Major Hollis, 25th Regiment, has left Templemore. Two officers and a Serjeant, upon whom a Court of Inquiry was held, are released from arrest.
 Lieutenant-General Sir Edward Blakeney, accompanied his Aid-de-Camp; Sir Thomas Arbuthnot, and Aid-de-camp, went to Spike Island, Cove, on Thursday, where he reviewed the depot of the 53d, and detachments of the 8th, 37th, 56th, 64th, and 84th Regiments. He afterwards inspected the barracks, and partook of a handsome dejeuner, prepared in honour of him by the officers of the 53d depot.
 Wednesday evening Lord and Lady Stanley arrived at Besborough-house, county Kilkenny, on a visit to Lord Dunmannon.
 A man calling himself Patrick Quigley, but whose real name is stated to be Meehan, was taken up last week at Liverpool, charged with being one of a party who waylaid and murdered Constable O'Donnell between Caber and Ballyporeen in 1834.
 O'Donnell was conveying prisoners at the time. Quigley is known to by a man who was one of the party under O'Donnell's command. Two men have been executed for the murder.
 On Saturday last, as a man of the name of Michael Conners, was on his return home from Clogheen to the neighbourhood of Newcastle, after disposing of some corn, he was waylaid on the road by a party of men, two of whom beat him so unmercifully that he lingered for a short time, until death relieved him from his sufferings.
 On Wednesday night a fire broke out in a cabin, in the suburbs of Clonmel, which soon communicated with four others, and before the progress of the flames could be stopped, the whole fell a prey to the devouring element.
 It is currently reported in Tipperary, that Mr. O'Brien, the apothecary in Cashel, is to be appointed paymaster of the police of the whole county. This Mr. O'Brien, apothecary, is the leader of the Radicals of the above borough—is the person who arranges the return of the member for Mr.
 W. Connell.—Mail.
 We may pronounce the oaten crop this season to be a failure as to quality and quantity; and it is feared the barley fields in several places will not come to maturity.
 BALLINASLOE, OCTOBER 6.—The horse fair was held today. This fair is every year becoming worse, and on the present occasion there was the same evidence of decline.
 The animals were abundant, particularly those of an inferior and middling description, both of which were at low prices, and very little in demand. Superior horses were scarce, and brought excellent prices. Three horses sold to-day at 120 guineas each. An English dealer was the purchaser of one; A. Bell, Esq. of Granard, bought the second; and Mr. Cas-ley, of Monasterevan, the third. Several others exchanged owners, at from 100 to 55 guineas.
