

as well as the attends to dis-g. er to the Men-
hat Institution :
er David Roche,
ndeleur, £3 3s.
also, from Mrs.
chemises, petiinmates, which t season. The owed by other Petty Sessions, ard labour, and hard labour for
y. By Askeaton
2s. 6d. or two y 7s. 6d. or one haps there is anthropist as to various grades,
merging all disommon object in which will make oly reminded of struction, upon in this City on
from the pulpit
Sunday evening, Pery-Square, of t be which would olding a School,
there you might ated side by side,
ers, the streams
ot fail to make ed, and happy—
School the atten-e.—The public is ley, shortly after tion that has yet Walpole, having s hitherto unpublatest correspon-ditional letters to
on the letters will d, and illustrated nd the names will only given. It ts from original st impression:)— donation of £30
o be distributed Fund of this City for the last few tute at the price
but the supply
Co. have most from their exten-of Limerick may s been appointed f Carlow, in sucoved to Galway.
erman Abbott, of o the Vicarage of row, at the Cath-al, and fires will ext week, in order
previous to Sunday irwan will give his one of the most n's Hospital, the e for Dungarvan,
ue patriotic prinreveal the 'great

Regiment, to Catherine, eldest daughter of Captain Charles Carson Alexander, commanding Royal Engineers on that station.
At Hamilton, Canada, George Macartney, Esq. of Guelph, formerly of Newpark, county Carlow, to Miss Shea, of Hamilton.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday morning, at his seat, Ballycullen, in this county, Mary, the beloved wife of Carrol Naish, Esq. The premature decease of this Lady, cut off in the prime of life by a dire and relentless disease, to whom she had been justly endeared by her peculiar gentleness of manner and amiable disposition. But regretted as she is by them, far deeper and more acute must be the sorrow of a fondly-attached and disconsolate husband, to whom and to her young children the event has been a sad bereavement. Her remains are to be interred in the family burial ground in the Abbey of Askeaton.
On Sunday, the 11th Dec. instant, Wilhelmina, wife of William Chadwick, of Ballinard, county Tipperary, Esq. The endearing qualities of this most excellent woman were many, and truly might we say she possessed that precious gift "charity" so beautifully explained by Saint Paul in the 13th chapter of his first Epistle to the Corinthians.
In Carr-street, Mr. John Connell, cooper, and spirit-retailer.
At Tulla, county Clare, Mrs. Woods, widow of the late Mr. Thomas Woods, who died of fever a few weeks since.
In John's-square, Alfred, infant son of the Rev. William Maunsell, Vicar.
In his 73d year, George Nugent, Esq. Upper Dorset-street, Dublin.
In his 23d year, of malignant scarletina, Thomas, eldest son of Mr. Samuel Barrett, of Graton street, Dublin.
Susannah B. second daughter of Mr. W. S. Edwards, Patrick-street, Cork.
In Queen-square, Fermoy, after a short illness, Miss C. Cotter, in Ennis, aged 106 years, Mrs. O'Loughlen.
Eliza Mary, third daughter of Mr. Walter Farrell, of Blackfriars, Waterford.
At Doolen, county Clare, Mrs. Patrick Thynne, widow, aged 86.
At Easky, near Boyle, Mr. John Irwin, watchmaker.
Mr. Mathew Clayton, of High-street, a very old and respectable inhabitant of Galway.
Of apoplexy, Richard Archer, Esq. eldest and only surviving son of the late Rev. Dr. Archer.
At Altafort, near Dromara, after a short illness, William Cowan Heron, Esq. J.P.
At Athy, of malignant fever, Thomas Beard, Esq. Distributor of Stamps for the county Kildare.
At Torquay, of consumption, Letitia, third daughter of the late Nathaniel Cavenagh, Esq. of Wexford.
At Horetown, county Wexford, Henry Deaves, Esq.
In Sligo, Jane, daughter of the late Mr. William Gibson.
At Larne, of fever, Thomas Madden, Esq. surgeon, &c.
At Larne, Mr. Matthew Lyle, of Bowndod, aged 70, for many years an Elder in the First Presbyterian Congregation of Larne.
At Beech Valley, aged 89, Jane, relict of the late Rev. Alexander Staples, Rector of Mullamore, county Tyrone.
At his residence in Tipperary, on Tuesday last, Robert Heuston, Esq. many years one of the most influential merchants of that town.
Suddenly, Richard James, third son of the Rev. Richard St. George, of the Vicarage, Crossmolina. aged 14 years.
On the Lower Glanmire Road, Cork, Maria, wife of Francis Spearing, Esq.
In Dungarvan, Aphra, second daughter of the late Edward Kelly, Esq. solicitor.
In Ballybricken, Mr. Walter Kelly, bookseller and stationer, of Waterford.
At New Ross, Nesbit Shephard, youngest son of John French, Esq. Johanna, wife of John Kirwan, Esq. Whitestown,
At Park-corner, Hants, aged 51, Sir J. Lloyd Dukinfield, Bart.
Aged 29, Annie Charlotte, wife of R. Foster, Esq. of Lansdowne-place, Cheltenham.
In Bayswater-Terrace, Mrs. Fallon, aged 60,
At Hampstead, Annbella, relict of Major-General Sir Robert Rollo Gillespie, of the late 25th Light Dragoons.
At sea, on his passage from Madras to the Cape of Good Hope, whether he was removing for the benefit of change of climate, Surgeon Robert Power, East India Company's service, a native of Waterford.
At Lambeth, aged 90, Mr. George Hayes, formerly of Northampton.
In London, Captain Connor, 40th Regiment.
At Hampton Court Palace, Mrs. Kerby, widow of the Hon. Thomas Norbury Kerby, of Antigua.
At Ashford, Kent, Mrs. Jenkins, widow of the late Lieut. Jenkins, of the Queen's Royals, and daughter of the late Capt. Jewers, R.N.
At Handsworth, in his 66th year, Capt. Simms, R.M.
At Walmer, Kent, on 1st inst. Mrs. Gordon, relict of the late Lieutenant-Col. Robert Gordon, of Bombay establishment.
At Clifton, Captain J. Robinson, late of the 79th Regiment.
Clarissa, wife of Edward Toker, Esq. of the Oaks, Ospringe, daughter of the late P. C. Crespigny, Esq. M.P. for Aldeburgh.
In Cavendish-place, Bath, Frederica, relict of R. Glyn, Esq. second son of Sir R. C. Glyn, of Garts, Dorsetshire.
At Bristol, Louisa Maria, fourth daughter of the late Rev. George Sackville Cotter, of Youghal.
At Wells, Miss Cottell, of Bath.
At Stone, Bucks, George Washington, aged 97 years.
At Port Hope, Canada, Ann, widow of the late Mr. Geo. Manning, formerly of the Meeting of the Waters, Wicklow.
At Toronto, Mr. Patrick Hartney, late Barrack-Master.
At Boston, lately, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Micheal M'Cormick, a native of the parish of Ballymacormick, Ireland.
At Bombay, Ensign Dickinson, of the Company's service, son of Lieut.-Col. Dickinson, Engineers, Bombay.
In Gibraltar, Mr. Michael Clarke, Serjeant and master tailor.
At Hyeres, near Toulon, France, Henrietta, wife of John Cronyn, Esq. of Newtown, county Kilkenny.
At Kurnaul, in the East Indies, Eliza, wife of Captain H. Carew, Paymaster of the 13th Light Infantry.
At Santa Cruz, of fever, Randal W. J. Birch, youngest son of the late Rev. George Birch, of Comber, county Down.

