

October 29.

TO
From the 2
FOR SUCH TERM
THE
WITH ABOUT FOR BA

Within 4½ miles of
Now in the po Application (if by le
PEACOCKE, Holy C

DE
A PRIVATE Famil
Single Gentleman
same table, or to occup room, on reasonable ter and convenience witho
A letter for X. Y. Z.
subject.

Apply to Z. M. L
George-street, who wil

The No
LATELY Advertise
for taking in G
hundred and ten feet lo story high, with a pater Kilrush, quite conven
This Store is facing the
and has a new Quay bu crops are late about K opening the above Stor
Any person wishing BEHEN, Kilrush, who close with a solvent te

THE
FIRE AND LIFE
Empower
OFFICE, 37, WA
CAPI

Sir Thos. Brancker, W
George
Thomas Booth, Esq.

Thos. Brocklebank,
William Dixon, Esq
William Earle, jun.
Joseph C. Ewart, E
Ormerod Heyworth
Samuel T. Hobson,
Joseph Hornby, Es
Geo. H. Lawrence

to Mary Anne, eldest daughter of Colonel Blake.
Mr. J. Dare, to Ann, eldest daughter of Mr. W. Bentham, of Canon-place, Brighton.
At Preston, Lancashire, James Farish, Esq. of Lancaster-place, London, to Sibella, eldest daughter of the Rev. Bowater James Fenon, incumbent of St. Peter's, in the former place, and formerly of St. Helena.
At Hurworth, Northumberland, the Rev. J. Greenside, of Hur-worth, to Eleanor, daughter of Captain Bellairs.
At Bordeaux, Charles S. Hill, Esq. of Jermyn-street, St. James's, to Susan Louisa, eldest daughter of B. N. Hovy, Esq. Consul for the Netherlands at Bordeaux.

DEATHS.

At Kilkee, on the 23d instant, aged 14 years, of fever, Mary, daughter of the Rev. M. N. Thompson, Rector of Templetoohy.— Scarcely eight months have gone by since this afflicted family had to lament the loss of another daughter, who was carried off in her 18th year by the same fearful disease.
In Blessington-street, Dublin, in her 82d year, Mary Montgomery, daughter of the late William Montgomery, of that city.
Of a few days' illness, at her house in Great Denmark-street,
Dublin, the Countess of Belvidere, deeply lamented.
At Ivy Cottage, Blackrock, Frances Bennett, wife of Mr. William Bennett.
At Clohila, Anna, daughter of the Rev. Richard Pack.
At Paris, on Saturday last, of a typhus fever, Helena, daughter of Stephen Roche, Esq. late of Cork and Killarney.
At the house of her son-in-law, Frederick West, Esq. Walsal, Staffordshire, Annabella, relict of the late Richard Raymond, Esq.
of Ballyloughran, county Kerry.
In Cork, Mary, third daughter of Mr. John Young, of that city.
In Castlecomer, of malignant fever, aged 26, Arthur Bradley, Esq.
At the residence of his father, Churchtown, Dundrum, aged 43 years, John Corbet, Esq. Comptroller of his Majesty's Customs of the port of Baltimore.
At Cloherbrien, near Tralee, at the advanced age of 93 years, Mrs. Barrett, relict of the late Mr. John Barrett.
At his seat, Ballymacool, county Donegal, John Boyd, Esq. many years Treasurer of that county.
Tuesday, in William-street, Mr. James Massy, coach-builder,— a young gentleman much regretted by his family and friends.
On Saturday, in Henry-street, of typhus fever, Mr. Joseph Parker, universally regretted by a large circle of friends and by all that knew him, having manifested through life the strictest integrity and unimpeachable character. He died in the full triumph of faith, and his happy spirit is escaped to the mansions of the blessed to praise for ever the God of his salvation.
At her father's in Peter-street, Dublin, Helena Agnes, eldest daughter of W. F. Rogers, Esq.
Richard, eldest son of Richard H. Levinge, Esq. of Levington Park, county Westmeath,
Mr. Richard Groves, of New-street, Dublin, glue and parchment manufacturer, aged 73 years.
At Montpellier-hill, of scarletina, and after giving birth to a still-born child, Deborah, wife of William Whitaker, Esq. of the Bank of Ireland.
At Springmount, near Dungarvan, Anne, daughter of the late Thomas Keily, Esq.
At Hayestown, county Wexford, Robert Perceval, Esq.
At his house in London, Rear-Admiral Maitland.
At Hendon, aged 60, William Willoughby Prescott, Esq. Threadneedle-street, London.
Anne Jenner, eldest daughter of Sir P. H. Dyke, Bart. of Lulling-stein, Kent.
On the 28th ult. drowned by the swamping of a boat off Guernsey, J. Pelly White, A.M. Wrangler of Trinity College, and Professor of Mathematics at the London University,—his wife Dorothy, and also his mother, Mrs. George White, daughter of the late Wm. Jackson, Esq. of Paddington, and wife of Geo. White, Esq. of Lambeth.
At her uncle's house, Lenton Hall, Nottinghamshire, Annie, wife of Henry E. Perrin, Esq. of Dublin.
At Richmond, Yorkshire, Elizabeth, relict of the late Rev. F.
Blackburne, formerly Vicar of Brignall.

Mont de Piete, or Charitable Pawn Office.

A MEETING held in the City Court-house this day at One o'Clock

to promote the actory to his feel ress to maturity,
ld prove beneficial
ffering dreadfully the humane and gged to appeal in ch must expect to charity, for there nd that nourish
before resuming begged leave to the question of t Mr. Barrington
ns for the noble
ty. I have found xious to support
y duty with more to discharge, by our late Chairman (loud cheers, and s Lordship bowing ust impression:—
all connected with e identity of those nex a list of men usileers, by which however painfully
n, No. 631; Pri
a. Edmonds, 706
omew Hooks, 155
the correctness of it was a clothing
ing Officer and by ving floated ashore, e are to be sub-ub-inspectorship of
of Captain Taylor
dward Roche, of ate for the County
e place on the 10th days. It is called is Excellency, who e Bench were the n, Esq.—John Ro-
Patrick Hannavan, and rioting in the
t; Mary Rochford
O'Shea, for receive lower Quays, was ara was remanded
v, by giving her a of spirituous