.

At Danville-Avenue, Robert Simon Young, Esq.

At St. Mary Abbot's-terrace, Kensington, W. D. Key, Esq.

At Worcester, Charlotte, relict of G. Wigley Perrott, Esq. late of Craycombe, grand-daughter of the late St. Andrew Lord St. John.

At Stamford-hill, aged 76, Mrs. Sarah Jefferies, formerly of Stoke Newington.

At Bognor, Anne, wife of Captain Baumgarten.

At Chapel Allerton, near Leeds, Major Skelton (late 10th Lancers), of Pap Castle, Cumberland, Magistrate and Deputy-Lieutenant for the county.

Hannah Abigail, wife of Mr. Erasmus Bond, of Soho-sq. Liverpool.

Matthew Cowper, Esq. of Exeter.

In Shenley Rectory, Anna Maria, eldest daughter of the Rev. T. Newcome.

At Vizagapatam, the Rev. W. Chester, Chaplain of that station.

On the 1st inst. at No. 69, Rue de Clichy, to the inexpressible regret of her affectionate family and of a few tried friends, Maria Latitia de Sievrac, nee Granville. This excellent Lady, though deeply read in the school of adversity, retained to the last great suavity of temper, joined to the most kindly feeling towards all her fellow Christians. May she rest in peace. "Multis bonis flebilis occidit."

W. Holbrooke,
Arthur B. Keene
Chas. Malley, E
J. A. Palmer, E
John Tomlinso
Dublin.
Actuary - Mr
House, 4, Colle
Solicitors - N
George's-street
be made.
Solicitors for Belfast, who wi
of Ireland.
Bankers in D
London Bank
Parliamentar
The Board si
their House, 4,
for the First Iss
who promise t
Company.
The First Iss
Is hereby giv
Dublin, or wit
the remaining August, nor fro
day of Septemb
After which
nounced, at su
determine upo
of the holders
Is hereby give A Third Issue
sale of the Fir
mium per Sha
Such Premium
the First and S
I hereby m Limerick, the
this moment
shares of this the 14th Sept
the Company
under circum
Company was mode of inves
Prospectus
supply, and a diate attention
September