

on the amended Grand
ing Medical Gentlemen:
ardens, Feb. 11, 1837.

the House of Commons
g through your respected Medical Gentlemen of the st night laid on the table having waited for that nd the Grand Jury Act of obnoxious to the medical salaries for attendance at ount of support possessed e taken into consideration.
e to acquaint you, for the s and associates, has been ed upon it, but the feeling stly preponderated. Disaking rather of a converare scarcely ever reported ost succinct manner; but did not fail to state the eneral. My more immence and abilities which and City of Limerick, as between the condition of rative poverty of the one h can enable the medical re) more liberal of their endance on public instidical establishments were debate, I confined myself feelings and opinions, as adopted, and did me the h my most respectful sen-y personal esteem for your l and obedient Servant,
(M.P.) City Limerick."

Secretary
ng held on the n the Bench, the Mayor.

d M. Gavin, Esq.—Martin or 24 hours imprisonment, 1 days in gaol, for assault-Constable Clements preble Francis Forrest, under house when not on duty. In wear he was then on duty.
ing a witness to substan-s said he never saw the rior. The Bench came to mitted a breach of the should be suspended.—
Patrick Hayes and Patrick n Catherine Minden, and Donoghue, for assaulting by, for assaulting Roger daughter of George Gardner, Esq. Priory, Pendleton, Lancashire.

In the Island of Antigua, the Rev. Jesse Pilcher, missionary, to Miss Isabella Millie, of Abbeyleix, Queen's County.

DEATHS.

At Six-mile-Bridge, on Thursday, Michael Dalton, Esq. late of Rosscastle, and one of the Senior Magistrates of the county Clare.
At Kilrush, on Wednesday, Miss Ellen M'Mahon, daughter of Mr. M'Mahon, grocer, of that town.
At his residence, Bellmount, near Cork, George Seymour, Esq. M.D.
At his house in Rutland-square, Dublin, William Beauman, Esq.
At Tebradon, county Dublin, Mrs. Delamain, relict of William Maples Delamain, Esq. formerly of the Hon. East India Com. service.
On Tuesday, at Knock, county Clare, Robert Armstrong, Esq. M.D.
In Jail street, Ennis, Mr. Thomas Ryan, proprietor of the Gridiron Tavern.
In Maylor-street, Cork, Isaac Jones, Esq. late of the Agricultural Bank.
At Monkstown, near Cork, aged two years and four months, Agnes Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the late Isaac Robson, Esq. London.
In Ballyhaise House, county Cavan, Anna Maria, wife of William Humphreys, Esq.
In Blarney-lane, Cork, Catherine, wife of Mr. Amos Cooke.
On Tuesday, on Patrick's-Hill, Cork, James Power, Esq.
At her residence, in Killarney, Mrs. Mary Walsh.
At Ballina, Mayo, Michael Mangan, Esq.
In Wexford, Mr. William Walpole.
Aged 97 years, Mrs. Hicks, relict of the late Richard Hicks, Esq.
of Kilmacanauge, county Wicklow.
In Paris, Laura, eldest daughter of Henry Chester, Esq. of Courtown, county Louth.
At Ballina, Mayo, Mrs. Slevin.
On Monday night, at her sister's Mrs. Walker, Blackrock, Cork, Mrs. Going, of Castle-Connell, relict of the late Thomas Richard Going, Esq. of Erina, county Clare,—a Lady of the most estimable character, whose many virtues shed lustre upon a life devoted to the exercise of charity and beneficence. Her remains were this day interred in the family vault in the Cathedral of Cloyne.
At his sister's house, Coronation-row, Clonmel, aged 75 years, George Tomkins, Esq. barrister, and brother of Major Tomkins, late of the city of Limerick Militia.
Mr. John Ryan, of Mardyke, carpenter and wheelwright.
Susanna Adams, late of Waterford, in her 66th year.
At his residence Kingstown, John Speer, Esq. M.D.
At Clonakilty, Mauritius Power, Esq. Surgeon in the Royal Navy.
In Waterford, Mary Anne, wife of Thomas Garvey, of Brownsfort, county Kilkenny, Esq.
Samuel Morrisson, Esq. of Waterford.
Of asthma, Thomas Eiffe, Esq. in his 60th year.
In Dorset-place, London, Lucretia, widow of Admiral Charles Powell Hamilton.
In York-place, City-road, aged 89 years, Ann, relict of the late William Butler, Esq.
At Harley House, Bath, General Sir R. Blair, K.C.B.
At Egham Hithe, of influenza, Eliza, relict of Lieut.-Colonel Moore, 56th Regiment.
At Southgate, Lieut.-Colonel Goulburn.
Of apoplexy, the Rev. J. Bathurst Schomberg, one of his Majesty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Rector of Belton, Suffolk.
At Weymouth, after a few days' illness, J. J. Jeans, Esq. Collector of Excise.
At Leamington, James Duff, Esq. of Innes House, Elgin, son of General Sir James Duff, of Funtingdon, Sussex.
At Hastings, Emily Susannah, only daughter of H. Custance, Esq. of Weston House, Norfolk.
At her residence, Bath, the Dowager Lady Shuckburgh, relict of the late Sir Stewkly Shuckburgh, Bart. of Shuckburgh Park, Warwickshire, and mother of the present Baronet.
Thomas Steele, Esq. late Mayor of Stockport.
In Edinburgh, Mrs. M'Donald, mother of Lieut.-Colonel M'Donald, late of the 1st Royal Regiment.
In New York, William Sampson, Esq. counsellor-at-law, aged 73 years. He left Ireland in the memorable year 1795.
At Trichinopoly, East Indies, on 30th June, aged 46, Captain P. M.
Madilhon, 54th Regiment, in which corps he served 27 years with honour, zeal, and credit, and died regretted and lamented by every one who knew his goodness of heart and noble disposition.

three acres,
of £40 15s
These Mi
only two m constant su power, to £ The well-kn
the fact of e
being occup them for the Paper, Blea
Sale of part

"A Bump
National
foster, en
hip, hur
we all.

"That or three hours
ceeded in th an IRISHMA

HAS be patro
Theatre, Ch
February 20
tainment, o
Limerick,
Chamber, w

As it is c
Juvenile sup
Mr. G. will 13 years of value One C

Each you must be pa keeper, as t
that Numbe

As Mr. C similar man may visit th
something r
Plum Cakes
16lbs. weigh

Every pe
wishes to st
ber from th

Doors op
Boxes, 2s
Pit or Boxe
half-past N
N. B.—T

to young La Persons e