

...; he pursued them for about 200
 ... to throw at him; he was obliged to give over; they then loaded
 ... their guns, and went off; he saw prisoner about ten days
 ... afterwards; had observed that man, when running away,
 ... and a sore leg.
 Cross examined—Prisoner was brought a second time to
 ...; not to rectify any mistake with respect to identification,
 ... he knew him at first.

Dr. Dempster sworn—Attended Mr. Purvis—his wounds
 ... were inflicted by a gun loaded with slugs and small balls—one
 ... all entered near the hip joint, and went down to femoral
 ... artery.
 Captain Duff sworn—Produced a letter which was given ... him by Mr. Purvis—it is of a most threatening nature, and ... signed Capt. W. Terry—arrested prisoner from private infor... mation—saw the man's legs, which appeared to be infected ... with scurvy—brought him with another to Mr. Purvis, who ... pointed out prisoner as the person who had the gun,
 ... On part of the defence, two witnesses were produced to ... prove an alibi, when the jury, after being charged by his ... Lordship, retired for a short time, and found the prisoner
 ... guilty—sentenced not passed.

COUNTY GALWAY GRAND JURY.—John Cheevers, Esq.
 Foreman; Thomas B. Martin, M. P., Lord Viscount Dunlo, Hon. Thomas French, Sir Valentine Blake, Bart., Sir John Burke, Bart., Robert D'Arcy, Thomas N. Redington, Joseph Burke, Michael Dillon Bellew, Andrew Blake, R. I. M. St.

The Rev. Mr. Nolan will preach in the Franciscan Chapel, on to-morrow evening, at 7 o'clock. From the anxiety already manifested to hear this able and learned divine, it is, we understand, contemplated, in order that the Chapel should not be overcrowded, to require Silver from all persons entering by the Sanctuary and Gallery doors. The receipts are intended for the use of the Chapel.
 The Rev. J. Brahan acknowledges to have received £1 from Thomas and Paul Fogarty, Esqrs. for the Nunnery books. He has also received 10s. from James Meagher, Mrs. Russell, and 5s. from J. Goggin, for same purpose.
 Subscriptions will be thankfully received towards providing a comfortable meat dinner for the numerous inmates of the House of Industry, on Easter Sunday. It is hoped the liberality of the public will be evinced on this occasion, and that the usual benefactors of the Charity will not forget this extensive and highly useful House of Refuge. Donations will be gratefully received by the House Steward.

In Monsieur Huguenin's advertisement of last Saturday, read:—One of them (speaking of his gymnastic pupils' improvement,) in the interval of six months, has expanded seven inches round the chest, and decreased two inches and a half in the waist.
