

and County, though
ve not yet come to the row by his numerous ounty, to canvass the

recommends a son of the electors of this city.
Messrs. Roche.

company with Mr. Roche,
ate for the county Cork, elstown, harangued the
that young gentleman's

He passed through addressed a multitude of which city he attended at the Diorama, and
ed that he gloried in Mr. O'Connell applauded t would Wellington have il? He praised Beamish, Hanover.

4th Dragoon Guards,
chester, and this week
with marked success.
ered their services to the r the election.

feel confident of that genpperary. The registered s not exceed 1500, and nterest of the Protestant

June have been received FICE. Lord Gosford had those persons instigating ful authorities of the King by a persuasion that the ved from their allegiance, parent State for justice or ounces such disloyal alle-
s. Early in the season Day was celebrated by a e St. George, St. Andrew, l their members in appro-
, &c. while the music of the ession. At Church service the St. George's Charity, er was numerously attended.
e Province, Lieut.-Colonel ought an action for £5000 member of the Legislative charged with forgery, and ct for plaintiff, after three
t. Newcomen, Royal Artil-

A man of the name of John Sheedy, from Elton, in this county, was drowned at a late hour on Friday night, having fallen into the river, near the lower end of Castle-street.—Aldermen Mahony and Watson held an inquest on the body at the Exchange on Monday, when it appeared in evidence the unfortunate man had been in delicate health, and for some years subject to an affection of the head, and having been seen under the influence of liquor the day he fell into the river, the fatality was thus accounted for. Verdict of the inquest—accidental death.

The indecent conduct of persons bathing in the Canal at all hours of the day, calls for the censure of the Magistrates. No respectable family can walk the banks, and the police should prevent all persons bathing there after eight in the morning.

Mr. John Blennerhassett did not form one of the deputa- tion from the County Meeting, as stated in our last.

On the 2d August the following Prelates will be privileged to sit in Parliament:—Archbishop Cashel, Bishops Meath, Derry, and Kildare, with power to frank from that day.

The Connemara district of Galway is much improved by the construction of new roads, and there are a dozen applica- tions for more in that hitherto wild portion of Connaught, before the Galway Grand Jury.

The celebrated Pouldoody oyster beds in Clare can't find a tenant.

Many forged notes of the Belfast Provincial Bank, for 30s. Number 15.242, are in circulation.

Another of the persons charged with the murder of Con- stable Feely, at Ballynonty, Tipperary, a few years since, was captured on Wednesday. He is brother to Carey who was found guilty of, and suffered for that homicide.

Sheriff Bryan leaves Dublin in a few days for Hanover, with an address from the Corporation of Dublin, to the Royal Duke, now Sovereign of that kingdom.

The Earl of Glengall has arrived at Caher castle from London.

Mr. Robert Hutton, a Socinian, has at last announced himself a candidate for the Protestant city of Dublin. This new candidate in connexion with Mr. O'Connell, is an opulent coach builder.

At Tullamore Assizes, Abraham Morris was tried for robbing Daniel Doyle, a pig-jobber, of £41 10s. in the canal boat from Portobello. The accused was recently dis- charged a Pay Sergeant from the 77th Regt. on which occa- sion the Non-commissioned officers presented him a massive silver cup. Adjutant Bradshaw, 77th, gave him on the trial a most excellent character for sobriety and integrity. The Jury eventually acquitted him of the crime.

The Rev. Mr. Crozier, of Kilmore, is chosen Moderator of the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster, assembled at Warren- point.

Every county in the South of Ireland will be the scene of an election contest but Clare, where the late members, M'Namara and O'Brien, will be returned without any

There
yesterday

The fol

At 12 o

crowd of

Brunwic

against t

views, an

as he c

O'Conne

upon Mr

Elmvale,

formed t

and the

unseat t

course a

failure

denounc

Orange

as a g

a pet c

Leger f

that bu

reviled

Roman

Lord G

which h

a doatin

of Cum

friends

Mr. O'

fact, w

membe

giving

pender

assemb

passing

and th

nell le

Bruff

PET

Maho

Esq.

Micha

5 shi

by Su

arms

roads

prose

Dalto

detai

were

for s

Belin

Jame