

end as it may, the truth of Ireland a debt of grati- Mr. Barker tenantry, every in him, although men were beaten awakened.—Mail.

WARDER.

Journal last Satur- for the Protes- execution, in or having voted e sacred cause of to insinuate that r O'Connell and d from the pecu- d, different from st that you should hat such was the ounded assertions, our parishioners. ed to promote the h successful as it wards whom were persons who call religion consists o such an extent Lord's day, that y of religion, and ghty, vociferating pery," and desig- ts. There can be passions was in a d which you have or the great cause for O'Connell and be true because it your next number ch infamous con- arly to do so, as a ven that we shall ay. As to having he dictates of my l the circumstances best calculated to Church in the pre- corrupt motives to be in a minority.— inded and straight- ould be condemned, 33 and 1834, from l Clergy, when he lged himself most tever influence he gy from accepting liament voted for n 1831, 1832, and at they were better defeat O'Connell in county, the "Kingdom of Kerry," where his eldest, and favourite son was turned out of the borough by a Conservative; and O'Connell's own nominee, Mullins, whom he proposed on the hustings, was also rejected in the county by another Conservative! The fact is, O'Connell is thought less of in his own native place, than in any other part of Ireland. Alas! what a mortification to Kerry's pride, and Ireland's glory!

Viscount and Viscountess Gort and the Hon. Charles Vereker, have left Loughcoter Castle for England.

Lord Fitzgerald and Vesey arrived on Thursday, at Loughcoter Castle, the hospitable mansion of Viscount Gort.

The ship Strathsfield is expected next week at this port to receive sixty families who are emigrating to Botany Bay. The Inspector-General of emigrants, the son of Admiral Elliott was here a few days ago on a tour of inspection.

The only gentlemen connected with this City who voted at the College election for Dr. Stock, are the Rev. William Benn, now of Dublin, Rev. Thomas Walsh, curate of Moate, and Counsellor Glover. Mr. Burke, of Ennis, Ex-scholar, also voted for the Government candidate.

William Franklin, Esq. of the Provincial Branch Bank at Strabane, is appointed Manager of the Bank of that establishment at Wexford.

Yesterday the Mayor, and Alderman Watson made inquiry into the circumstances of the death of Mr. Martin Ryan, of Mungret-street, which appeared in our columns. He had been a young man of weak constitution, and in delicate health for some time. Saturday night week he was pushed accidentally, by an acquaintance, at the Oyster tavern, and was hurt, but not so as to prevent his going out next day upon his usual business. The day after he took to his bed, and the result is known.

The Magistrates have not reduced the fine upon Mr. Raleigh, Apothecary, at Petty Sessions, for assault on Chief Constable Hadnett in the election week, and this day a warrant was ordered by the Bench for the penalty.

Mr. Esmonde, Stipendiary Magistrate in Bruff, acted as qualifying Magistrate for the Radicals, at Carlow election.

The Visitation of Killaloe, and Kilsenora, will be held on Thursday, 14th September next.

The Lord Bishop of Cork, Cloyne and Ross, intends to hold his Ordinary Visitation for the Diocese of Cloyne, at Cloyne, on Tuesday, the 29th instant; and for the Dioceses of Cork and Ross, at Cork, on Thursday, the 31st instant.

At an ordination held on Sunday, by the Lord Bishop of Cork, in the Cathedral of St. Finn Barr, the following were admitted to Priests orders:—For Cork, Rev. Mr. Pery, A. B.; Rev. Mr. Johnson, A. B. Letters Dim from Ferns, Rev. Mr. Todd, A. B. From Lismore, Rev. W. Wakeham, A. B.; Rev. William Archer Butler, A. B.; John M'Cauley, L.L.D.; Rev. Edward Pennefeather, A.M. Deacons for Cork, Messrs. Colthurst, Day, O'Brien, Townsend, Meredith, Donovan, Mr. Russell;

Outrage was restrained by overawed the factious.

Major-General Sir Ja Guernsey, presided at a sionary Society in that isl

In the heat of the West Major Windham comma struck with a stone in his horse. Mr. Briscoe's it reached town and comp Burke, the Father of th Castlepollard, a very ac conservatives candidates, of the party for which his Major Parsons is app on the Bengal establishme tant Commissary.

Captain Langley 3d cashiered, for embezzl Regiment, and false entri

The Barley harvest has looks admirably.

There are not ten effect garrison, so reduced w drafts to attend the Kerry

The exchange of Lieut. announced by us, is confi

The Athol has embark Cork for the Mauritius will convey the last divis

The last Lieutenant b purchased an Unattached

The last division of th this week in the Thomas

On Thursday evening supper given at Fort-Geo and the Bachelor Office numerous friends in the

Lieut. Steele, 30th Thurles, to join the Dep

Mr. Thomas Lansdown has purchased a commis

Captain Bayly, 12th; Macdonell, 26th; Ensig Auldjo, 96th Regt. sold

Major Stuart 7th Fus Saturday last, was the of Derry, when the Art salute, and the Virgi testimonial in that city

The case of Captain R v. Colburn, for libel, r lished in the United for trial at Croydon officers were in attend evidence was gone into plaintiff by consent, 40

The 88th Regiment for Weedon. The 2 marched from Dover fo