

CHRONICLE.

Christmas, an occasion
with the Christian
of Charity which his season, to relieve the widow, and forlorn
out of that abundant
passed the few, for the holly writ, that we are or indifference for the precious with ourselves in as, operate to our pre-must render full account
t us then be prepared
e dear to the Lord.—
d example of genuine
exertions of our present
y, it can be said, has his personal influence
e the urgent necessities citizens, than any one years past. There is no plause to exalted merit,
gratitude the heartfelt n Vereker, as Mayor of led in the affections of rescued from the chill
their most terrific and
almost roofless garret, cellar, has received a
which the Mayor himself munificence, and which has since enabled him to
nds. Depots are now
to supply turf to poor
out, and to the almost ting cold of this really ts have been distributed,
ating and warm petti-
already effected by our ill find a reward for this eed we impress on our efore them, they could
to the Mayor, than to
rk he has undertaken.
d do thou likewise.”
l in as usual by a merry
to-morrow the Mayor,

An awful instance of sudden and unforeseen death occurred on Thursday morning in Roches-street, where a man of the name of Patrick Collins was paying for a seat in the Croom passage car to Patrick's well, when he dropped at once outside the counter of the office and was a corpse in an instant. The Mayor held an inquest on the body shortly after. Verdict—died by the visitation of God.

Sergeant Reidy, of the City Police, yesterday arrested a delinquent of the name of Caulfield, at Garryowen, who had absconded with 5s. in copper, stolen from Mrs. Daly, shop-keeper in Mungret-street.

Mr. Fallon, the Assistant Barrister, opens the Quarter Sessions for this County at Rathkeale, on Tuesday next.

On Monday last, as Sub-Constable Donovan was proceeding from the Police station at Golden to the residence of Mrs. White, Spring Mount, he was attacked by three ruffians, who beat him and deprived him of his arms, with which they made off.

Mr. Woulfe is likely to be re-elected for Cashel without a contest.

The Mayor of Cashel has called a public meeting for Monday next, to recommend the nomination of a Notary for that City.

The Grocers Company of London have subscribed £100 to the Diocesan School of Derry. The Lord Bishop, and Sir R. Ferguson, M. P. attended the annual examinations this week, when the proficiency of the pupils was most satisfactory.

The Citizens of Londonderry, in the old spirit of Christmas festivity, have given public notice that they will not open their shops on Stephen's Day, in order that their clerks, apprentices and servants, may have an additional holiday.

The Mayor of Waterford convicted several publicans of that City on Monday in 40s. each and costs, for keeping their shops open at the hours prohibited by law.

The Harmony, of Irvine, Hunter, master, laden with balk, deals, and spars, for Wright and Sons, burthen 400 tons, which left Quebec on the 6th of November, bound for Troon, put into Ventry harbour in a leaky condition, and damaged in spars and sails.

The hull and cargo of the Liverpool, wrecked at the bar of Inch, Kerry, are to be sold on Wednesday.

The Venus arrived at Cork this week from Quebec, fell in with the brig Egfred, of Whitehaven, on her passage from Quebec, waterlogged,—saved 12 of the crew. The master was drowned in the cabin.

The Eccle
of Armagh Dublin, for dioceses in
demise of
Aughrim;
Clonbane;
St. John's,
diocese, Dr

LIMERIC
at the rece
that should
mantle piec
—happy m
stand forth
season, wh
such audac

“That w
chartered r
posed by a
Raphoe, fo
National B
able right.”

SCRIPTU
tion by the School in the Hibern

After ful
ther was i
with sharp
covered w
Almost an phere, was

The str
Journal, is

The W
acknowled
William-s

The n
exceeding
liberality o
provided w
day—man
happily in
approachi
factors of
of merc