

a late much respected any scheme for the re, that the fact was position, that the Irish ay, whose forefathers the curse pronounced m—and really hardly al reason for believing p's statement. This y the lecture delivered . William Crotty, on the Rev. Gentleman measured abuse against , classing them with s of the Gospel—the Gentleman, extracting by threats of purga- ayonet; and so offen- the occasion, that a stablishment, left the d him to move. In s I did hope better d expect that he and good to this benighted many of my country- superstition by which the saving truths of followers by the truly escaping the fallacies e errors of dissent on he new converts, one as! miserably have I nary spirit so preva- zed on the Rev. gen- ng into all the absur- With one hand he ile with the other he verthrowing it. But matter in this light— fatal consequences of the spiritual guidance uld inevitably follow hich ministers of the em. Perhaps he has the few Protestants make such contribu- xpenses of providing them. Perhaps the d of the melancholy s plunged under the er taste the benefits onsolations of sound would, I should ima- ev. gentleman's cha- ng Jesus, to abstain a which he does not the utility of which joins himself to the ay it level with the man whom I consider

Swaine, R.N.
 At St. Mary's church, Taunton, D. Godfrey, Esq. of Abingdon, to Helen, youngest daughter of Sir R. Seppings, late Chief Surveyor of the Navy.
 At Lynedoch Place, Edinburgh, Archd. Inglis, Esq. M.D. to Isabella, only daughter of the late Major James Weir, of Tolcross.
 Colonel Thomas Manby, late Lieut. 12th Regt. to Maria Josefa, eldest daughter of General Fortoul, of New Grenada.

DEATHS.

At her house in Anne-street, on Sunday last, Jane, daughter to the late Alderman Francis Sargent, of this city.
 On Sunday, Adelaide, youngest daughter of Mr. John Jones, Thomas-street.
 In Broad-street, James, son of Mr. Edward Browne.
 In Eccles-street, Dublin, at an advanced age, Mrs. Jane Walker.
 In Lower Sherrard-street, Dublin, Mr. Maurice P. Mannin.
 Maria, wife of Edward Gerty, of Baggot-street.
 At Johnstown, Mrs. Price, widow of the late Richard Price, of Cashel, Esq.
 At Killeshandra, on the 9th instant, Jane, fourth daughter of Henry Rosslewin, Esq. C.C. of Police. She bore a tedious and painful illness with all that meekness and resignation which alone proceeds from a perfect knowledge and love of God, yielding up her spirit unto him who gave it with the fullest confidence in mercy through Christ Jesus, who has said, "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of God."
 At Rathkeale, Eliza, daughter of the late Mr. Walker, of Newcastle.
 In Croom, Mr. Thomas Mason.
 At Bristol, Priscilla Widenham, wife of Henry Mitchell Smyth, of Castle Widenham, Esq. county Cork.
 At Monkstown, Cork, Thomas Dorman, Esq. of Raffeen House.
 At Gayfield, aged 50 years, the Rev. Bernard M'Dermott, P.P. of Kilglass.
 In Gowran, county Kilkenny, aged 13 years, Maria, eldest daughter of Dr. Newell.
 Offever, at Waterford, Mr. James Hayes, late of Clonmel, merchant.
 At Wexford, aged 95, Mr. William Henry Hyland.
 At Galway, Isabella, widow of the late William Copeland, Esq.
 In Sligo, Mrs. Winterscale, widow of George Winterscale, Esq.
 Doctor Atkinson, of the Newbliss Dispensary.
 At Woodford, Jackson Black, Esq. attorney-at-law, son of Henderson Black, Esq. of Larkfield, county Antrim.
 At Liverpool, of decline, in his 24th year, Edwin, second son of the late Doctor Kain, of Roscommon.
 At Mr. John Jackson's, in Upper William-street, where she had been on a visit, Miss Anne Usher, of Dublin.
 At Wentworth-place, Dublin, Mr. George Colebert.
 Rhoda, wife of William Baily Wallace, Esq. North Great George's street, Dublin.
 At Euchar, King's County, Francis Milner, Esq.
 At her residence, South Audley-street, London, in her 84th year, Frances Canning, daughter of the late Stratford Canning, Esq. of Garvagh, Ireland, and aunt of the late Right Hon. George Canning.
 In New-street, Spring-gardens, Joseph Jekyll, Esq. K.C. and Bencher of the Inner Temple, aged 85.
 In Park-crescent, Ralph Carr, Esq. aged 68.
 In Wimpole-street, Eliza Diana, relict of J. Bouchier, Esq.
 At Beechwood, near Rotherham, Mary Frances Cecilia, only daughter of the late Colonel Francis Noel Frigent, K.S.L. formerly Aide-de Camp to Major-General the Earl of Balcarras.
 Captain d'Olivier, late of the York Light Infantry, aged 76.
 At Ampleforth, of the influenza, Hannah, wife of Capt. Easterby, late of the 23d Lancers.
 At Chelmsford, Charlotte Sophia, wife of Mr. T. H. Burrell, and daughter of the late C. Clarence, Esq. of Lodge Hall, Essex.
 At East Acton, Mrs. Wall, widow of Lieutenant-Colonel J. Wall, of the South Gloucester Militia.
 In consequence of lacerations which he received by his horse falling with him, Mr. John Orr, surgeon, Banbridge.
 At Cranshaws Manse, N.B. Mr. William Chalmers Sibbald, late Lieut. in the 1st Regiment of Foot.
 At Gibraltar, Michael Power, sen. Esq. author of "Power's Book-keeping."
 At Barbadoes, Sergeant Major Samuel Love, 76th Regiment, after having served for the long period of 29 years.

THE Propriety of Patronage modulation to the daily making an advantage and addition to his and splendid Co is served up in Province, and while honoured those who have to a discerning must emanate from general satisfaction
 NOLAN pleads on his part to satisfy both as to their merit it will evidence, so as to a hotel to his truth of his assertion fair trial, which or demerits of a

FAIR Meeting of the Counties of Wick, Louth, and Westmeath, held at the Lincolns Arms, Drogheda, on the 14th inst. WILLIAM HO
 It was unanimously resolved that the Stock be held at Drogheda on the 1st of April next, when the same shall be put into the hands of the owners of the same.
 For the best of the Challenge Cup, Francis Healy, Drogheda.
 original Articles
 For the best D
 For the second
 For the best A
 For the best M
 For the second
 For the best d
 For the second
 For the best d
 For the the be
 For the second
 For the best A
 For the second
 For the best o
 For the best ye
 For the second
 For the best d
 For the best d
 For the best ye
 For the best
 For the best
 For the best
 For the best

PRICE OF IRISH STOCKS—MARCH 14.

Bank Stock,	197
Three per cent Consols	80½