

won the Shamrock Challenge added, at the Ashbourne course beating Mr. Ferguson's Barkston at, won by half a length.
 off on Monday last in the neigh-Ballylongford, between Mr. O'Co-Washington, rode by Pat. Halloran horse Chanticlear, rode by Mich-es of a stiff and heavy country-grey being the favourite, it was sup-en his opponent from the post, but nes' were deceived, the bay horse ot ahead, taking his leaps from the e match in gallant style, by at least last fortnight the same horses had twice, each time Mr. Crosbie's horse good-un.
 l preach at St. John's Church ocese meet on Tuesday next, at the arliament against the present system
 n Ireland.
 of Ballybay, has declined the
 gregation in Derry.
 rdcolm have addressed the Rev.
 on to the Rectorship of Enniscorthy
 P.P. of Doone, has remitted £10 on in Dublin, with the names of the t, as membrs:—Messrs. Patrick ler, and Patrick Richardson.
 Causland, of Birr, having seen cal applicants for aid, to the Na-on, declares he never approved
 he supports the schools in his dis-Treasurers to the City Dispensary the receipt of £3 from Colonel onation for that valuable Charity.
 of a Tholsel Jury, has left between the Fever Hospital and the House of Industry thank-a benevolent Lady, for the House
 Dawson Massy.
 IN MANSERGH.—We have received
 s O'Connell, of the County Clare, d in the most powerful form con-atements. Press of matter preventednesday. Mr. Steele has request-will take no notice whatever of mansergh may chuse to publish. con-h as a person who has lost his pla-l a *****.

FIELD STEEPLE RACE.
 horses started, came off on Tuesday ment than has been witnessed in the
 The assemblage far exceeded ss of the weather having induced l directions.
 e took the lead at starting, which wall, closely followed by Palestrina drew Carey a little behind. Not g of those horses, (Mackenna befallen at the second leap,) but Pa-entine at the last wall, both horses
 e top of their speed, Valentine n 1st, Now or Never 2d; And th, and Mackenna 0. The pace aving performed the 4 miles, in which es, in 12 minutes. The course was e Stewards.
 e race a fox was shook for the Moy field of horsemen ever seen in the splendid—6 miles in 25 minutes ntry. After the first two miles syme evident in all directions, and ab-one saw the finish.

MARRIED.
 At St. Mary's church, Dublin, David Cooke Bergin, Esq. of North mberland-street, to Isabella, second daughter of the late John Murphy, of Old Dominick-street.
 At Arcarna church, William, second son of Captain Mulloy, of ighthstown, county Roscommon, to Ann, eldest daughter of Hamilton George, Esq.
 At St. George's church, Hanover-square, by the Rev. Henry Moore, Vicar of Rathconnell, in Ireland, the Hon. James Hope, M.P. or Linlithgow county, second son of the late Earl of Hopetoun, to lady Mary Frances Nugent, youngest daughter of the late Earl, and ster of the present Marquis of Westmeath.
 At Booth, Duncan Milne, 24th Regiment Bombay N.I. son of the te Lieut.-Colonel Milne, 19th Foot, to Helen, daughter of the late J. Dunbar, Bart. of Boath, Captain R.N.
 At Warminster, Lieut. J. Chilcott, E.I.C.'s service, to Hannah, daughter of J. Hoare, Esq.

