

... Meeting, to be held at the Donoughmore, Glengall, Hawarden,
 Rev. Nicholas Herbert, Stephen Moore,
 Roe, E. Kellest, and H. Pedder, Esqs.
 arbery, and a number of highly-respectaty, left Cork yesterday, to attend the Protestants of Ireland at Dublin on of Clonegal have addressed the Rev. John te Curate, on promotion to the Rectory
 s. Sadlier and Whitty, of Cashel, have to 8 o'clock every Tuesday evening, for ificence of the Marquis of Hertford, an to be bailed on his Lordship's estate, in n.
 a, M.P. for Clare, left this to-day for Esq. has resigned from ill-health the County Tipperary Infirmary. Doctor ate.
 rs of St. Michael's Parish, with humane given £5 to the widow of O'Neill, the
 his life by the late gunpowder explosion, in the Saving's Bank for the benefit of med Thomas Cogan, respectably attired, Monday evening, at the house of Michael
 e-street, Cork, for uttering a forged Post-bill, amount £30 18s. 6d. Cogan atabulary police, stationed in the Queen's een transmitted to Maryborough.
 uthy is appointed High Constable of the National Assurance Company on the eclared to be £5,859.
 istry of fire-arms is going forward in
 of Ulster.
 distillers of Dublin protest against any malt trade, which does not extend to all Kingdom.
 ollor has appointed Richard Chearnley, Waterford, Esq. a Magistrate for that quarter Sessions, this week, Mr. A. instant sentenced John Leamy to 7 years transpor-
 s assault upon Wm. Hannan and his wife.
 eeting of the members of the Limerick
 eld on Saturday last, Richard Franklin, al College of Surgeons in Ireland, and ege of Surgeons of London, was elected os Vereker, Esq. M.D. and Michael Vice-Presidents, for the ensuing year.
 dinner this week Mr. West exposed, in e recent conduct of Mr. O'Connell to and Smith O'Brien, two of the most ependent members from Ireland,
 whose death is recorded in our obituary.
 e Marquess of Bath. He was in his 41st p married in 1820, Harriette Matilda, Robbins, Esq. by whom he has left no
 rother, Lord Henry Frederick Thynne, daughter of Lord Ashburton, and who l consequently succeed to the title and ed Viscount.
 THIS DAY—On the Bench, Aldermen
 n, and M. Gavin, Esq.—John Mason, fined 2s. 6d. or 24 hours' imprisonment.
 offence, same rule. Information mas Bourke, for assaulting Dan Ken-thy and Richard Colopy, were fin-5s. or
 ment, for being drunk and disorderly
 etch, named Ellen Robinson, was sen-e of 5s. or 48 hours' imprisonment, for annoying the Police guard-house—
 was sent to the House of Industry for a coal; Timothy Halloran was sentenced or to be imprisoned 14 days, for assault-ry, and William Ryan was fined 5s. or nment for assisting him. Information st Richard Frost, for stealing a 10 from nes Regan was sentenced to pay 10s. for the demesne of Tervoe; James £1 for having his shop open after levee ight; Edward Fennell was sentenced to treadmill, for absenting himself from enry Potter, Esq. of Ballyvaughan.

... daughter of A. Conwell, Esq. of Ireland, and niece of the late Dr.
 Conwell, Sup. Surg. of the Mysore Div.
 At Ootacamund, Lieut. B. Moffat, H.M. 54th, to Frances Maria, youngest daughter of Lieut.-Col. Garrard, Chief Eng. on the Estab.
 DEATHS.
 At Buttevant-barracks, on Sunday, the 22d instant, much lamented by his brother Officers, Major Lionel H. Hughes, 19th Regt. aged 46.
 On Saturday, in Ennis, of a short illness, Mrs. Knox, wife of John B. Knox, Esq.
 In Upper Glentworth-street, Richard, son of the late Rev. Henry Levers Ingram, of this city,
 In Anne-street, Mr. John Barron, watchmaker.
 At Boherbuoy, in the prime of life, Mary, daughter of Mr. John Barry, spirit-retailer.
 In Capel-street, Dublin, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Andrew Pollock, Esq.
 At Lower Sackville-street, Dublin, Anna, relict of Mr. Thomas
 Wright, late of Westmorland-street, hat-manufacturer.
 In Mallow, Margaret, wife of William Godfrey Twiss, Esq.
 At his father's house, Gardiner-street, Dublin, after a short illness, Colley O'Reilly, Esq. solicitor.
 At an advanced age, Mr. Robert Pike, of Great Ship-street, Dublin.
 At his house, Great Cumberland-street, Colonel J. D. Sherwood, of the Bengal Artillery.
