

annual Sermons Institution, are Episcopal Chapel
this charity will ing the only one
n Dublin, for the nd females. On ined in the Holy eresting occasion
hich was such as the use of their Morning Service,
t. xxvi. Evening
d ditto, Heb. v.

Chronicle.

preacher of the
a Minister of the ssenting Brethren
en to ministers of
At the commence-
the friends of the
the politics of the
ong those present.
the remarks then
r sentiments, Mr.
ve are discussing?
nocrat, or an aristher," replied the
are you then?"—
sire to be a QUIET
uls and preach my eading the letter of ntrast between the
The one loved good
iar Church or not;
—but on perusing
icle of Wednesday,
confessed that the
scribed are not the
He speaks of the s what those errors
cies and evils of the fair to infer, that ystem; which, like
power, would force
which is set up by ssentients for con-
ious band." Now unmeasured abuse"
ened public decide,
charge of gross in-
which he practices
sed by Mr. Crotty
dained Watchman,
ominates that body
voluntary system.
inciple an essential
not, all of us, be England herself say

DEATHS.

At Florence, on the 26th of February, where he had resided for the last 12 years, to the deep regret of his numerous and respectable relatives and friends, Lieut.-General John Locke, in the 67th year of his age, youngest brother of the Rev. Thos. Locke, of Newcastle, in this county. Few persons have passed from this transitory scene, who possessed in a higher degree the noblest virtues of human nature; the kind and affectionate parent, the sincere and steadfast friend; were united to the upright and honourable man. He was enjoying the society of his family apparently in perfect health, when he was suddenly seized with violent pain produced by organic disease of the heart, and almost immediately expired in the arms of one of his children. His numerous tenantry in the west of this county will long have reason to regret the loss of a kind and indulgent landlord.

Yesterday morning, in Anne-street, Anne, the beloved wife of John V. Parker, Esq. after a painful illness which she bore with patience and true Christian fortitude. She died rejoicing in the merits of her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

At Broadford, on Wednesday, to the deep regret of her family and friends, Ann, the beloved wife of Thomas Bridgman, Esq. of Lakeview, county Clare.

Joseph Mathers, Esq. Camden-street, Dublin, one of the oldest officers of the Law Exchequer.

In Peter-street, Dublin, John Killenger, Esq. in his 80th year.

At Synnott-place, Dublin, aged 13, of rapid decline, Anna Maria, eldest daughter of John Gore Jones, Esq. Chief Magistrate of Police.

At Rathclaren Rectory, Cork, Belinda, wife of the Rev. Thomas Waggett.

Suddenly, Lieut. John Montgomery Russell, late of 66th Regt.

In Ennis, Mrs. Gregg, wife of Mr. Mich. Gregg.

At Ballinacally, Ennis, Mr. John Doherty.

At Castle Eyre, the residence of her father, Ann, the eldest daughter of William Lowth, Esq.

At Dawlish, Devonshire, James Sheridan, Esq. many years an able Reporter for the Dublin Press, and son of the late Dr. Sheridan.

In Cloyne, Mr. Edmund Wall.

At Beagh, county Galway, Catherine, relict of the late Robert Ffrench, Esq.

In Castlebar, of apoplexy, Mr. John Dale.

At Bogwood, co. Roscommon, Anne, wife of Lewis H. Morton, Esq.

In Upper Stephen-street, Dublin, R. N. Cathcart, Esq. solicitor.

Of influenza, Harriet, the wife of Thomas Mongan, Esq. of Piercestown, county Kildare.

At his residence in Moyvore, Westmeath, Edward Wynne, sen. Esq. aged 78 years.

At Athleague, county Roscommon, the Rev. Owen Tristan, one of the oldest Parish Priests in that Diocese.

At Rich View, Bray, county Wicklow, Captain Thomas Kettlewell, of 30th Regiment, unattached.

At Kilcullen, county Kildare, Lieut. Lewis Kelly, on half-pay of the 69th Regiment.

After two days' illness, Sir Henry Frederick Cooke, K.C.H. Sir Henry had attained the rank of Major-General by the last Brevet, and had only recently succeeded to the estates and fortune of his elder brother, the gallant General Sir George Cooke.

In the King's Bench Prison, Joseph Cooke, Esq. late Captain in the Army.

In Artillery-place, Finsbury-square, London, Miss Beech.

In Russell-place, Fitzroy-square, Joseph Aldridge, Esq. formerly of St. Martin's-lane, aged 81.

Suddenly, at Little Deane's-yard, Westminster Abbey, the Rev. Frederick Grant, M. A.

At the Common house, Hackney, Alexander Harper, Esq. aged 85.

At the Vicarage, Turville, Bucks, the Rev. Geo. Scobell, D.D. many years a Magistrate for that county.

At Fareham, Miss Benett, eldest daughter of the late Sir Wm. Benett, of that place.

Thomas Thomas, of Cefn Cethin, Esq. a Deputy Lieutenant and Magistrate for the county of Carmarthen.

At Toft Hall, Susanna, wife of Ralph Leycester, Esq. of Toft, Cheshire.

At Dover, in consequence of a severe wound received during the American war, Captain Sir William Howe Mulcaster, C.B. Aid-de-Camp to the King.

At St. Leonard's-on-the-Sea, Edward, son of M. Bland, Esq.

At Kilburn Priory, William Limond Watson, Esq. late of Hendon, Middlesex.

At Besancon (Doubs), in France, Lieut.-General the Marquess de Moligny, Senior Knight of the Military Order of St. Louis, in the 94th year of his age.

Groceries. Spices. Sugar Mill.

To L A YOUNG PERSON of acquainted with the Dre
make herself generally usefu Family, or as COMPANION to
is not so much her object as a
Any commands addressed CHRONICLE OFFICE, (if by SIKES & Co. Patrick-street, o wick-street, shall be punctual

Cha
THE WIDOWS on Mr requested to call at the MAHONY, at Ten o'clock in next, the 25th instant, when their Quarter's Annuity, whic

Mr. Rydin ATTENDS as usual at his STREET.

Mr. R. takes this opportur supplied with every improved
correspondents on the Contir
Mr. RYDING woul

Phoenix
ESTABLIS
PERSONS whose Insura
DAY, are requested Receipts are now ready at hands of the several Agents.
The PHOENIX Office ins
Damage by Fire in the u
Countries, and the cheerful
it has made good the most WI

Limerick, March 18.

Lady's Maid a
A NATIVE of Switzerla
as LADY'S MAID, or KEEPER. She understan branches perfectly well; has
or to travel.

Any letters addressed J.
New Market on Fergus, wil

TO
FOR Three Lives, the Ho near Kilkishin. The Acres including five Acres o
can be given.
Apply to THOMAS STUD Bridge.

Billowville, M
TO BE SOLD, the int