

enlarged by the Commissioners of Education.

The Master of the Rolls, Mr. O'Loughlen, has ordered the discharge from custody of the Sheriffs of Dublin, Mr. Collins, Register of the Bankrupt Court, who was arrested for debt on way from Court to his own house.

The Grand Canal Company elect their annual Directors to-morrow.

The demand of Mr. O'Connell and his Association, for simultaneous meetings throughout the country, on Sunday last, has been a signal failure.

Mr. Shiel, M.P. and his step-son, Mr. Power, are canvassing the electors of Dungarvan.

The Hon. the Irish Society intends to exercise the right of advowson to the several benefices in the Diocese of Derry, whose patronage was vested in it by its original charter. This right has been in abeyance for several years.

It is intended to apply to the Lord Lieutenant for a Stipendiary Magistrate to be stationed in Killarney.

The Bank of England and Bank of Ireland are exempt from inquiry, by the parliamentary committee on the operation of Joint-stock Banks.

A young man of the name of Daniel Minahan, employed in catching eelfry near the ferry slip, on Wednesday evening, fell off the Quay into the river, and though a boat quickly put out to his relief, he sank within an oar's length of her, to the indescribable agony of his young wife, who was destined to be a witness of the fatal calamity. Her lamentations were heart-rending.

A woman of the name of Margaret O'Brien, residing at Ahane, fell into the fire, and was so badly burnt that her recovery is almost hopeless.

In a dispute near Galbally on Wednesday, between two brothers of the name of Cantwell, one killed the other with the blow of a stone.

An elderly poor man of the name of Carroll, died a debtor in the county gaol on Thursday, for a sum less than 40s.

A few days since Michl. Quin, of Tervoe, was so severely punished by his brother, Patrick, that fracture of the head took place.

At the late fair of Kiltely, Denis Corry, from Boher, was brutally attacked by a man of the name of William Dooly, so as to endanger his life.

The Proprietor of Plassy Mills has preferred a claim for £26,000, compensation to the Shannon Navigation improvement Commissioners for his interest in these concerns, which are likely to be removed under the proposed alterations.

The Rev. William Maunsell, late Vicar of St. John's parish, was this day instituted by the Lord Bishop to the Rectory of Kilmurry, near this city.

Lent Preachers at the Cathedral, appointed by the Lord Bishop of Limerick:—February 15, Rev. Robert Knox; 22, Rev. Godfrey Massy—March 1, Rev. Thomas Willis; 8, Rev. Joseph Gabbett, (Kilmallock); 15, Rev. James Bouchier; 22d, Rev. Thomas Westropp.—Good Friday, 24, Rev. A. L. Kirwan. The Stoves being completed there will be good fires during Lent.

The amount due to depositors on the 20th November, 1836, in Limerick Savings Bank, was £87,084 15s. 2d. being an encrease of over £9000 the past year.

Connaught Circuit—Roscommon, Feb. 28th; Carrick-on-Shannon, March 4th; Sligo, March 7th; Castlebar, March 11th; Galway, March 16th; Term of Court suspended.

choice, to signify was unanimously Mr. McCorkle, this people, and acquiescence, the the right hand of this Church con gave him also the by the other Min

Mr. McCance the pulpit, proced ous highly impor Minister of the C fearful responsibi Ministry—that h to be the servant punity drawback, his reward be.— lengthened detai language truly cla eloquent, earnest of this charge the

Although the S all those pompou racteristic of the very plainness and last, a deep-tone have spoken to th judge from the de of every individ the Religious ser membrance, and that occasion, wi ground.

(The following ap

The Colonelcy death of Lieut.-C

The depot of t with the new unif the army for the Horse Guards.

Fourteen of th Jersey in one day

The Marquess at the Cove of Co 73d, and 92d d Gibraltar, Malta,

The Ballot for mittee is fixed for

The Neapolitan Marco Davy, M fruit, oil, &c. b dense fog on Mo and is bilged; a deposited in one charge of the Co

Mr. Ralph Ho to sign the Duke

In the cause o