

tin Burke, Shelburne, the plaintiff to the Mas- restrain the defendant an assault. The ap- by plaintiff, for disco- behalf, in the suit at the defendant in this cessary to procure the defend said suit. The swer same, and for an His Honour granted tinue until the defen- were in debt £172 to prisoners found guilty e Queen's County is himself, to the Associ- nily. Tyquin was an rest, amongst the pea- bers of his family also on R. Westenra, and n; Col. Westenra and £5 each. atmal has arrived at ne pu pose of cheapen- r the relief of the poor. ected. was received into the Friday next, there are or Rathkeale Sessions, Sessions, the 24th inst. s entered for Kenmare h instant, 13 notices of the Peace. ofin Church to-morrow, unds of the Protestant and Clare Protestant dges the receipt of 17. re. st the the villagers of uesterfield, with charac- of the sufferers. The number of fune- rming. in Belfast. vertisement, in another istinguished Optician, has 's professional abilities ty of his Spectacles so ublic should be aware of next FRIDAY, as an in- afforded them by imme-

Ditto, Scrip	50	20	20	5
Patricic Assurance Company	100	10
National Assurance Company	250	25		31
Hibernian Bank.....	100	25		22 10

BIRTHS.

At Kingstown, the Lady of E. R. Handcock, Esq. of a son.
 At the Priory of Gallen, the Lady of Andrew Armstrong, Esq, of a daughter.
 At Sallyville, Clonlara, the Lady of John Gabbett Wilson, Esq. of a daughter.
 At Plymouth, the Lady of Charles Bowen, Esq. of a daughter.
 At Woodside, Plymouth, the Lady of Captain R. Dickenson, C. B: Royal Navy, of a son.
 At Bayswater, the Lady of A. D. Gordon, Esq. formerly of the Bengal Army, of a daughter.

DEATHS.

In Ellen-street, John, only son of the late Mr. Jeremiah Hedigan, of this city, baker.
 Mr. Terence O'Brien, of Boherbuoy, chandler.
 In Miltown, Kerry, at an advanced age, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Herbert Raymond.
 The Rev. James Corcoran, of Wicklow, Diocesan Schoolmaster of Dublin and Glandelagh.
 Mr. Arthur Ledwich, Printer, aged 90, being the oldest member of the profession in Dublin. He had been an inmate of the Printer's Old Men's Asylum since the formation of that benevolent Institution.
 In Maryborough, of meazles, John Leech, youngest son of Henry W. Talbot, Esq. proprietor of the Leinster Express.
 Mr. Andrew O'Ferrall, of Thomas-street, Dublin, in the 80th year of his age.
 At Lakeview, county Westmeath, William Smyth, Esq. third son of the late Thomas Hutchinson Smyth, Esq. of Benison Lodge.
 At Carrickmacross, the Rev. Patrick Connor, C. C. of a malignant fever.
 Anne, daughter of Mr. Patrick Bonrke, architect, of Derry.
 At his residence, in Baggot-st. Dublin, Joseph Thomas Kane, Esq. Elizabeth, relict of Hugh Boyle, Esq. and daughter of the late John Sheil, of Castle Dawson, in the county of Londonderry, Esq.
 At Kilmainham Hospital, Charles Dresing, Esq. of the late 10th Royal Veteran Battalion.
 Friday, at Rosmanaher, county Clare, Mr. Thomas Frost, a respectable farmer, at the advanced age of 84 years.
 In Athlone, the Rev. Terence O'Neil, late Parish Priest of Kiltoom.
 At Checkerhill, county Roscommon, at an advanced age, Miss Roper.
 Mrs. Margaret Nugent, of Pill-lane, Dublin.
 In Waterford, James Hutchinson Morris, Esq.
 In Clonmell, William Markham, Esq.
 In Sackville-street, Dublin, of fever, Robert C. Gwydir, Esq. of Thurles, Medical Student.
 At Castlewellan, Devonshire, Hibbert Newton, son of Captain R. Binney, late of the 4th Regt.
 At Edinburgh, Sir Patrick Murray, of Ochtertyre, Bart. Sir Patrick was a Baron of Exchequer, and elder brother of Sir George Murray.
 In Gloucester-place, Portman-square, the Rev. Edward Bradford, Rector of Stalbridge, Dorset, aged 84.
 At Bath, Mrs. Major Wilson, late of Roseville, county Wexford.
 At Newcastle, Bridgend, Glamorganshire, Richard Price Williams, Esq. late Superintending Surgeon on the Bengal Establishment.
 In Upper Seymour-street, London, Ellen, wife of J. T. Hope, Esq. only child of the late Sir T. Edwardes, Bart. Greete, Salop.
 At Chelsea, aged 16, Francis, second son of the Rev. M. Preston, Vicar of Cheshunt, Herts.
 In Gloucester-place, Portman-square, Sophia, relict of R. Chicheley Plowden, Esq. of Calcutta.
 At Cheltenham, Mary, relict of Captain Peter Hunt, R. N.
 At the Vicarage, Middleton, Lynn, Norfolk, of rupture of a blood-vessel in the lungs, Anne, daughter of the Very Rev. Dean of Middleham and Mrs, Peter Wood.
 At Mostyn, Mr. Charles Berry, superintendent of the Liverpool Police—late of the London Police.
 At Ashton-under-Lyne, Mr. George Williamson, late Agent to the West of England Office.
 In his 79th year, Peter Rhodes, Esq. of Park-place, Leeds.

To those acc- perty, it is ne- the increase of The premise of ground held ever, from the 25th of March on fall of each His present including the levers, before a year, amount It is propo- the purchaser, Rent to which and like Fines Interest as to payment of the time, that it £280, before n secured in suc a fee simple pu For further JOHN SHEE or 34, South MARSHALL, TO DOCTO TO THE OR RECTOR GENTLEM attention interested, thr shameful, disg Ground and Water Works, the Cholera ti about it, yet n It is sufficie burials take pl about Limeric Jails, Asylum, to admit all s any surface to sents a shock totally un-ent with a medica rous in a thick I proposed submit again the Rector of the subject, bu to remedy the the Glebe and formed me,) n Thomas-str