

DEATHS.

On Friday, Mr. James Ryan, of Pallas Kenry, late Post Master of that town.

On Sunday, of a malignant fever, caught in the discharge of ministerial duty, the Rev. John Johnson, Rector of Killingley, Cork.

At Shepherd's Bush, near London, Colonel Joshua Edward Cooper, of Markree Castle, county Sligo, aged 75.—He was Colonel of the Sligo Militia, and many years a Member for that county in Parliament.

At Fermoy, of brain fever, Henry Bevan Sherlock, Esq.

At Bristol, where he had gone for the benefit of his health, the Rev. Hugh Louis Fitzgerald, Rector of Ferbane, in the King's county, and Diocese of Meath.

On Saturday, at Skibbereen, of typhus fever, Helena, the only surviving daughter of the late Wm. Clerke, Esq. of Clover Hill Mills.

In Cornwallis-street, Mr. Patrick M'Namara, master cooper.

In Boherbuoy, Mr. James Egan, builder.

At Upper Pembroke-street, Dublin, Henry John Mulville, M.D. late of Limerick.

From the effects of a kick he received from his horse, Thomas Ferrar, Esq. M. D. of Sligo.

In Harcourt-street, Dublin, Charlotte, wife of Jonathan Osborne, M. D.

At Tulla, county Clare, Mr. John Ryan.

At Murlough, Derry, Martha, wife of Robert S. Knox, Esq.

In Derry, Mr. Thomas Patterson, Innkeeper.

In South Anne-street, Dublin, Miss Helen Marr.

In Tuam, William Kelly, Esq. M. D.

At Newtown Park, near Dublin, Mrs. Shaw, wife of Thomas Shaw, Esq. of Kilree, county Kilkenny.

William Brydges Neynoe, Esq. third son of the late Colonel Neynoe, of Castle Neynoe, county of Sligo.

Margarette, relict of the late John Warren, Esq. of Ballyaville, King's county.

Mr. John Connolly, watchmaker, Camden-street, Dublin.

Margaret, daughter of Mr. William Emerson, of Belfast.

At Belfast, Mr. Alexander Patterson, late Serjeant in the Enniskillen Dragoons.

In Kilkenny, Miss Anne Comerford.

Mrs. John Dodd, Inns-quay, Dublin.

In Harcourt-street, Charlotte, wife of Jonathan Osborne, M. D.

In Waterford, Mr. John Foster; and Mr. Edmond Doyle, teacher.

At Brighton, Miss Lucen Jeffrey, sister to the late Duke of Grafton, aged 87.

In Stratford Place, Frances, daughter of the late Colonel G. Hotham, of York.

At Westmoreland, New-South Wales, Elizabeth, widow of Vincent Dowling, Esq. and mother of Judge Dowling of that Colony.

At Glasgow, Mr. John Maddock, Excise officer.

At Edinburgh, of measles, George C. Davison, only surviving son of the late Rev. Kilner Davison, of Newtown Forbes, co. Longford.

At Newcastle, Lieutenant-Colonel T. P. Ainslie, of the 60th Foot.

At Newfield, Johnstone, N.B. John Pinkerton, Esq. surgeon.

At Pershore, aged 75, John Davidson, Esq. of Cork-street, Burlington Gardens, London, the father of the late enterprising African traveller.

At Walthamstow, Anne, relict of Mr. T. Smith, late of Waddington, near Lincoln.

Aged 46, Miss Jane Charlotte Dewar, only daughter of the late D. Dewar, Esq. and granddaughter of the late General Matthews.

At San Sebastian, Sarah, wife of John Callander, Esq. Medical Inspector-General of the British Legion.

At Charlton Place, Islington, aged 70, Mr. George Tomkins, of the Bank of England.

At Versailles, Jane, eldest daughter of the late John Corneille, Esq. of Meath, and niece of the late Sir Charles M. Ormsby, Bart.

At Portsmouth, Matilda, wife of Dr. M' Munn, Surgeon 88th Regt.

At Pathfield, Lieutenant and Paymaster J. Dougall, Stirlingshire Militia.

At Chelsea, Wm. Hemming, Esq. aged 79 years, many years Principal Accountant in the Old Barrack Department.

At Guernsey, James Campbell Barton, Esq. late Captain 87th Regt. Suddenly, at Rothsay, William Gillies, Esq. merchant, aged 78.

Suddenly, at Glasgow, Captain John Bishop, of the brig Speculator of London.

round and home. H or prize to carry 5
 never won, to be al
 4 subscribers or no

Stakes of 3 sovs.

to be entered on Satu
 be weighted by the St same night. Three s

THIRD DAY

Sweepstakes of 5 s
 Horses admitted, to b
 Stewards or those v
 Heats. 4 subscriber
 be entered on Monda

Stakes of 3 sovs. 3
 property of Freehold holders of the Town
 required. 3 yrs old,
 6 yrs old and aged, 9
 Mile Heats.

FOURTH DAY

Stakes of 5 sovs.
 horses that ran at Stewards, or those v
 fore. Mile and a ha

Stakes of 2 sovs. e hacks that have neve value—8st 7lb each.
 be sold for 30 sovs if after the race. Seco

King's Plate Ar
 Upon entering each declared to the Clerk
 in any other colour, of 2l. and upwards to added—all others do
 be given for a hor
 elude this article wil
 pay 1 sov. for scales
 Horses to be entered Course, paying 5s. e to such regulations a decision is to be fina for any race. whose not paid in full. In who gives unnessa
 from riding again du post each day precis

John Macdonnell
 Andrew Finucane
 Francis Macnama
 Poole Hickman,
 Augustine Butler