Tuesday, at his residence, Newtown Mahon, Captain John Holohan, Sub-Inspector, Revenue Police. He was one of the oldest Officers in that service. His zeal and exertions in the discharge of the various and responsible duties for over twenty-one years, merit the favorable consideration of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, on behalf of his afflicted widow and family, his death having been occasioned by the rupture of a blood vessel, while on duty in Cashel. He leaves a wife and eight children to deplore his irreparable loss.

In Dublin, deservedly regretted, Nicholas Mahon, Esq. late of this city, and son of the late Thomas Mahon, Esq.