DEATHS.
 Yesterday, at the family mansion, Dromoland, county Clare, Sir Edward O'Brien, Bart. to the inexpressible grief of his family, and e sincere regret of his friends and numerous tenantry. Sir Edward presented his native county many years in Parliament, and was ervedly esteemed as an excellent landlord, an amiable country gentleman, and exemplary in all the domestic and social relations.
 Yesterday morning, at Croom, Henry Lyons, of Croom house, Esq., er several years an active Magistrate of this county, and a gentleman highly esteemed in the social circle for his hospitable manners.
 his death is sincerely lamented by his relatives and many friends.
 At his mother's house in Catherine-street, on Thursday, Doctor
 John Griffith, a young gentleman much regretted by his family and friends.
 In Frederick-street, at an advanced age, Mr. Zachariah Ledger, rmerly of the Ordnance Department.
 At the house of her son in Molesworth-street, Dublin, Mrs. Letitia iff, aged 82 years.
 Mary, daughter of Thomas Crozier, Esq. of Rutland-square.
 Mary Anne, wife of William O'Connor, Esq. of Parnell-place, ounty Dublin.
 Of scarletina, Margaret Sherwin, aged eight years, and Eliza erwin, aged six years, children of Mr. John Sherwin, of Great unswick-street, Dublin.
 Catherine Maria, the wife of P. O'Brien, Esq. of Thomas-st. Dublin.
 In Lower Sherrard-street, Dublin, Thomas Pilkington, Esq. aged 75.
 Theophilus Page, Esq. late of Ringsend, merchant.
 At Rathmines, Miss Anne Wilkinson, sister of the late Colonel Wilkinson, of the 13th Regiment.
 At Parsonstown, in the prime of life, Robert Robinson, Esq.
 Tennakilly.
 At Clifton, Mrs. Weldon, widow of the Rev. Arthur Weldon, late Rahen, Queen's County.
 Eliza, daughter of Richard Exham, Esq. South Mall, Cork.
 At Beale, county Kerry, the infant son of Joseph Dexter, Esq.
 In Tralee, Mr. Humphrey Donovan, many years a respectable inhabitant of that town.
 Mrs. Lynch, widow of the late Thomas Lynch, Esq. of Headford, alway.

At Ramilton, Dr. Samuel Perse.
 Thomas Sparrow, Esq. of Wexford.
 In Wexford, Thomas Henry, youngest son of Captain Bruner, of the 5th Dragoon Guards.
 At Trafalgar, near Westport, in his 85th year, Charles Higgins, Esq.
 Sudderly, on board his vessel lying in Waterford, Captain Bond, the Mary, of Newhaven.
 At his residence, Old Connaught, the son of Phineas Riall, Esq.
 In Upper Gardiner-street, aged 83, the Hon. Mrs. Tisdall, aunt of Lord Louth.
 At Longford, of fever caught on circuit, Cornelius O'Donnell, Esq., rrister at Law.
 A few days' since, at his mother's house in Berrisokane, after a ort illness, the Rev. James Kingsley, Curate of Grassmore, ocese of Chester, in the prime of life.
 At Ballywilliamson, Carlow, William Evans Fitzhenry, Esq.
 Eliza, daughter of the late Thomas Gorman, Esq. of Clonmel.
 Mr. Thomas Curtis, of Portlaw, Waterford.
 At Grosvenor-square, and Paternoster-row.
 At Flower-place, Surrey, the Rev. Henry Walpole Nevill, son of Hon. George Nevill, and nephew of the Earl of Abergavenny.
 At Plymouth, Lieut. James Bell, late 2d Veteran Battalion, aged 92.
 At Stonehouse, Plymouth, Henry, eldest son of Lieut.-Colonel Donoghue.
 Rev. H. Gillow, of typhus, Priest of the Roman Catholic Chapel of Mary's, Mulberry-street, Manchester.
 At Myna, Isle of Man, the Rev. Mr. Gahan, Roman Catholic Clerman.
 At Penton-place, Pentonville, Mrs. Pigott, in her 75th year.
 At the house of her son, in the Brixton-road, Mrs. Jane Harvey.
 At Priestwold Hall, Leicestershire, Charles James Packe, Esq.
 At Windsor-terrace, Dover-road, George Raye, Esq. one of the chiers of the Bank of England.
 At Edgehill, Liverpool, Thomas, son of T. Paget, Esq. of Knock-es, Mayo.
 aged 38, Charles Hammond, Esq. of the firm of Eaton, Hammond, n, bankers, Newmarket.
 At Branches Park, Suffolk, Elizabeth Ann, eldest daughter of rry Usborne, Esq.
 At Edinburgh, the Hon. Harriett Buccleuch Murray, sister of the Lord Elibank.
 At Madeira, Alexander Deron, Esq. late Captain 8th Regt.
 At Cawnpore, Archibald Hugh, Ensign in the 1st Regiment Native
 ntry, the eldest son of John Kennedy, Esq. of Inch House, ounty Donegal.

