my conduct, both in public and in o me the justice to read that let been a magistrate for the las inted a character I need not appl
ntlemen of this county, I coul to every going Judge of Assize
ry Crown Lawyer on the circuit imself; and am I to be told a ere retraction of those, infamou peusate me for the injury done t acter. I hope I have not spoke ng during this investigation tha
of this court, for which I feel th
I call upon this Court to hav
me put forward before the world

—I have been sent this letter b optional with me to make what I shall replace it in the hands o
for them to act as they please.

raw the observations in that letter
ond.

Mr. M'Donough for a copy o
t. If this letter is to be cushione
h House of Commons.
eive it to be the property of th
erated Mr. Cashel before.
my head and give me a plaster."
we are to understand that those thing else of importance to add.

Mr. Cashel?
en traced to our halls—to our rooms—to our very bed-room
at all surprised if there was a looking significantly at Mr. Lalor, for going to bed to our wives with sure you, Mr. Browne, we could charge too.
if you please.—(Conclusion.)

part of our last impression:—)
t, contents about 280 gallons, cannor bay, county Clare, one orr," and is partly covered with posed to belong to the William g.
has been brought into Crean
coast of the county Clare, by a ne head "H. B. 36-115. The n is ten feet six inches, length
t is now in charge of Mr. H.
oast Guard.
the Steam Boat Quay last night

d this morning at Coonagh em-l days in the water, and one of

rk National Bank are summoned month, to receive the annual re-rs, and pay another instalment

been pleased to appoint William Ballymore, son of G.R. Daniel, nty Westmeath.
direction of the Irish Railway
s morning on a tour of inspecoard. Mr. Vignolles proceeds, borough, from whence he pro-
. W. of Ireland. His inspection

r on Saturday, in the case of ergeant Jackson informed the red fresh authorities relating be likely to guide their they were about to make.—
would be obliged to the learned new authorities which he might me time the court was not just sion on the case. Mr. O'Con-
thing on the subject.
in Attorneys yesterday in the nuel H. Merrick, Lorenso J.

ry's, Bryanstone square, Charles Twistleton Graves, Esq.
Fusileers, nephew of Lord Save and Sele, to Louisa,
f John Lodge, Esq. of Great Cumberland-street.
orge's, Hanover-square, John Dew, Esq. of Mereworth, ane, daughter of Captain T. Finlay, of Hunter-street.
eorge's, Bloomsbury, Thomas M. Parker, Esq. to Ann, ghter of Jonas Gregory, Esq. of Upper Montagu-street, Russell square.
At St. Margaret's, Lothbbury, George John Graham, Esq. to
daughter of the late Charles Howgrave, Esq.
At Greenwich, Francis Farrar, Esq. of Tavistock-place, Tavistocksquare, to Jean Frances, youngest daughter of the late J. Carttar, Esq. of Bonestile, Greenwich.
At Fr[illegible]fort, Captain Rowland Mainwaring, R.N. to Mdlle. Laura de Chevillard, daughter of Colonel de Chevillard, late in the service of the Emperor Napoleon.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday, the 7th inst. at Mount-Catherine, in the county
Clare, at the advanced age of 72 years, John Alexander Douglas, Esq.
for many years a resident of this city;—through life he conducted himself with the strictest honour and integrity,—in friendship sincere, in charity unbounded,—the widow and orphan will long bewail the loss of this truly estimable man. He died as he lived, hoping for mercy through the Lord Jesus Christ.
The Rev. John Darley, late Fellow of Trinity College, and Rector of Aboe, county Tyrone. Mr. Darley was the third son of Alderman Darley, of Dublin.
After a lingering illness, Elizabeth Prentice, widow of the late Thomas Prentice, merchant, of North Anne-street, Dublin.
In Leeson-street, Dublin, Margaret, wife of Anthony L'Estrange, Esq.
In Ceder-street, Elizabeth Waller, daughter of Francis Frewen, Esq.
At Glen of Garden-Hill, in this county, and grand daughter of William Waller, formerly of Castle-Waller, in this county.
At Newcastle, in this county, after child-birth, Mrs. O'Carroll, wife of Mr. William O'Carroll, shopkeeper.
At Belleville, Cork, the residence of her father Richard Nason, Esq.
Aghie, relict of the late John Sherlock, of Sandbrook, co. Cork, Esq.
At Blarney, wife of John Boyd, Esq. of Clementstown, Cootehill.
At Dublin-field, county Roscommon, Hugh O'Ferrall, Esq. M.D.
In Belmont, county Roscommon, Mrs. Corr, mother of Henry Corr, Esq.
At his mother's residence, Lower Parade, Leamington, Charles Bell, Esq. late Assistant Surgeon of the 34th Regiment, fourth surviving son of the late Thomas Bell, Esq. M.D. of Dublin.
At Westport, the daughter of Captain Robert Ward.
At Kilkea-Glebe, at an advanced age, Henrietta, wife of the Rev. Joseph Miller.
At Downpatrick, Mrs. Wallace, widow of the late James Wallace, Esq. of Downpatrick.
On Tuesday, in William-street, after a short illness, Mr. Spencer Jordie, Inspector of Butter for some years in this market.
At Newcastle, in this county, after a short but painful illness,
John Gaussen, Esq. Postmaster, a gentleman much esteemed.
At Brighton, Lieut.-Colonel Stapleton, only surviving son of the late General Stapleton, and nephew to the late Lord Le Despencer.—
He served with the 3d Guards under Wellington in the Peninsula.
At Kivernell's, near Lymington, Hants, Elizabeth, wife of Lieut.-
General Farmer, aged 88.
At Walmer, Kent, Mrs. Gordon, relict of Lieut.-Colonel Robert Gordon, many years Adjutant-General on the Bombay Establishment.
John Hanbury Beaufoy, Esq. of Upton Gray, Hampshire, aged 74.
At his rooms, King's College, Cambridge, the Rev. Peter Hinde,
M.A. next Senior Fellow of that society to the Rev. Mr. Simeon, whose death was lately recorded.
At Birdsmoor, Derbyshire, Rev. G. Lacy, aged 44, Catholic Priest.
At Hatton Hall, Salop, Mary, relict of R. Slaney, Esq.
Suddenly, at the breakfast-table, Cambray-place, Cheltenham,
J. Ratcliffe, Esq. father of Major Ratcliffe, K.H, Inniskilling Dragoons.
In her 93d year, Jane, wife of William Griffin, Esq. of Coventry.
At his seat, Plascoch, Anglesey, Sir William Bulkeley Hughes,
in the 70th year of his age.
At Hope-street, Liverpool, William Gore, Esq.
W. A. Patterson, Esq. Inspector of Stamps and Taxes for the West of Scotland.
At Balaclava, Wales, Rev. Simon Lloyd, aged 80 years.
At Dumbarton, Captain Peter M'Kinlay, of the New Dumbarton steamer.
At South Shields, aged 71 years, Mr. John Winter, the last survivor of those who sailed with Goveruor Phillips to Botany Bay in 1787.
At Barbadoes, M. Le Fevre, Collector of Customs in that island.
At Philadelphia, Gilbert Robertson, Esq. his Britannic Majesty's
Consul in that city.
At Brussels, Mrs. Turnly, wife of Alexander Turnly, formerly of Belfast, Esq.
In New York, James, eldest son of the late Patrick Vaughan, Esq.
formerly of Dublin.
At St. Sebastian, on the 19th ult. Edward Bernard O'Hea, Esq.
First Lieutenant in her Majesty the Queen of Spain's 4th Regiment of Fusilees, British Legion.
October 2d, at Judda in Gemen, near Mecca, Charles, third son of Charles O'Kenden, Esq. of Enniskillen.

