

...but having omitted to
 ...I now throw it out as an ...deserves your consideration.
 ...the true position of this contro-
 ...and me, as to Ballot. In the ...published my annual address,
 ...of the session, and accounting
 ...n. I stated therein that I had ...ssion of 1836 or of 1835, upon
 ...that the inclination of my mind
 ...voting, but that I felt that ...ely balanced for and against it,
 ...ocable opinion upon the subject.
 ...isfaction to the Liberal portion ...judge from the many gratifying
 ...which reached me from all quar-
 ...onth of January Mr. O'Connell
 ...you as the enemy of Ballot, and ...the weight of his name alone he
 ...ort and respect.
 ...spect to the Ballot—my mind
 ...ic prejudices against it—I may ...unknown even to myself. It ...onal importance, and in eve-...earnest consideration, and ...you think its adoption of vital
 ...the country at large (which it
 ...es not think, or he would with-...Government, which strenuously
 ...h case, to make its enforcement
 ...o any individual who may seek
 ...tion. As far as I am concerned,
 ...tively to public opinion, and as ...conduct is sustained by you ...without canvass and without
 ...ankly tell you that if I thought
 ...wer, by his mandate, to dispe-
 ...otes I should neither value
 ...I stand entirely upon the defen-
 ...ed no reserve in speaking of me,
 ...y right, and equally my duty too,
 ...him. I did, indeed intend, if he ...all reference to his whole political
 ...onsider how far his own public
 ...by the impulses of genu-
 ...d been prompted by the crav-
 ...s of a measureless ambition. I
 ...what he has done for his country
 ...himself—to have contrasted his ...promises with his performance—
 ...far such a man was fitted to be ...I should have done so, not in ...any laurels in a contest with one ...verful men of his age—not in the
 ...for that were a poor triumph—
 ...ion that I could inspire him
 ...handmaids of true glory, which I
 ...pire in the great benefactors
 ...of the statesmen, and the patri-
 ...age of history, and whose ...s nature—sentiments which, if
 ...in behalf of our beloved coun-
 ...e, as an eternal treasure, to the ...queath his name to the blessing
 ...I should have done so in ...to perceive that the rights
 ...of Ireland are one thing, and ...Mr. O'Connell over the yield-
 ...ymen is another—that sepa-
 ...ntified only in your imagination.
 ...fitable task—I abstain from ...e feelings of those among you,
 ...at homage which I am the last
 ...t for his motives, and an appro-
 ...d myself unable to accord—and ...that any private feeling should
 ...ation of the important question
 ...de the subject of experiment in ...the representation of popular
 ...ll be based upon the political ...er of individual members, or ...moral and intellectual despotism
 ...n the solution of this question,
 ...nmons is a matter of insigni-
 ...will not vie with Mr. O'Connell

Mary, eldest daughter of J. E. Wilson, Esq. of Cambridge.
 At Ackworth, Thomas Belk, Esq. solicitor, of Pontefract, to Eve, eldest daughter of John Gully, of Ackworth Park, Esq. M.P.
 At the parish church of Conwillgai, Carmarthenshire, Captain James Beek, of the Bombay Army, to Jane, daughter of the late John Jones, Esq. of Dolecothy.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, in Upper William-street, of typhus fever which lasted but three days, Charles O'Hara, jun. Esq. in his 21st year, second son of Charles O'Hara, Esq. of this city,—a young gentleman whose premature death is deeply and deservedly regretted by every class of his fellow citizens, for his moral worth and high promise were known to all.

On Sunday last, at Parsonstown, to the inexpressible grief of her numerous friends and relatives, Mary, relict of the late James Butler, of Castlecrine, Esq. She possessed in an eminent degree, and exercised during her whole life all the qualifications which are particularly desirable in the female character, and breathed her last with a piety and resignation characteristic of genuine religion. Her remains were on Thursday deposited in the family vault at Bunratty, in the county Clare.

Rather suddenly, at his lodgings in George-street, John White, Esq. a young gentleman much regretted.

The Rev. Patrick Murray, Curate of Kilkee and Kilfera. He has left a long family to deplore his loss. Deceased was formerly a Roman Catholic Priest.

