

...howed. The compulsory emigration of the King of Prussia. A bill has been sent to Vienna, to nego-

...nt members, have commenced an election.

...er was held in the evening, for the respect to their late... The Fourth. The... with black. The... in language... to the melan-... Grand Chaplain... character of our late

...net on Wednesday Dawson-street, and... and Hamilton at... will do likewise. ... afternoon, in the... a short distance, ... Island and the

...alous jobs of the Radical friends in... place. The one was... Dublin and Cork. By... the Trades' Union's...; and that of Mr. ... other had for its... Bill with respect to... rates and taxes... these jobs have got

...ctors of Calne. ... indisposition, whilst... on Thursday last. ... ourn the Court at... bled him copiously. ... s contributed £200... sences of Mr. Emer-... of that gentleman's... e trading interests. ... isnaskea, from the... pped down in the... d immediately; the... owing morning. ... alled on the Provost... of learning why that... vestiture on the eve... ghrim.

RONICLE.

retirement. Majors and Captains down to Capt. Ferguson are to be promoted to be Lieut.-Colonels. First Lieutenants down to Hugh Evans to be Captains. Second Lieutenants down to Joseph Oates Travers to be First Lieutenants. Colonel George Lewis is appointed Col. Commandant, and Lieut.-Colonel Bevians second in command, at Portsmouth.

CHATHAM APPOINTMENTS.—To be Colonel and Commandant—Lieut.-Colonel Lawrence. To be Colonel and Second Commandant—Lieut.-Colonel Conolly, from Woolwich. To be Lieutenant Colonels Majors Sir F. G. G. Lee and Mercer. RETIREMENTS—Colonel Tremenheere, Lieut.-Colonel Wolrige, Captains Hay, H. Moore, Webb, Pepyatt, and James.

WOOLWICH APPOINTMENTS.—To be Lieut.-Colonels—Captains and Brevet Majors Ferguson and Murton, from Chatham. To be Quarter-master—First Lieutenant Henry Bennett, from Chatham.

A washer-woman of the name of Winifred Gleeson, residing at Thomond-gate, is supposed to have thrown herself into the river at the Strand, on Monday morning, while suffering under depression of spirits from poverty! Her body was found soon after by a boatman.

Sub Constable Delahunt, of the City Police, has succeeded in taking up Mary Quaine, and Mary Shanahan, for the murder of Eliza M'Namara, near Athluncard, last month. The mother-in-law, sister-in-law, and servant girl, are now in custody for this horrid crime.

The City Sheriffs yesterday received a respite from the Lords Justices, for Michael Russell, under sentence of death for sacrilege in St. Michael's Chapel.

The Committee of the Poor Relief Fund, acknowledges from George Sexton, Esq. foreman of Record Jury, £2; Joseph G. Bouchier, Esq. foreman of a Record Jury, £1 1s.; H. B. Molesworth, Esq. £1. A load of New Potatoes, from Timothy F. Mahony, Esq.

Newmarket-on-Fergus Petty Sessions, on Thursday.—Magistrates presiding, Sir Lucius O'Brien, Bart. Charles Creagh, William Smyth, and Windham, F. Patterson, Esq. Daniel and Patrick Cullinan were fined £5 each, or 3 months imprisonment each, for gaffing salmon under Latoon Bridge. They were also fined £2 each, or 6 weeks imprisonment each, for carrying gaffs on the bank of the Rine river. Informations were also taken against them for killing salmon with a stop net.

The parish of Newcastle, in this County, has contributed £9 14s. to the O'Connell fund for 1837, which Very Rev. T. Coll has transmitted to P. V. Fitzgerald, Esq. Secretary.

The Clonmel Grand Jury were sworn on Monday for Crown business.

The Rev. Mr. Adamson has received from Baron Richards, five pounds for the poor of Ennis.

The Conservative gentry of Clare exhibit the strangest apathy under the present state of their county representation. It is the only Southern county in which no political excitement appears.

The Rossmore family expect to turn Mr. Lucas out of Monaghan, and put in a second Westenra. The conservative gentry of that county will scarcely suffer this intrusion. The Lords Justices have offered £50 reward for the disco-happened to be con- Pure Patriotism at- tified with private- rightful informatio- that instruction so- in the Church, for- a Clergyman of th- his pulpit with the- would he think pro- he goes there to v- electors summoned- matter of discussi- He would now pas- trusted that the re- at all events; (hea- regular manner, h- must be of the grea- The approaching e- offer an eligible o- and exertion, and- engaged in promot- at the ensuing co- A contest bring- classes of the publ- any, one in whic- Every party shall- every argument or- ciples of Conserva- (Hear.) thus, to- true and beneficia- elector then give- he pleases, after- Thus shall the co- tion of seeing two- without oppositio- as hitherto in Par- Some agent of th- provoking a cont- with us, and the- the Queen also- anecdote of a tale- at Cork, who ha- on receiving his- 'who is with us o- No body at all, s- preter, implying- construction of- Massy) would s- with, to rest upo- having that ma- meeting is just- (cheers.) Have- a necessity for y- bly an effort m- trate those inst- they had establis- the meeting pr- undermined, de- to this, and will- man the walls o- they shall not