

tr victory at this election is n, said the Rev. gentleman, Church called consecrated s, pity and forgive the de-accompanied the delivery of epitome.
 called for a show of hands for O'Brien, and Mr. Stafford men he declared the election by the majority of hands—
 the High Sheriff, Mr. Stafdemanded a poll on his part, I y for opening it, and hereby arated, happy to be released d high steam pressure of a

CTION.
 omething worse, have tri-the present member. The ce hour last night from a , Monday, Aug. 7, 1837.
 inated, in the return of Mr.
 Perhaps there has not been ch tergiversation, and such most fully prepared to petia majority of seven votes; and the victorious party had
 "—Cork Constitution.
 e, at the Kinsale election, terlude in the Court, by the mas Dixon, the former antae gentleman shot upon the om the Conservative side, and s, heads and necks of the ocidity of a sky rocket, or one eclined plane.—Laughter is nd irrepressible mirth of all lf stunned, half gratified, at
 , and spent the next two mi-Mr. M'Namara, who stared e instrumentality of his spec-ised and saluted viva voce by How is Shakspeare Tom?"
 "Fell from the moon Tom?"
 t round good humouredly, late colour eyes, and tried to g he was embarrassed, gave the back, and reiterated the lilt, Tom," Tom pretended no "lilt," and kept looking Mahony at Tom, like two umulated and accumulating ous shaking of sides in all ce aggravated the sport, for ions to laugh, there was an nd an invincible agony about as choking with mortification Pierce.

Esq. of a son.
 At Clonboy, county Clare, the Lady of John Brown, Esq. of a son.
 At Moor-park, King's County, the Lady of Thomas Robinson, Esq. of a son.
 At Eyre-square, Galway, the Lady of John Ireland, Esq. of a son.
 At Percy-place, Dublin, the Lady of Richard D. Kane, Esq. of a daughter.
 The Lady of F. J. Skelly, Manager of the Provincial Bank of Ireland, Ballymena, of a son.
 At Kippagh Lodge, near Dunmanway, the Lady of the Rev. Francis Beamish, of a daughter.
 On the 30th ult. Mrs. Carey, Ahabologue, of a daughter.
 At Lady Harriet Daly's, Henrietta-street, the Lady of the Rev. A.
 Knox, of a son.
 At Liverpool, the Lady of Charles James Hamilton, Esq. of a son, At the Rectory, Rixampton, Somerset, the Hon. Mrs. Maurice, of a son.
 In Harley-street, the Lady of E. St. John Mildmay, Esq. of a daughter.
 At Naples, on the 14th July, the Lady of Stephen Roche, Esq. of Rye-hill, in the county of Galway, of a son.

DEATHS.

At Tramore, on the 6th inst. after a few days illness of scarletina, Rebecca, the beloved wife of Benjamin Henry Baylee, Esq. A life of piety, through redeeming grace, made the death-bed of this amiable young woman, the bed of entire resignation, and of peace without alloy.
 At Camass, in this county, the seat of her father, Frederick Bevan, Esq. on Saturday, Ellen, the beloved wife of B. Conner, Esq.
 At Stradbally, near Castle-Connell, William Frewen, Esq. Solicitor, aged 81 years.
 In Rathkeale, Mr. George Ferguson.
 At Ballinclare, county Wicklow, Captain Thomas Keoghoe.
 In Drogheda, Henry, youngest son of William Huey, Esq. Collector.
 At Carrigmacross, James Gartlan, Esq. for many years an eminent distiller in that town.
 At Warrenpoint, Newry, of apoplexy, Lieut. McLeroth, senior Subaltern 38th Regt.
 At Middleton, Mr. Charles McCarthy.
 At his residence, Granby Row, Dublin, Joseph Smith, Esq. in his 58th year.
 At Cove, Elizabeth, the beloved wife of the Rev. George Burrowes.
 In Dublin, of typhus fever, John Ryland Chater, B. A. of Magdalene Hall, Oxford, in his 25th year.
 Suddenly, on her way to Lisdoon Varna Spa, where she purposed sojourning for the benefit of her health, Catherine, eldest daughter of the late John Stewart Moran, Esq. of Muckenish, county Clare.
 At Peachmount, Rathgar, John Hudson, Esq. aged 84 years.
 Mary Ann, daughter of Mr. John Sutherland, of the Wexford Hotel.
 In Lower Dorset-street, Dublin, of rapid consumption, Margaret, daughter of Mr. Hugh Oldham.
 At St. James's Palace, aged 84, Lady Barnard, widow of the late Sir Frederick Augustus Barnard, K. C. H. fifty-nine years Librarian to his late Majesty George III.
 At Liverpool, aged 57, Harriett, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel A.
 Stewart, of Achanuone, Argyleshire, and Aldborough, Suffolk.
 Suddenly, at Uxbridge, Thomas Mellish, Esq. of Bishopsgate-st.
 At Brussels, George Vicars, Esq. late Assistant Barrister for the Queen's County.
 On passage home from Demarara, James, son of the Rev. George Birch, of Comber, county Down.
 At Damascus, of cholera, William Wardlaw Ramsay, Esq. of Whitehill, and of Moray-place, Edinburgh.

NOTICE.

ALL that part of the LANDS of BALLYNEETY, in the A. Barony of Coonagh and County of LIMERICK, containing 142 acres and 39 perches, late Irish plantation measure, as heretofore advertised, are still to be sold. Application to be made to ROBERT ARTHUR, Esq. 2, Lower Dominickstreet, Dublin, or to SAMUEL ALLEYNE, Esq. Tipperary Town.
 August 9.

To be Let

UNDER T
 TY
 Will
 THE Gre
 ancient a keeping,
 phy, &c.
 Clergy
 ged as Pr give to th in a word
 professio
 The Co
 dation, in inferior t rounded eminence Town, a of religio Catholic
 TER
 Twenty
 advance,
 service, h
 Washi
 Music, dance, w
 N. B.
 Dr. O'C Rates of from Limer
 PA
 Coal whe
 Ball's-
 Thom
 Turf, wh
 of Cas
 Beyond
 Turf-Po
 Ball's-
 Beyond
 Coal, so
 Turf,
 Turf-Po
 OLD M
 Coal, Turf,
 Turf-Po
 Coal, by Quays
 Cresc
 Ditto, C
 Ditto