Whatever to my Wife, MARGARET CORBETT, alias BLAKE, on my account, as I will not henceforward be accountable for any Debts which she may contract.
 Dated at Limerick, this 6th day of March, 1837.
 E. CORBETT.

Window Glass,
Oil, Colour, Glass, Lead and Dye Stuff Ware-House,
 No. 22, WILLIAM-STREET, LIMERICK.
 W. & T. ENGLISH have arrived to them, per Kate, from Bristol, Ninety Crates WINDOW GLASS.
 This article is of a superior description, having been manufactured on principles which improve the quality and colour of Glass. For this important improvement in the art of Glass-making, the manufacturers have recently obtained a Patent.
 Contractors and Dealers will be treated with on liberal terms; half and quarter Crates, carefully packed to suit the convenience of the country.

GLASS CUTTING.
 W. & T. E. have Glass Cut to all dimensions, and their scale of prices will be found to be moderate. This mode of purchasing Glass has now become very general, and is highly advantageous to the consumer. It at once combines economy with convenience. Packed in boxes, Cut Glass can be carried safely by ordinary conveyance.

W. & T. E. are supplied with
 Genuine Ground White Lead, | Washed Whiting for Paper
 Best Boiled Oil, | Staining,
 Raw Linseed Oil, | Roman Cement,
 Spirits of Turpentine, | Plaster of Paris,
 Ground and Dry Colours, | Painters' Brushes,
 London Gold Leaf, | Varnishes,
 Fine Gilders Whiting,
ANTI-CORROSION LETTICE PAINT.
 This Paint, from its great durability, is admirably adapted for all descriptions of out-side work, particularly Roman Cement Fronts. The principal Colours are Lead colour Deep and Pale Drab.
 Country Dealers will be supplied with Rape Oil, Logwood Indigo, Copperas, Salts, and a variety of articles connected with Trade at fair prices.
 March 11

Insolvency.
 Unsuccessful Auction of Hardware, fine Cutlery, Fenders
 Grates, Tin Ware, German Silver, Saddlery, &c. &c.
 In the Matter of Edmond } TO BE SOLD by PUBLIC Hogan, late of Rutland- } AUCTION, on Thursday street, in the city of } the 16th March Inst. and fol-Limerick, an Insolvent. } lowing days, on the premises Rutland-street, (opposite the CHRONICLE OFFICE) by order of the Assignee in this matter the entire of the Insolvent's stock in trade, effects, Household Furniture, &c. &c.
 The stock, which is in excellent order, consists of a great variety of Hardware and Birmingham Goods of every description, Tin and Japanned Wares, Plated Wares, Cutlery in good variety, House Furnishing, Ironmongery, Brass Fenders, Grates, Saddlery, German Silver Goods, &c. &c.
 This Sale will be found worthy the attention of persons in a Country Hardware trade, as the assortment is most extensive, the goods in excellent condition, and approved accept-Bills will be taken for any sum over £20.
 Immediately after the Sale of the stock, the entire Household Furniture will be Sold. It is of the best description but a short time in use, and comprises an admirable variety of such requisites as are in every-day use.
 Due notice will be given of the Sale of the Furniture; and also of the Sale of the Insolvent's interests in the Limerick Baths, subject to a low head rent. These latter premises are confessedly not only the medium of affording considerable healthful convenience to the inhabitants of Limerick, but the realizing an ample independence for a person of industry, attention, and moderate capital, who would give his attentive exertions to the establishment. Further particulars may be known of JOSEPH MARSHALL, Repository, Henry-street.
 March 11.