

King's Counsel, will succeed him.

Sum required to defray the charge of the Vice-Treasurer and Teller of the Exchequer, for the Year ending 31st March next. £6,300. Thomas F. E. Kennedy, Esq. has been appointed head of this department:—Regium Donum £27,348; Criminal Prosecutions £60,900; Public Works £3,591; Townland Survey £7,000; Railway Commission £5,000.

The Galway Commissioners have appointed a deputation to communicate with the Board of Works, Dublin, for a further loan to complete the Docks and Quays of that port. The original loan was £17,000.

Francis Leigh, Esq. High Sheriff of Wexford, has refused conveying a radical meeting, for an address to his Majesty to retain Ministers in office.

Lord Chancellor Plunkett, at the instigation of the Castle, has superseded R. Mansergh St. George, Esq. of Headford, in the commission of the peace for the county of Galway, because that highly respected and influential gentleman had protested against Mr. Crofton, a stipendiary, being ordered to assume the functions of the local magistrates, in a district whose tranquility is undisturbed. Mr. St. George had been 23 years in the commission.

John Archer Blake, Esq. son of Colonel Blake of Furbo, Galway, has assumed the name of Daly, under the will of his grand uncle, Hyacinth Daly, Esq. late of Radford, in that county.

Dr. Baldwin, M.P. declares he will oppose the return of Mr. G. Standish Barry for the County Cork next election, as that gentleman and Mr. Callaghan had absented themselves from Parliament on the Canada resolutions.

There is to be a fancy dress ball at the Assembly-rooms, Waterford, the 24th instant, in honor of the Princess Victoria's birth-day.

Matthew Barrington, Esq. has planted on his estate, Glenstal, in this County, 537,700 trees, commencing January 1822; and Daniel Barrington, Esq. on his estate Seragen, County Tipperary, 199,950 trees, commencing November 1831.

Committee of Merchants to regulate the Butter Trade of Cork the ensuing year:—Samuel Lane, Edmond Gould, Thomas Handy, Robert Carr, John Burke, James Morgan, J. Hodder, Wm. J. Shaw, Reuben Deaves, George Wheatley, Robert Honan, James Murray, and Patrick Kelly. The following were elected by the Agricultural Association to represent the Farming interests in the Committee of Merchants, for the next year:—Charles Colthurst, Clonmoyle; Colonel Burke, Prospect Villa; George Bond Lowe, Clogher; W. L. Shuldham, Dunmanway; and W. C. Collis, Castle Cooke, Esq.

The King's Bench has confirmed with costs the original verdict in Gray v. Scovells, the custom house fire.

The committees of the Synod of Ulster and the Secession Synod, have prohibited the students in the Belfast Institution attending during the presidency of Mr. Professor Ferrie, who is an Unitarian.

Dutch flaxseed has advanced to 80s. per hhd. in the north of Ireland.

The New Post Office in Cork, is to be on the Grand Parade, where the Corporation give a free site.

Eighteen prisoners have been committed to Tralee jail from the Listowel Quarter Sessions, the greater number for rescue of goods seized under civil bill decrees for non-payment of tythes.

The Tipperary Protestant Orphan Society are to elect, early next month, several more youthful candidates on that establishment.

Meetings in support of the Kerry branches of the Bible Society, were held at Tralee, Milltown, and Killarney, on Friday and Monday.

The next Quarter Sessions for the county Clare commence at Killaloe, for the first time, the 16th of June.

The Police Office on Monday presented thirty-six men, women, and children, all charged with various breaches of the law. Eight were fined 5s. each, and seven in the sum of 2s. 6d. for being drunk and disorderly. Informations were ordered against Ellen Collins, for stripping a child, and pawn- ing the clothes. Two fellows, named O'Brien and Russell, were fined 1s. each, for annoying Gallagher, a watchman, while in the discharge of his duty. Patrick Sullivan and James Maher were fined 5s. each, for rioting and drunkenness; and Henry M'Mahon, Denis Kennedy, Henry Keating, and Michael Connors, 2s. 6d. each, for similar offences of a minor nature.

Mr. Hertman's Concert on Monday evening, for the poor of the city, was well attended, and the sum paid for tickets, of course, very desirable.

of a daughter.

