

mations were ick Hayes.—
 they do not
 and Thomas Clanchy, jun.
 ara, Michael O'Hara ap-
 at the sum-proprietor, or to the Charter
 essionors to the ojections, and
 ursday night,
 nts near the
 , several cots,
 , for Salmon.
 Mr. O'Hara,
 n the grounds
 oole Gabbett, isfactorily, he ies, under the ry offender to offenders in a h, and that a John Hartigan
 eing drunk in John Leonard
 to Mr. John Creagh, Esq.
 M.P. Richard M'Cartie, John
 nch, Richard
 John Cuthbert,
 enry Herrick,
 eard, Geo. C.
 as Somerville,
 rowne, M. P.
 orge Vaughan
 rick C. Lynch,
 ngham, Lieut.-
 lair O'Malley,
 urtney Kenny,
 omas Phillips,
 . Birmingham,
 William Fitz-
 enant O'Leary,
 he Recruiting
 Military Honors
 The excellent
 the March in the procession.
 the 1st Royals,
 several officers
 and all the men
 other military Lieut. Fordyce,
 pt. Hughes, and

At Debden, Essex, Capt. H. Hall, 41st Regt. Madras Army, to Anna, daughter of the Rev. W. Jurin Totton, Rector of Debden.

DEATHS.

Suddenly, on Saturday, at her residence, Lower Mount-street, Dublin, of apoplexy, Mrs. Saunders, widow of the late John Saunders, Esq. of Sackville, Kerry, and sister of the late Thomas Lloyd, of Beechmount, Esq. M. P. for this County. The death of a Lady so fondly beloved in her own family circle, which was the happy scene of all the domestic virtues, so tenderly and faithfully portrayed in her person and example, has plunged her immediate relatives into the deepest affliction, while the many respectable friends who enjoyed the edifying and instructive society of this accomplished and excellent Lady, will long sympathise with her family for the sad bereavement they have sustained. But there is a consolation that she is only gone to secure that reward, which a well-spent life in this earthly pilgrimage is sure to obtain in the world to come. Her remains were interred in the family vault at St. Peter's Church, Dublin, by a numerous cortege of mourning relatives and friends.

On Thursday morning, at his house in Catherine-street, after a long illness, Mr. Thomas Grady, Architect, of this city. The straight forward and honourable manner in which he acted, through life, rendered him endeared and respected by all who knew him,

At Fethard, Henry Hackett, Esq. son of the late Major Fethard, of Waterford.

Friday, in Thomas-street, at an advanced age, Miss Bluett, deservedly regretted by her family and friends.

Honorina, daughter of the late Thomas Huggard, of Prospect Lodge, Kerry.

In Queen-street, Dublin, Mr. John White, apothecary.

At Mitchelstown, Mr. Alick Barrett.

In York-street, Dublin, Mr. Patrick Fox, book-binder.

At Knockinavullin, Cork, James D. Nooman, Esq.

In Sligo, Mr. Denis McManus.

In Upper Mount-street, Dublin, the daughter of A. G. VanHomrigh, Esq.

At Omagh, the Rev. William George Stack, eldest son of the Rev. Thomas Stack, Curate of Drumragh, and Local Inspector of Tyrone Jail.

At his father's residence, Rossheen Lodge, county of Donegal, S. Forster, Esq. M. D. of typhus fever.

In Dublin, Mr. William Fisher, Band-master of the 77th Regt.

Frances Jane Smith, daughter of George Underwood Alley, Esq.

At Belfast, Samuel M'Clean, Esq.

At Passage, Michael Stanislaus, son of P. M. Kelly, Esq. of Patrick's Hill, Cork.

At Morristown Lattin, county Kildare, of scarletina, Lattin Mansfield, fifth son of Alexander Mansfield, Esq.

Of malignant scarletina, Anne, wife of Edward Ross, Esq. and daughter of the Right Hon. Thomas Peregrine Courtnay.

Suddenly, of apoplexy, the Rev. Michael Montague, P. P. Clogher.

At New-York, Mrs. Hans Denniston, formerly of Longford.

At Bologne, Mary, wife of Henry Colburn, Esq. Great Marlboro'-street, London.

On board her Majesty's ship "Scout," off the coast of Africa, Lieut. Charles Baldwin Dyke Acland, third son of Sir T. D. Acland, of Kilterton, Bart.

At Vainstown, Mrs. Elizabeth Sophia Ward, relict of the late Rev. Bernard Ward.

In Park-street, Grosvenor-square, aged 22, Paul Mildmay, eldest son of P. Methuen, Esq. M. P.

At Brighton, Peggy, wife of Captain Bowman.

At the Blickling, Norfolk, Wm. Henry Feilde, Esq. of Netherfield-house, Herts, and late of the 1st Grenadier Guards.

At Malta, Lieut. Henry Lister L. Kaye, of the 47th Regt. youngest son of the late Sir J. L. Kaye, Bart.

At Leamington, Catharine Sophia Power, eldest daughter of John Power, Esq. of Berwood House, Erdington, near Birmingham.

In Bath, Lieutenant General G. K. Dana, brother-in-law of the late Lord Forester.

At St. John's, New Brunswick, Lieut. T. G. Marlay, of the Royal Artillery.

In Piccadilly-terrace, Vice-Admiral J. R. D. Tollemache.

At Walworth, Elizabeth, wife of William Carroll, Surgeon R. N.

As an equivalent to Cash, the following R
 Cost; viz:—
 Purchases amounting to Ditto. .. ..
 Ditto. .. ..
 Ditto. .. ..
 Ditto. .. ..
 Ditto. .. ..
 From the ACTUAL C
 will be made; and are the disposal of our S proper situation, for cl

(Lat
 OLD JEWELL

Royal Col

MR. SAMUEL JO
 been solemnly a Physiology, and Surger
 ing him to practice ac
 Member of the College
 Signed by order of th

Lincoln Inns Fields, Anglesey Lying-in JOSEPH WOODS, R
 in Midwifery, and the
 received his Diploma, (Signed)
 Dublin, May 1.

Fire and

THE DIRECTOR
 LIFE ASSURA
 the attention of the p rances, offering the fo
 for the whole term of without liabilities of Payment of Losses—a ment.

OUTL
 The Premiums rece
 the Directors of the C
 At the expiration o
 quent year, a valuat
 ng to certain defined
 One-fifth of the su
 then appropriated as
 who shall have paid fu
 in abatement of their remaining third to the
 the Surplus to fall int
 next year's valuation
 No charge to be ma
 other usual charges of
 The Policies being Assured will possess

A BILLIARD TABLE,
 TO BE LET, or SOLD, where it may be seen at Little William-street, within one door of Thomas-street.