 Mrs. Anne Ryder, of George's-quay, Dublin.
 Major John Bridge, late of Portobello Barracks, aged 60.
 In Fleet-street, Mrs. Mayne, widow of the late Robert Mayne, Esq.
 of Down.
 At Rathgar road, Anna, wife of Mr. Alexander Comyns, College-Green.
 Of inflammation on the lungs, Rebecca, widow of the late John Donnelly, Esq. of Blackwater Town, county Armagh, and daughter of Sir William Young, Bart.
 At Parsonstown, Edward Smythe, Esq. solicitor, formerly of Arran-quay, Dublin.
 Mr. William Page, of Leinster-street, Dublin, builder.
 In Douglas-street, Cork, Mr. Garrett Fitzgibbon, aged 75.
 In Great George's-street, Cork, Isabella English, one of the Society of Friends.
 At Bear Forrest, Mallow, Noble Seward, Esq.
 At Rathcannon, near Kilmallock, Mr. Laurence Roche, aged 100.
 In Carlow, Henry Campion, Esq.
 Ann, wife of Harlow Knott, Esq. of Boyle.
 Suddenly, Captain John Robertson, of the Abbey, Boyle, a Magistrate of Roscommon, and who had served in the Sligo Militia as Adjutant, and also in the Line.
 At Youghal, Mr. Richard Cox, many years Weighmaster of that town.
 Suddenly, at his house, Fermoy, Mr. Edward Cotter.
 At Cooperville, Anne, eldest daughter of the late Rev. William Sullivan, Rector of Kilnagross.
 Friday, Thomas Kavanagh, Esq. M.P. for the county Carlow.
 In Enniscorthy, Dr. Wilson.
 At Frenchville, Galway, Mary Josephine, eldest daughter of the late Thomas French, Esq. of Polenahallah.
 In Belfast, James Kelly, Esq. Land Surveyor and Engineer.
 Dr. Tennent, of Belfast.
 Friday, in the Crescent, after an ailment of some weeks' continuance, to the unutterable affliction of his fond parents, John, second son of Thomas Jervis, Esq. a most interesting and beautiful boy, whose tender years gave abundant promise of future excellence.
 On Wednesday, after a few days' illness, John Grene, Esq. of Cappamurrah, county Tipperary.
 Samuel Poyntz Smith, Esq. of Lower Newton, Waterford;—and Miss Maria Smith, his eldest daughter.
 John, son of Jeremiah Hardum, of Waterford, Esq.
 Mr. Thomas Power, Veterinary Surgeon, Waterford.
 In Dublin, the Rev. Elliott Burrowes, A.M. Curate of Upper Cumber, in the Diocese of Derry.
 Lieutenant William Woodley, of the City of Cork Militia.
 Elizabeth, widow of Lieut. Ross, h.p. 42d Regiment.
 In Privy-gardens, the Dowager Marchioness of Exeter.
 At his house in Lincoln's-Inn Fields, Sir John Soane, Professor of Architecture in the Royal Academy, aged 84.
 In Charles-street, Grosvenor-square, Frank Upton, Captain, R.N.
 and a Commissioner of his Majesty's Dock-yard, at Trincomalee, Ceylon
 In Duke-street, Westminster, Martha, relict of Captain J. F.
 Moriarty, R.M. aged 77.
 In Leicester-square, Mrs. Jane Kell.
 In Soho-square, John Green, Esq. late of Preston, Lancashire.
 Mr. Thomas Mansell, of Castle-street, Bloomsbury, aged 80.
 Anne, wife of Mr. G. Creed, of Great Russell-street, Covent-garden.
 Evan Pugh, Esq. aged 86, father of the Skinner's Company.
 Elizabeth, wife of Lieut. John Reade, of Bridge-road, Lambeth.
 At New House, Watford, Peter Clutterbuck, Esq.
 At Hintleshone Hall, Suffolk, Miss Lloyd, in her 77th year.
 At Fingask Castle, Sir Patrick Murray Thriepand, Bart.
 At Notting hill, Clara, wife of Wm. J. Keene, Esq.
 At the Melville Hospital, Chatham, Lieut. Wm. Coyde, R.N. Chief
 Officer of the Petta station in Kent.
 At Portsmouth, Second Captain R. N. King, R.A.
 At Staplefield-common, Sussex, Elizabeth, wife of Sir Henry Gwillim.
 Captain Charles Edgar, of Stepney-green
 In Brixton, William Williams, Esq. late Governor of the Hudson Bay Company.
 Charles Joseph Chichester, Esq. of Calverleigh Court, Devon, and Ballygriffin, county Cork, aged 66.