In Harcourt-street, Dublin, Mrs. Barron, relict of the late Piers Barron, of Ballyneil House, county Waterford, Esq.

Of brain fever, Mr. Henry Blackham, of Abbey-street, Dublin.

In Dublin, William Jordan, Esq. late of Galway.

Barbara, wife of Joseph Langstaff, of Kingstown, Esq.

The Rev. Daniel O'Keefe, R.C.C. of Kilmeen, county Cork, aged 33, by a fall from his horse when returning from a sick visit.

In Upper Shandon-street, Cork, Mary, relict of the late Thomas Squire, Esq. apothecary.

In Glanmire-road, Cork, of apoplexy, Mr. John Murphy, for many years attached to the Royal Exchange Assurance Office.

At Eyre-square, Galway, Michael Kilroy, Esq. surgeon and accoucher.

At her son's house, King-street, Fermoy, at an advanced age, Mrs. Clancy.

In Queen-square, Fermoy, Mr. Edward Cotter, grocer.

Mrs. Flanagan, wife of Terence Flanagan, Esq. late of St. Cath-erine's Park, county Kildare.

In Dorset-street, aged 86, Mr. P. O'Kelly, father of Mr. F. P.
 O'Kelly, of Galway.

In Derry, at an advanced age, Mrs. Murray, relict of the late Major Murray, 18th Royal Irish, the immediate descendant of Colonel Murray, who so gallantly distinguished himself in defence of that city when besieged.

At Downpatrick, aged 93 years, R. Craig, Esq.

In Derry, Rebecca, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Edward Davenport, of that city.

Charles Doherty, of the Waterside, Derry, aged 110 years.

At his residence in Goland, the Rev. William Love.

Thomas Harvey, Esq. of Londonderry.

Jane, second daughter of the Rev. J. H. Stubbs, of Dundalk.

In Kildare-street, Dublin, Susanna Eliza, eldest daughter of the late Major Sackville Brownlow Taylor, of the 67th Regiment.

In Cumberland-street, Dublin, Miss Woodroffe, aged 82.

At Springfield, near Belfast, Joseph Stevenson, Esq. Secretary of the Royal Belfast Academical Institution.

At East Hill, county Wicklow, George Audoin Lamb, Esq.

At Castle Jane, the residence of her brother Hugh Lawton, Esq. after an illness of 46 hours, Frances Anne, daughter of the late Hugh Lawton, Esq. of Cork.

At Ballymona, of fever, the Rev. Mr. Wauchop, Presbyterian Minister.

In Grosvenor-street, London, the Rev. the Earl of Plymouth.

In Bentinck-street, London, the Hon. Mrs. Green, wife of James Green, Esq. and sister to Lord Dufferin and Claneboye.

In Portland-place, Sir Richard Borough, Bart.

In Hertford-street, London, the Right Hon. Lady Frances, wife of Sir James Webster Wedderburn, Bart. sister to the Earl of Mount-norris, and sister-in-law to Lord Farnham, Lord John Somerset, &c.

In Upper Berkeley-street, London, Mrs. P. Mitford, sister to the late Colonel Mitford and Lord Redesdale.

In Chesterfield-street, London, the Hon. Charlotte Johanna Grimston, aged 78 years.

Justin Fitzgerald, Esq. of Lawrence Pountney-lane, London.

At Achurch, Rectory, the Hon. Mrs. F. Powys, sister to the late Lord Grey de Ruthyn.

At Chelsea, Mary, wife of John Charles Denham, Esq.

In Bath, Sir Patrick Doherty, K.C.H.

At Bear-place, Berks, Sir Moris Ximenes, aged 75.

At Gloucester, Alfred Wyatt, Esq.

Captain Edgcumbe, Royal Navy, and of Edgcumbe, Devon.

Of typhus fever, Harriette Elizabeth, daughter of Wm. Oke Manning, Esq. aged 19 years.

At his house, Paradise-row, Chelsea, Lieut.-General Lindenthal.

Giles Crompe, Esq. many years clerk to the Clothworkers' Company
 The daughter of J. M'Crea, Esq. of Cloudesley-terrace, Islington.

At Bath, aged 75, Sir Rd. Dacres, G.C.H. Vice-Admiral of the Red.

Of influenza, at Hampton-Lodge, Lady Jane Codrington, wife of Admiral Codrington.