WEST OF ENGLAND
FIRE AND LIFE
ASSURANCE COMPNY.
IMPOWERED BY ACT OF PARLIAMENT.

CAPITAL—SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS
SURPLUS CAPITAL—SIXTY THOUSAND POUNDS
CHIEF OFFICE—EXETER.
Office for the Metropolis, 20, New Bridge-street, Blackfriars.

PRESIDENT,

Government STOCK and DEBE

18

19 ORREL C

DAVID SUTHERLAND H
At his Stores, M
A quantity of BEST ORREL CO mixture.
Also, a few tons of PRIME D
equal in quality to Ling.

20 THE MOST SURPRISIN
Doctor Spo
The most successful Practitioner, of any other in the known

DOCTOR S. has this week to f
Limerick Chronicle, with CANCER of the BREASTS, without c
of more than three years' duration
patient's statement:—

"I, Anora M'Namara, spinst
Limerick, eight miles from the City declare before my just God and the severely suffered of a Malignant Ca
more than three years, which has b
every Doctor, and every kind of treat
All hopes of getting any cure or gone, till I heard of the many extraor
by Dr. S. of every malady, on perso out of Hospitals incurable, as well
private practitioners—all, all, cured
Well, my friends and I were determi only hope left to us for cure in this this date I was placed under this val
and now, thanks be to God, and Dr.
without cutting. Our prayers are the good Lord may ever protect an Dec

21 IMPORTA
TO DEALERS IN WINES, S
WHOLESA
FOREIGN AND HOME S
AND
BOTTLED LIQUOR
NO. 75, SOUTH MA
(Opposite Cook-S

THOMAS HEGARTY, Proprie
plied with every Article in quality, and trusts, from his per Business, combined with care and a merit a share of Public patronage
chiefly on the quality of the Artic
Lowest possible Prices,
His Supply consists of as

BOTTLED WINES—Champaign a Sherry, Rich Brown, ditto, Pale,
Port, Very Old, do. Marsalla, Br
Malaga, Cape Hock, Calcavella, Dr
delicious Wine; Cape Madeira, Ca Madeira.

FOREIGN AND HOME SPIRITS—
Holland Geneva, Jamaica Rum, Ch
Whiskey, Currant, do. Scotch, do.
price and Strength.

CORDIALS—Noyau, Usquebaugh
Peppermint, Cinnamon, Whiskey Shrub.

ALES, &c.—Castlebellingham, A Clonmel Ale, Edinburgh do. Ambe highly up, and engaged of the best

☞ Great encouragement given
 Any Article not rendering sa back, money returned, and expense
T. H. has lately landed ex Visi
Hope, 41 Pipes of Cape and Cap Blessing, from Cadiz, a lot of very Quarter Casks, at various prices;
and following days, from on board t
Oporto, Twenty Quarter Casks of P is of the first class, and cannot richness or flavour, and is such as