

kingdom of God and week, Owen Tierney was ation, for stealing a quan Royal Engineers.
 even years transportation
 last week for robbery.
 nced the price of ale and hops, and coal.
 William Yore £25, toward el at Arran-quay, Dublin ek to the Fever Hospital ockgrohery, Roscommon ow the 23d inst. to esta hat county.
 met to protest against the e Act, as oppressive and s to be revised at a Specia t.
 on Wednesday last, Mr.
 easures, prosecuted sever ertstown and the adjacent ession illegal weights and re collected at the sermo last Sunday, by the Re ristian Poor School of the uent and persuasive.
 or the borough of Clonme ty Tipperary.
 t week, on account of the price of spirits two-penc s expected. It is 6s. 9d.
 nson preached for the Cor Kilbrogan Church, Bandon of 44l. attested the exce vest of the county Cork.
 f O'Brien's-bridge on Mon ly all sold.
 e killed yesterday at Mr. B count of the provision me ve been treated in the Fever
 the doors of this Asylum t of funds, unless the hi by a timely support of its eck the further progress of e city.
 l by Bolton Waller, Esq. l three months for having
 and John Neill, for assault,

St. James's Chapel, Edinburgh, the Rev. Fielding Ould, of church, Liverpool, to Anne Frances, eldest daughter of Hugh Esq. Knockinterne, county Derry.
 Chittoor, the Hon. Percy Taylor Pellew, 5th L.C. to Anne fifth daughter of the late Francis Lascelles, Esq.
DEATHS.
 Castle-Connell, on Saturday last, Michael Bolton, Esq. at the advanced age of 76.
 at her residence, at Ballyegan, near Castleisland, after having birth to her eleventh child, Mary Anne, wife of John Mill-Esq. Lieutenant on half-pay. at Ballycotton, the Lady of Lieut. Dennehy, R.N. Coast Guard after a severe and painful illness.
 at Tulla, Mr. Thomas M'Donnell Woods. aged five years, George, only son of George Petrie, Esq. R.H.A. on Sunday, in Thomond-gate, Mrs. Doyle.
 at his residence, Henry-street, Dublin, universally regretted, Captain William Peacocke, late half-pay 71st Regiment, second son of the late Rev. Robert Peacocke, of Ross House, county Tipperary, Chancellor of Kilfenora, Diocess of Killaloe.
 at Harcourt-street, Dublin, the Lady of Thomas Thompson, Esq.
 at his residence, Oaklawn-cottage, co. Dublin, Wm. Garde, Esq.
 at Crofton-place, Kingstown; Robert Jones, Esq. of Peter-street.
 at his mother's house, Sidney-place, Cork, Richard Wood, Esq.
 at Friar's-walk, Cork, Mr. Edward W. Ryan.
 at Skull, Cork, Alexander English, Esq.
 at Youghal, Miss Swayne, eldest daughter of the late John Esq.
 at Tralee, Mr. Thomas Rice, master-builder.
 at Waterford, of fever, Mr. Thomas Brennan, Apothecary. at Mooncoin, at the residence of her brother, Rev. N. Carroll, O'Loughlen Marum.
 at Newtownbutler, the Rev. Francis Goodwin, for thirty years Parish Priest of Drummully. at Roscrea, the infant daughter of Captain Humphreys, 94th Regt.
 near Killorglin, Kerry, Mary, wife of Mr. Denis M'Kenna, merchant, of Cork.
 at Thurles, Mr. Philip Kirwan.
 at Armagh, Anna, wife of William Marks, Esq.
 at Kilcullen, county Cork, Eliza, widow of the late Jeremiah Esq.
 at Claremont-square, Pentonville, aged 82, John Macdonald, Esq.
 of the Island of Grenada.
 at Chester-street, Grosvenor-place, John Gibson, Esq. aged 81.
 at his house in Upper Islington-terrace, Charles Gurney, Esq. one of the Principals of the Bill-office, Bank of England.
 the infant daughter of Captain Armstrong, 46th Regiment.
 at Clifton, of rapid consumption, Miss Clara Mortimer, niece of Captain Mortimer.
 at Dover, aged 70, St. Andrew St. John, Esq. D.C.L. of Gayton, Norfolk, son of the late Dean of Worcester. at Gloucester, aged 78, Mary, relict of the Rev. J. Pitt, and daughter of the late J. Pitt, Esq. M.P. at Brighton, Godolphin Stonehewer, Esq. of Groby Castle. at Chelsea, aged 86, Mr. James Cooper, many years in the Bank of England.
 at Southampton, Vice-Admiral Matthew Henry Scott, aged 71.
 at Berkeley-lodge, Cheltenham, Sarah, relict of the late J. Perry, Esq. at Melrose, Scotland, Captain Walter Tait, R.M. aged 60. He was in the hard-fought engagement between the Mars, 64, and the French Hercule, 74, when the latter was captured, both Captains were killed. In an attack upon the French batteries in Cherburgh roads, he lost a leg, and was invalided. He resided some years at a native village of Melrose, and is understood to be the original author of the Clutterbuck of Sir Walter Scott.
 on his passage home from Bombay, Lieut. Spencer Richardson, 10th Infantry, son of the late Colonel Richardson, of the Guards.
 at Court, and Clerk of the Crown in India. at Barbadoes, of fever, Mr. Joseph Jagoe, of H.M. brig Harpy, one of the surviving officers of H.M. late ship the Challenger.
 at Calcutta, W. A. Burke, Esq. M.D. Inspector-General of Hospitals in His Majesty's Forces in the East Indies, aged 63.

Darby O'
 Frederick
 Thomas F.
 Henry Cro
 Thomas W
 Joseph Gal
 Henry Ma
 Henry Gul
 T. P. Van
 J. E. Mau
 Wm. Wilso
 Wm. Mona
 Colonel Di
 Robert Cr
 Brabazon
 Thos. We
 J. Apjohn
 Thomas K
 Michael A
 Henry Wh
 Hon. Wa
 John Crok
 Richard C
 Thadeus F
 Eyre Evan
 George M
 Thomas P
 Henry O'
 Robert Ge
 Garrett W
 James Iev
 P. Fitz-G
 Hugh Bra
 Michael I
 Samuel M
 William I
 Richard V
 Vere Hun
 John Wic
 Edward C
 Richard I
 Doctor H
 Thomas I
 William C
 John Ho
 Chris. K
 Stephen I
 S. Augus
 Joseph J
 John Fitz
 J. A. Sip
 Thomas
 George P
 Joseph E
 M. Moor