At Clifton, the Rev. H. H. Hayes, of Bath, to Letitia, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Lawrence, of Clifton.

At Walcot church, Bath, Robert, eldest son of Robert Radclyffe, Esq. of Foxdenton Hall, Lancashire, to Agnes, daughter of the late Rev. Henry Sill, of Burton, Westmorland.

DEATHS.

At Cahircon house, Kildysart, on Thursday, after a short illness of influenza, Bindon Scott, Esq. for many years a highly respectable and efficient Magistrate and Grand Juror of the county Clare. His remains will be interred to-morrow in the family vault near Kildysart.

Of influenza, on Wednesday, aged 17, Tobias J. T. Delmege, youngest son of Tobias Delmege, Esq. of Court Lodge, in this county. Patient in his sufferings he died deservedly lamented by all those who really knew him, and relying on his offended Lord for that mercy which he so bountifully bestows.

In Henry-street, on Wednesday last, Mr. John C. Howe, A.B. son of the Rev. John Howe, Methodist Minister. During a painful and protracted illness, he displayed all the graces of the Christian character; and died, "looking," with joyful confidence, "for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life."

In St. John's-square, Ellen, widow of the late Mr. Joseph Fogerty, of this city, architect.

In William-street, Mary, widow of Mr. Daniel Murphy, grocer. On Thursday, Mrs. Thomas Frost, of Pass, Meelick, sincerely regretted by her numerous friends and family, aged 37 years.

On Saturday, at Roscommon, Dora, the beloved wife of Edward Sparling, Esq. Chief Constable of Police. Under the pressure of painful disease her mind was supported by a clear and satisfactory assurance of her acceptance with God. Her loss is deeply lamented by a numerous circle of relatives and friends, but their loss is her eternal gain.

After a few days' illness, William Humfrey Frew, Esq. South Circular-road, Dublin.

At his house in Bandon, George Loane, Esq. M.D. Having early in life attached himself to the medical staff of the army, he served in that capacity in the Peninsula and different parts of the world.

On Monday, Margaret, relict of the late Francis Segerson, Esq. Cork.

At Sydney Avenue, Charlotte, relict of the late Lieut. Thomas Wm. Lloyd, 4th Dragoon Guards, and daughter of the late Thomas Knox Magee, Esq. Surveyor General of H.M.'s Revenue.

At Leeds, Anne, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Tennant, Esq. and sister of Mrs. Austen, of Ringabella, county Cork.

At the Manor House, Dunmanway, of fever, Letitia Eleanora, eldest child of Sackville H. Cox, Esq.

James Newcomen, Esq. an eminent solicitor of Dublin.

On Sullivan's-quay, Cork, Jane, relict of the late Wm. Bissitt, Esq.

In Hanover-street, Cork, Mr. Thomas Anderson, Revenue Officer.

John, only son of the late Rev. Denis Charles Bingham.

At his father's residence Castlehill, of typhus fever, the Rev. Thomas Ruane, P.P. of Adrigoole.

In Eccles-street, Dublin, Sophia, eldest daughter of the late S. Robinson, Esq. M.D.

At Millbrook, near Navan, Anne, wife of Edward Brady, Esq.

At Lauragh, Kildare, the eldest son of the Rev. Sir Erasmus Dixon Borrowes, Bart.

At Brandiston Hall, Norfolk, Sarah Bircham, wife of the Rev. Mr. Atthill, jun. and sister of Guy Lloyd, of Croghan House, county Roscommon, Esq.

At Abbot's Ripton, aged 19, Jessie, sixth daughter of J. B. Rooper, Esq. M.P.

At Southampton, after a few days' illness, the Right Rev. Thomas Burgess, D.D. Bishop of Salisbury.

In Hereford-street, London, Anne, eldest daughter of the Hon. C. E. Law, M.P. Recorder of London.

At Upper Deal, Sir J. Harvey, K.C.B. Admiral of the Blue, aged 64. Colonel Robert Pringle, late of the 51st Regiment.

At Liverpool, John Jones, Esq. of the firm of Messrs. Nalders, Spall, Jones, and Hardisty, London.

At Goodrich Court, Herefordshire, Llewellyn Meyrick, Esq. LL.B. and F.S.A. one of the Equerries of his Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex.

At Halifax, Nova Scotia, William Pepperall, Quartermaster of the 34th Regiment—having served His Majesty 42 years.