At Widey Court, Devonshire, the Lady of Captain T. R. Baker, Esq. of the 7th Royal Fusileers, of a daughter.

At Holmwood, Berkshire, the Countess of Antrim, of a daughter.

At Reading, the Lady of Major Champain, of a daughter.

At New Cross the Lady of F. A. Geary, Esq. of a son.

At the Duke of Bedford's, Belgrave-square, the Lady Wriotheshy Russell, of a daughter.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, in Upper William-street, Captain John Holahan, of the Revenue Police, and formerly Lieutenant in the Berkshire Militia. His death is a severe loss to an amiable wife and children.

At Six-mile-bridge, Mr. Lawrence Guerin, Local Inspector of the Hibernian Society's Schools, aged 69.

On the 3d inst. at her residence, at Shally, suddenly, Mrs. Eliza O'Meara, relict of the late Cornelius O'Meara, Esq. in the full possession of all her faculties, in the 88th year of her age. Her kindness of heart, urbanity of manners, and genuine hospitality, gained her the esteem and affection of a large and respectable circle of acquaintance, while her charity endeared her to the poor of her neighbourhood who now deplore her loss.

Samuel Perry, Esq. youngest son of Samuel R. Perry, Esq. Cork.

At Loughrea, of fever, the Rev. Mr. Coen.

At Thurles, Captain Lax, 34th Regt.

After a few day's illness, to the inexpressible grief of his parents James Dawson Tarlton, aged four years, the only child of J. Tarlton, Esq. Manager of the Agricultural Bank, Cork.

At Doctor Pitcairn's house, South Mall, Cork, Lieut. Henry Augustus West, of the 12th Foot, in the 30th year of his age, late commanding the Kilkenny recruiting district.

In Bishop-street, Dublin, Mrs. Mary Egan, aged 80 years.

Saturday evening, at her residence, John's Hill, Waterford, Miss Susanna Firth, a highly respectable member of the Society of Friends.

At Killarney, of fever, John O'Doherty, Esq. proprietor of the brewery of that town.

At Upper Ormond Quay, Dublin, of fever, James C. Murphy, son of Surgeon Murphy, Carrigmacross.

At Fermoy, in the prime of life, after a few days illness, the Rev. George Gun Collis.

Harriet, wife of Mr. Benjamin Poyntz, of Grafton-street, Dublin.

At her house, in Charlemont-street, Mrs. M. A. Burrowes, in her 75th year.

Sarah Eliza, youngest daughter of John Heron, Esq. Belfast.

James Somerville, Esq. of Loughsheelan, county Meath, uncle to Sir Wm. M. Somerville, Bart.

Of decline, at the house of his brother, Mr. Daniel Wilson, Thomas-town, near Enniskillen, Lieut. John Wilson, Revenue Police, aged 30 years.

Mary Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Doctor Benson, York-street, Dublin.

At his house, in Fermoy, on Thursday, of fever, Doctor Butler.

At Rathfriland, Charles Cadell, Esq. solicitor.

Edward Howley, of Ella, county Mayo, Esq.

At Sandymount, Miss Frances Armstrong.

Thursday, at his seat, Castlough, co. Tipperary, in the 68th year of his age, Anthony Parker, Esq; a gentleman of the most estimable qualities in private life, which won the esteem and affection of many highly respectable friends, and the grateful regard of his tenantry.

Saturday, at Castle Hewson, in this county, aged 82, Mary, relict of the late John Hewson, Esq. a Lady deeply lamented. Her remains will be interred on Tuesday, in the family vault at Askeaton.

At his mother's residence, Great Britain-street, Dublin, Mr. John Price.

At Rathkeale, on Wednesday, Michael Bowman, Esq. late of Mount Southwell.

In Holles-street, Dublin, William, the son of E. H. Hatchell, Esq.

Thomas, only son of Arthur J. Kelly, Esq. of Armagh.

In Cork, Lieutenant Edward Gardiner, 69th Regiment.

At Rathleague, near Maryborough, Mr. Francis Campion.

In Kilkenny, Mr. Edmond Madden, Hardware Merchant.

At Chichester, Sarah, wife of Thomas Rhoades, Esq.

