

to adjourn the
of the opposite
by adjourning Freemen—all
ourt was full of
a fact incon-
who insisted on
ing the poll,
sful candidate.
up your time
circumstances;
ort, nor will I n who could be
you the law in Speaker, when oved of by the wise he cannot ty of the Free-
s such his Lord-Speaker. But
Mr. Gloster or e situation, or al, they have a arranto in the going legally to Gloster's claim,
er election.
and the day to a poll be now
en, as to whom his created some erved that Her Services to Pro-ar, hear.)—and n due fealty and erman Crips as e proceedings of
, which had the mediately after
d the great body
ll dress, bearing waited upon the
th a complimen-
e most anxious or received them e and expressive compliment paid
said, it would be I again thank
in a body upon believe I may add
t only to the
ass of my fel-
to the gentle-
y of Limerick,

At the Water Course, Cork, the Lady of James Adams, Esq. of a son.
Thursday last, at Killaloe, the Lady of Captain James Campbell, 87th, or Royal Irish Fusileers, of a son.
At Downstown Castle, county Meath, the Lady of Thomas L. Roberts, Esq. of a daughter.
In Richmond-street, Mountjoy square, Dublin, the Lady of William Buchanan, Esq. of a son.
At Wellington-quay, Dublin, the Lady of Andrew Gill, Esq. of a daughter.
In Park-street, Westminster, the Lady Emily Pusey, of a daughter, who survived only a few hours.
The Lady of Sir William Scott, Bart. of a daughter.
At Nice, the Lady of Sir James Fitzgerald, Bart. of a son.
At Harrowgate, the Lady of Captain Ross, R. N. of Otterington Hall, of a daughter.

DEATHS.

On Thursday morning, at his country residence, Landscape, Doonas, Patrick William Creagh, Esq. of this City, a gentleman whose high moral worth and estimable character, in every relation of life, have left an impression not soon to be effaced from the mind of his fellow-citizens.
At his house, in Lower Mount street, Dublin, on Sunday last, Thomas Costello, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, son-in-law to John Wickham, Esq. of Maduboy House, in this county. Mr. Costello was a Gentleman possessed of the most honorable and amiable qualities, and is deeply regretted by his highly respectable connections and friends.
At Westport, George M. Higgins, Esq. a Magistrate the of county Mayo.
At Rockbrook, county Kilkenny, Isabella, daughter of the late H. Ellis, Esq.
At Jerpoint, county Kilkenny, William Henry Hunt, Esq.
At Roscrea, Doctor Delany.
In Dublin, Eliza, daughter of Charles Kennedy, Esq. aged 19 years.
At Danville, near Kilkenny, Eliza, daughter of the Rev. John Alcock.
In York-street, Dublin, Catherine Anna Maria, daughter of Doctor Benson, aged eight years.
Elinor H. eldest daughter of the late H. Ransford, Esq. of Mountview, Cullenswood.
At Canning-place, Passage, Ellen, relict of the late Walter Hussey Litton, Esq. of Cork.
On Thursday, at Fermoy, of fever, Mr. Thomas Tinsley.
At Roundtown, Miss Eliza Harman.
At Braganza-house, Carlow, the Rev. Patrick Kelly, Roman Catholic Curate of that parish.
Sarah Deborah, the wife of the Rev. Henry Rochfort.
In Dorset-street, Dublin, Thomas Berry, Esq. only son of the late John Berry, Esq. of Cloneen, King's county.
At his lodgings, in Marlborough-street, Dublin, John Scott, Esq. Solicitor.
At Lurgan, Major-General Robert Stewart; late of the Royal Irish Artillery.
At Furnige, near Listowel, William Harnett, Esq. a magistrate of Kerry.
Of malignant fever, after three days illness, Daniel Lonergan, Esq. T.C.D.
In Whitehall Place, Eliza Maria, wife of Mr. Sergeant Merewether.
At Chase Side, Enfield, Joseph Seward, Esq. in his 78th year.
At Little Green, Sussex, aged 82, Mary, widow of Colonel H. Yorke, R. A. having survived her sister, the late Mrs. H. Phipps, but nine days.
In Dorset Gardens, Brighton, Robert Anderson, Esq. M. D. aged 73.
At Inverness, Dr. Macdonald.
At Paris, in his 36th year, Mr. Charles Carroll Harpur, of Baltimore, (United States,) the grandson of the late Charles Carroll, of Carlton.
In Bryanston-street, Portman-square, London, Margaret, wife of the Rev. Tretusis Lovell.
In Upper Wimpole-street, London, in her 17th year, Anne, daughter of Colonel Goldnich, C. B.
At Neemuch, India, T. D. Steuart, Col. of the 1st Regt. of Cavalry, P.I.C.S. Bengal.

that a large
this day direct from several new and be Dining-rooms; h
B
T
K
D
S
Also, a variety
unseen in this Ci
moderate prices fo
PERSONS furn
variety of Goods a Prime Goose Feat

TO PAID
THERE is at respectable c Articled Pupil in Dublin, attended
treated in every r
advantages highly may be desirous of
cated as a Finishin
To save trouble,
to whom the above Letters (post-p directed K. Z. at Dublin, will be at

Limer
THE MANAG
take Notice
GEARY, sen. the
postponed till furt

July 1.

FOR a Term
Possession
NENAGH, in wh
the Out Offices, Y
House since it wa
put into a state o
good and conven
five Horses. Th
and the entire f
private family.
Apply to Mr.
show the Premise