In compliance with the above requisition, I hereby require a MEETING of the CLERGY of the DIOCESE of Limerick in the Chapter House of the Cathedral, on Friday next, the 16th instant, at 12 o'clock.

WILLIAM W. MAUNSELL, ARCHDEACON.

Just Published in Twelves, 5s. cloth boards.

THE APOSTOLIC CHURCH; or, a Discussion respecting the Worship, Legal Establishment, Hierarchy and Institution of the Church under the Christian Dispensation, in a series of Dialogues and correspondence between Divinity Students. By D. FALLOON, Author of an Historical View of the Church of England.

"Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein." Jer. vi. 10.

Dublin—D. R. Bleakley, 35, Lower Sackville-street
Edinburgh—Frazer & Co.; London—R. Goddbridge
Limerick—Z. Ledger. 17
December 14.

To be Sold by Auction, 17

ON THURSDAY, the 29th day of December instant, Mr. SMALLMAN'S Hotel, Roscrea, if not previously disposed of by Private Sale, TWENTY POUNDS a Year for Ever, off the Lands of Danganreagh.

The above Lands are held on Lease of Lives renewable for Ever—are situated within two miles of Roscrea, in the King's County, and contain 56 acres (late Irish measure) 5s. 6d. per acre.

For particulars as to Title, &c. application (post-paid) to Mr. WM. DAVIS, Roscrea; or, ALBERT MAXWELL, Esq. Glenalbert, Roscrea, or 20, York-street, Dublin.
Roscrea, Dec. 14.

£2000, £1500, £1000.

TO BE LENT AT INTEREST. 16

AS these Sums form part of Trust Funds, the Principals will not, in all likelihood, be called in for many years if the Interest is punctually paid. Application to be made to Mr. HENRY O'SHEA, Solicitor, 10, Lower Malton-street.
Limerick, Dec. 14.

Pery-Square Tontine. 17

THOSE Persons who are in Arrear of the late Deposits which had been called for, are requested immediately to discharge such Arrears at the Office of Alderman D. F. MAHONY & SON, as the Shares are liable to be forfeited.
Limerick, December 14, 1836.

To Lawyers and Solicitors, 17

A YOUNG MAN who writes a superior Mercantile Hand, wishes to obtain employment in the Office of a Lawyer or Solicitor. A specimen of his Hand Writing will be furnished to any Gentleman making enquiry at the Office, if by letter, post-paid, for the Advertiser's address.
December 14

Army Prize Money, 17

Royal Hospital, Chelsea
1st December, 1836

THE Lords and others, Commissioners of this Hospital, hereby give notice that from and after the above date all letters and applications for or relating to ARMY PRIZE MONEY must be addressed to "The Secretary of the Royal Hospital, Chelsea."

Notice to Creditors. 17

In the matter of } THE Several creditors of John Dallas, } Insolvent in this matter,
an Insolvent. } requested to meet at our office,
Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin,
SATURDAY, the 17th day of December 1836, at the hour of ONE o'Clock afternoon, for the purpose of receiving an important communication, and taking into consideration the expediency of adopting certain measures in reference thereto.
DICKSON and WHITE,
Agents to the Assignee

NEW FRUIT. 17

JOHN CORBETT, TEA and COFFEE Dealer, Grocer and WINE MERCHANT, 38, PATRICK-STREET, has received a large supply of NEW FRUIT, viz: Black Muscatel Raisins, in Boxes, half do. and quarter do. Zante Currants, and French Plumbs, with a fresh stock of FINE GREEN and BLACK TEAS,