At Snaresbrook, Essex, A. D. Welch, Esq.

At Hythe, Southampton, Georgiana Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Willes, R.N.

At Bath, Philadelphia, relict of the late Lieut.-General Monro, of Edmonsham-house, Dorset.

At Fareham, Captain Charles Paton, R.N. aged 96.

At Dawlish, Major John Grant, brother of the late Sir Wm. Grant.
 James Ireland, son of John Ireland, nephew of the once influential banker of Bristol.

At Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Mrs. Ducrow, wife of the celebrated equestrian.

At Taunton, Katharine Morgan, aged 78, a member of the Society of Friends.

At St. John, N.B. William Hamilton, Esq. Assistant-Surgeon of the 43d Light Infantry.

January 28.

Interest to be Sold.
 DECIDEDLY ONE OF THE BEST CENTRAL SITU-THE SOUTH OF IRELAND.
THE HOUSE AND STORES of No. 3, STREET, situated in one of the most lead-the City, beautifully adapted for either the Tobacco, or any other general Trade. There is the rear consisting of six large lofts, with a wide entrance. The Store, which is a large and building, cost upwards of £400, with a lease wto run fifty-one years.
 Apply to TOBIAS POTLER, at his caeap Wh-Retail Hardware, Ironmongery, Brush, Trimming Warehouse, No. 25, William-street.
 Limerick, Ja

Day and Boarding Sch
REV. WILLIAM N. WILLIS intends School for Day Scholars and a limited Boarders, in the House occupied by his late Fath-Doctor Willis.
 As soon as arrangements can be made, which will be completed in a few weeks, the Public shanotice thereof.
 Thomas-street, Ja

Wants a Situation
AS Steward, or Steward and Gardener, a pers-acted in that capacity for several years, a understands keeping accounts, and Labourer's he highly recommended from his last place, wh-upwards of 12 years, and is now disengaged in cof his employer having given up his ground.
 Apply to the Office of this Paper, if by letter, p-Jan

To be Let.
MR. SMITHWICK will Let the DWELLING and that part of the lands of RATHJORI COOLSHINE, for a term of three lives, or o-years, from the 25th of March next. The Far-seventy-seven acres, exclusive of plantations, a-being of prime quality, will answer equally well fo-the dairy, or tillage. On the tenant being agree-mediate possession will be given of the lands, but wick will keep the Dwelling-house and Orchard fo-such allowance, however, as may be agreed on, w-for them.
 Proposals in writing (if by letter post-paid) will by HENRY SMITHWICK, Esq. Mountcather-grean, or by Messrs. FURNELL and WESTRmas-street, Limerick.
 Mr. Smithwick will dispose of several dairy young stock, and dairy utensils of every kind, won the lands, if the value be offered, or at a valu-Jan

Caution to the Public
I HEREBY Caution the Public against receiv-any Bills, Notes, or other Securities, purpo-made, drawn, accepted, indorsed, or signed by ming to be made payable to Mr. William Quinlan, he may be a party, as I never had any dealing w-William Quinlan, and never passed to him or g-negotiate, any security whatever; and being in-the said William Quinlan alleges that I passed that he holds several securities with my name the-this Public Notice that all such are Forgeries. A offer a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any perso-deliver up to me, all or any of the said Bills, informations against such person or persons as ted in the said Forgeries.
 Dated at Tipperary, this 26th day of January.
 EDWARD DOHERTY QU

Vote of Thanks
 To the Medical Officers of the Barrington Hospitof Limerick Infirmary.
AT a Meeting of the Committee, held in the of the Institution, on Tuesday, January Alderman D. F. G. MAHONY, in the Chair, It was proposed by Philip M'Ardeall, Esq. a by Sir Joseph Barrington, Bart.
 Resolved unanimously—"That the warmest the Governors be given to the several Medical Auction of Books, &c.

A VALUABLE and costly collection of Books, Engravings, Foreign Galleries, &c. including the works of the most celebrated authors, and a large quantity of the most rare and valuable books, and a large quantity of the most valuable and costly collection of Books, Engravings, Foreign Galleries, &c. including the works of the most celebrated authors, and a large quantity of the most rare and valuable books, and a large quantity of