

against the removal ghlen's town, which debt of £50,000, for al will be debated by
of being again re nell take him by the
in town from Kerry
re happy to state wa
the eccentric Aurora ead a broad crimson orth-West, and then aching to a brilliant
but the phenomenon
after affording much
Kelly, Mrs. Honey,
heatre.
ination by the Regi
Friday and Saturday meeting at the Silver 10 o'clock, Martin
o had come to Lime
a public house on n the dock, on board en the sail boat and ectual relief could be is body next day.—
ved an official letter relative to the Portu Ubes, under seizure board not entered for e revenue laws all the
. As it appeared the nt of the crew having e berths, the Commis to be levied on the yesterday, and the ing at Rathkeale, sent r trial yesterday.
got a blow of a stone
red his head.
convicted under the 48 hours, the others
Mr. Wm. H. Holland, ounty of Cork, were on the night of Satur consequence of pro
last Quarter Sessions
d by him as Landlord, ts, to the Rev. Mr.
after selling 32

from Pountney to Nottingham.
Captain Boyd has joined the 81st depot at Drogheda.
On last Saturday, as the 18th Regiment was passing thro' Charles, en route to Cork, one of them lost 20 rounds of ammunition, and another his bayonet. They were taken from them at their billets.
Lieutenant and Adjutant Shore, 14th Regiment, his wife and four daughters, returning to England from St. Christopher in the ship Clarendon, were caught in a violent gale off the Isle of Wight on Tuesday morning, and awful to relate the whole family perished within view of their native land!
David Graham, of Arthurstown, county Wexford, Esq. has been appointed a Paymaster under the new Constabulary Act.
The parishioners of Clonfecle have addressed the Rev.
Henry Griffen, Rector, in gratitude for appointing the Rev.
John Quain, Curate of that parish.
The inhabitants of Enniskillen intend presenting the Hon.
Rev. John C. Maude, their Rector, a handsome service plate as a mark of their affection.
Yesterday, James Bennett, Esq. Coroner, held an inquest on a pig driver, named Hayes, at Ballingola, who it appeared perished from the inclemency of the weather.
Two women lost their lives, on Wednesday evening, near Portarlinton, owing to the severity of the weather; one was found dead in a ditch, and the other was drowned in the canal.
On the night of Monday 17 cocks of hay, the property of a man named Fahey, on Lord Dunalley's estate, near Clonmel Gaol at the present moment there are near two hundred persons, confined for various offences, of which twenty-five are for murder, and all these have been committed since the last Assizes, which are scarce three months past.
AWFUL CALAMITY.—On yesterday, between one and two o'clock, as Mrs. John Duhy, of Ballyguy, near Clonmel, was sitting in her parlour, she was struck dead by a under bolt or flash of lightning which came down through the roof. The only injury perceived on her person was her hair being burned. She was only eight months married.
QUARTER SESSIONS THIS DAY.—On the Bench were the Magistrates, Aldermen Mahony, Watson, and Gibson, and F.
Gibson, Esq.—Judith Sullivan was sent to gaol for forty-eight hours for breaking glass in the shop of Mr. Nunaan.— Richard Roberts and Eliza Browne, cyprians, for stealing £12 from John Doolan, a broker, were remanded; Richard Mahon, Thomas Magrath and John Dwyer, for being drunk in the streets, fined 5s. each, or 48 hours imprisonment; Mary Kenny, cyprian, for breaking a pane of glass in the shop of Mr. Haines, sadler, in George's-street; on Mr. Haines' leaving the table, this wicked wretch hit him with a stone, and nearly fractured his skull, in the presence of the Magistrates; she was fully committed for next Quarter Sessions—Mary Cosgriff, for larceny, was remanded; John M'Cormack and James Gleeson, for being drunk, fined 5s. each. Informations were ordered against John Dwyer for assaulting Pat. Gilmore; against Thomas Rifford, for assaulting Judith Clanchy; Thomas Lahy and John Doolan, were 5s. each, for being drunk.
CAUTION TO CORN SELLERS.—Mr. John Hogan, of

JOHN DOYLE re and the Public
above Trade, and the ring Districts.
Having purchased
of a competent judge
of public support, Wishing to avoid
shade, finish, fabric, comprize every artic
material. Two assis
N.B.—Price mark 8, 1

National

THE Annual Gene
Bank was held t
FRANCIS JOHN
The report of the
mencement, and a sta having been read, t mously adopted :— 1st—That the very
by the meeting.
2d—That the repor
each proprietor.
Proposed by THOM
in London, of the Na 3rd—That the tha
hereby given, to the
for his zeal, fidelity, of the Bank.
4th—Resolved—Th
are due, and hereby Esq. for his lucid and general condition and Ireland, and for his interests, and as a Ireland.
5th—That the tha
hereby given, to the
and successful manage Mr. O'Neill being
Lyons, Esq. of Tuore Resolved—That the
Mr. O'Neill for his co
and efficient exertions interests of the Bank.
Limerick, 12th Oc
The report conclude current annual charge
preliminary expences, of the dividend of 5 p
there remained a suppl