Of typhus fever, the Rev. Thomas Robison, for 22 years Roman Catholic priest of St. Peter's Chapel, Liverpool.

At Cantley, Yorkshire, Leonard, eldest son of John Walbank Childers, Esq. M. P.

At Madras, Eliza Sophia, eldest daughter of Major Whannell, D.A.G.

At the Rectory, Warlingham, Surrey, Edward Henry Dalton, Esq. late Post-Master of British Guiana.

In Cold Harbour-road, Camberwell, Francis Deacon, Esq.

At Worksey, Nottinghamshire, of hooping cough, Sophia, daughter of Charles Bailey, Esq. of the Royal Engineers.

At Kilmarnock, the Rev. Robert Whyte.

At Glasgow, Mr. Alston Somerville, Printer.

At Nassau, New Providence, George Birrelli, Esq. Attorney-General for the Bahama Islands, formerly Attorney-General for St. Lucia, and a Member of His Majesty's Privy Council.

At Paris, Anna Jane, eldest daughter of the late Hon. A. Cochrane, Captain, R. N.

At Mortlake, Surrey, Henrietta Maria, wife of John Scott, Esq. M.D. and only daughter of the late J. P. Boileau, Esq.

At Amsterdam, M. L. Schooff, Esq. late of His Majesty's 54th Regt. Lieutenant-Colonel George Henry Mason, half pay 102d Regiment.

At Titchfield, Mrs. Caroline Vans, relict of Lieutenant Samuel Barrington Vans, R. N.

Suddenly, at Loughbrickland, Francis Armstrong, Esq. formerly Ordnance Storekeeper, Heligoland, and Deputy Receiver General for Droits of Admiralty for same Island and Hanover.

At Boulogne, S. Cuming, Esq. Assistant Commissary General to the Forces.

At Lisieux, in France, A. Vincent Benard, Esq. Sergeant-Porter to the King, in his 74th year.

At Bath, Lieut. Novosielski, R. N.

In London-street, Frenchchurch-street, Mr. Jose Maria de Silva, a native of Portugal, late of St. Helen's Place.

At Kernaul, East Indies, Eliza, wife of Captain and Paymaster Carew, 13th Light Infantry.

At Sydney, New South Wales, William Edward Riley, Esq.

and Laying Pleasure Gro

The Advertiser is a family consists of a wife a week or so only. If n Dublin. Any command at WILLIAM ABRAHAM be duly attended to.

Court of

SIR,—We Hereby rec a Meeting of the Co to 4th Geo. IV, chap. 12 ing a fit and proper p from among the Reside Common Speaker, in th Westropp, Esq. deceas Court of D'Oyer Hundre Limerick, Dated th

To Edward Parker, Esq. Town Clerk.

In compliance with MEETING of the FR the CITY COURT HOUS instant, at Noon, for th Dated this 8th day of ED May 10.

Steer

SAIL for the underm Steam Packet Office without Pilots, and with The intended times o under:—

From Custom-House bag from the Post Office JUNO, Captain Moriart Friday... 12th Ma Tuesday... 16th .. Friday... 19th .. Tuesday... 23d .. Friday... 26th .. Tuesday... 30th .. Return from Brist For CORK, the Tuesday... 16th Ma Tuesday.... 23d .. Tuesday.... 30th .. Returns fr

For GREENOCK and the Post, Office) the JUP Wednesday.. 17th M Wednesday.. 24th Wednesday.. 31st Returns from

For DOUGLAS (Isle EARL OF LONSDALE Wednesday.. 17th Wednesday.. 24th Wednesday.. 31st Returns from Whitehaven

From Kingstown Pier, half-past Five o'clock, COMET, DOLPHIN, a A Train leaves the R half-past 4 o'clock, to cor Carriages, Horses, and should be at the Packet General Steam Packet Any Goods or Parc at this Office, will be f Steam Packets, or other e

To Cover M

AT BALLINVIRA, n Limerick, the celebr SANTON. Gentlemen's One Guinea, and Half a C SANTON is a dark b hands high, has beautifu equal to 16 stone, without black legs, and not one wh

Office of Ordnance,

Dublin, 24th April, 1837.