 At Torquay, Devon, Mr. Thomas Griffin, of Leadenhall-street.
 At Fareham, Hants, Thomas Edward Forbes, Esq. late of the Navy Pay Office.
 William Thomas, aged eight;—Ellen Anne, aged two years and a half;—Louisa, aged seven;—and Fanny Lucy, aged three years and a half;—children of W. Chapman, Esq. of Richmond, all of scarlet fever.
 Frederick Augustus Spry, second son of Major Lloyd Philipps, of Dale Castle, Pembrokeshire.
 At Shank's House, Dorset, Viscount Weymouth.
 At Arran Lodge, Bognor, the Earl of Arran, in his 76th year.
 At Blasket-place, Edinburgh, the Lady of Major Macgregor.
 At Balgregie, Fifeshire, in her 80th year, Jean, relict of Major-General Roger Aytoun, of Inchdairney.
 In Glasgow, Mr. Duncan Thomson, late Messman to the 79th Regt.
 In the East Indies, Lieut.-General C. Macaulay.
 At Ootacamund, 2d Sept. Lieut.-Col. William Garrard, Chief Eng.
 On her voyage to England the Lady of Lieut. Colin Mackenzie, 48th N.I.

HILARY, 1837—8.
 DIVISION of RATHKEALE—At Ne-
 nesday, December 27th, 1837.—At Rath-
 January 1st, 1838.
 DIVISION of LIMERICK—At Bruff,
 5th, 1838,—At Limerick, (including the C-Wednesday, January 10th, 1838.
 QUARTER SESSIONS, EASTE-
 PROCESS SERVERS
 Are required to attend, on pain of being Court-house, Rathkeale, on Monday, 27
 at ten o'clock in the morning, and to remuntil six o'clock in the evening, and at th-house, Limerick, on Tuesday, April 4th,
 the morning, and to remain in attendance
 in the evening.
 CIVIL BILLS.
 Suitors are required to deliver their Process Servers a reasonable time before the service of Processes.
 The Clerk of the Peace will not receiv-(whether Ejectments, Legacy Suits, or R-account whatsoever, after six o'clock in th-
 the first day of the Sessions in each town; a-that all Civil Bills of every kind be deliver-the Peace, arranged in the Alphabetical or-tiff's names, and in separate parcels, ac-respective Baronies.
 Civil Bills will be heard immediately af-
 of voters, in the following order, viz:—
 In the Division of Rathkeale.—Ken-second, Upper Connelloe third, and Lower
 In the Division of Limerick.—Costlea fi-second, Coshma third, Clanwilliam fourth, fifth, Owneybeg sixth, Coonagh seventh,
 Liberties eight.
 EJECTMENTS, REPLEVINS, SUITS fo-will be heard without distinction, and like-in the Alphabetical order of the Plaintiff
 respective Baronies.
 Ejectments cannot be made returnable
 of the Sessions in each town.
 APPLICANTS FOR REGISTRY A-
 will be heard at ten o'clock in the morning
 of the Sessions in each town.
 CROWN BUSINESS.
 The Grand Jury will be sworn at twelve day, the 1st of April, at Rathkeale, and at Monday, the 10th day of April, at Limeriafter, Prosecutors and Traversers will Recognizances.
 APPLICATIONS FOR SPIRIT L-
 will be heard after the Grand Jury has been APPEALS FROM MAGISTRATES CONVICTIONS
 will be heard at nine o'clock in the morning 3d of April, at Rathkeale, and at the same the 11th of April, at Limerick.
 CLERKS OF PETTY SESSI-
 are required to return all Informations, R-Recognizances, to the Clerk of the Peace
 days at least, after they are taken, pursua-7th Wm, 4th. chap. 34, Section 7,—C-Sessions neglecting to comply with this rject to a penalty of five pounds in each case.
 BAILIFFS OF THE CIVIL BILL-
 The following are the only persons who the necessary security to the Clerk of other person will be authorised to execorder of the Assistant Barrister for this shall have received from the Clerk of thcate of his having given the proper security.
 James Barry, Broadford, | Thomas O'
 Timothy Collins, Curragh- | James Crea
 Bridge, | John Mitch
 John O'Leary, Glin, | William R
 Thomas O'Donnell, Ballin- | Michael D
 garry, | William C
 John Hassett, New-bridge, | Cornelius C
 William Miller, Adare, | John Ande
 James Harrigan, Rathkeale, | John Brad
 Richard Coleman, Newcastle, | Patrick Cr
 By Order,
 MATHEW H. D'COURC
 County Limerick Peace Office,
 Limerick, 25th January, 1837.