

county, towards the Chronicle.
 irr, May 17, 1837.
 Rev. William Crotty a discourse on the his Congregation were expected to hear a e, they had to listen to church of England, and ristianlike language ;
 say, that it would be a justice to the Church of such a fashion against same, in order that of the man. The Rev.
 e manner in which the Almighty, upon the but said he, times are to bestow the gift of Ordination and Confirmations, and saying, receive giving a slap on the desired his congregation form them, that it was worthy, as well as of the could be more absurd in they could command the id fly away Jack, come scribe how nearly allied Church of Rome, but following anecdote :—
 of Friends, (you know was silent for a consi-friends stood up and marriage between the of Rome, if any friend wo churches should not now declare it, or for friend immediately stood are too near a kin, and until you first receive a to do so. At the aftereeded—How could the l be said to be the folwere living on the poor om them in blood, and s on human flesh ; and ters were worse than the thers had also a share
 the Church of England William Crotty, when ty God to forgive their s, and to change their am, &c.
 A PROTESTANT.
 far different is the con-en preaching to his peo-terms of the ministers

At the residence of her brother-in-law, Doctor Corrigan, Merrion-square, Dublin, Henry Greene, Esq. Courthill, county of Meath, to Fanny, daughter of the late William Woodlock, Esq.

In Drogheda, Mr. William Myles, to Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. John M'Cron.

At Passage Church, Charles Coakley Bunworth, Esq. county Waterford, to Maria A. Duggan, eldest daughter of Mr. John Duggan, Kinsale.

At Ballisakeery Church, county Mayo, Andrew Hamilton, of Ballintra House, county Donegal, Esq. to Anna, daughter of the late John Perkins, of Ballybronny, county Mayo, Esq.

At the Private Chapel of the Brazilian Minister, in Lisbon, and afterwards at the British Protestant Chapel, M. Alvaro Teixeira de Macedo, Secretary of the Brazilian Legation at the Court of London, to Anna, second daughter of Robert Lucas, Esq. of Lisbon.

At Prestwich Church, James Fitzmaurice Scott, Esq. of Commieston, Kincardineshire, to Fanny, eldest daughter of Thomas Drinkwater, Esq. Irwell House, Prestwich.

DEATHS.

In London, Lieutenant George Greene, 37th Regiment, son-in-law of John Westropp, Esq. of Attyflin, in this county, a young gentleman beloved and regretted by his brother-officers, while to others more intimately connected, his premature death is the source of heavy affliction.

At Killaloe, Henry Jackson, the son of Captain White, of the Kingstown Steamer, of this port.

In Coolony-street, Mr. Edward O'Brien, victualler.

In Mary-street, of fever, Mrs. Mary Hehir, wife of Mr. Patrick Hehir, master tailor.

Wednesday, in Mary-street, after a tedious illness, which she bore with that pious resignation which alone proceeds from the love of Christ, Susanna, widow of the late Mr. Thomas Hewett, boot-maker.

Edward Drought, Esq. M. D. Frankford, King's County.

At his residence, Rockview, county Cork, James Fitzgerald, Esq.

At Tuam, Lucinda, daughter of James Comber, Esq. Surveyor of Excise.

In Londonderry, M. Perois, a native of Paris, and professor of music and dancing.

At Rathview, near Mallow, in the 19th year of her age, Henrietta, second daughter of Thomas Harris, Esq.

At Market-street, Cork, Guilford Thomas Dudley.

At Burrow, near Omagh, Wm. Henry Maxwell, Esq. Lieutenant half pay 72d Regiment.

In Gloucester-street, Dublin, of typhus fever, Harriet, wife of D. Bastable, Esq.

At Fethard, Henry Hewetson, Esq. M. D.

Thomas M'Donald, Esq. of Mecklenburgh-street, Dublin.

At Dundalk, Eliza, daughter of Mr. John Scott.

At Freshford, Michael, second son of Mr. Jeremiah Scully.

In Mount Pleasant, John Bury, Esq.

Thomas Brandram, son of the late John George, Esq. of Thornhill, county of Dublin.

In Merrion-Square, at an advanced age, Mrs. Farrell, widow of the late James Farrell, Esq.

In Jamaica, in his tenth year, of three days fever, Richard Welsh, eldest son of Arthur Welsh, Esq. R. N. Stipendiary Magistrate.

At Trinidad, John Shine, Esq.

At Paris, the son of Michael Keogh, Esq. of Crumlin House, county Dublin.

In New Burlington-street, London, the Dowager Lady Bellew, of Barmeath, in her 76th year.

In Cadogan-place, Belgrave-square, Ann, the widow of the late James Williamson, M. D. Staff Surgeon to the British Forces.

Mr. George Caldecott, of the Bank of England.

In London, Eliza, wife of William Grome, Esq. late of Sycamore Hill, county Galway.

At Ryde, aged 18, Mary Ann Susan, eldest daughter of Lieutenant Colonel C. Johnson.

At Paris, H. W. Spencer, late Staff Assistant Surgeon to the British Legion at St. Sebastian.

MUNSTER GENERAL ANNUITY ENDOWMENT ASSOCIATION,
No. 9, WILLIAM-STREET.
 INSTITUTED AND ENROLLED UNDER ACT OF PARLIAMENT, 10th GEO. IV. C. 56, AND 4 AND 5 WILLIAM IV. C. 40.

maker ; the ad
 in possession o in Hartstonge-
 and Seven n Hutchins, all i
 To those ac
 perty, it is ne the increase of The premise of ground held ever, from the 25th of March on fall of each His present including the levers, before a year, amount
 It is propo
 the purchaser, Rent to which
 and like Fines Interest as to payment of th
 time, that it £280, before secured in suc
 a fee simple p
 For further
 JOHN SHEE
 or 34, South
 MARSHALL

CONTRACT
 Year, fr
 Proposals w
 Majesty's Ord
 the 1st of Ju DLES, for hi
 The Propos
 tained either o'Clock, or o several station
 The Tender officers, his the outside
 " Quarte
 Division of R
 " Quarte
 Division of Suitors ar service twelv Sessions, in pounds Irish