

endeavouring to rescue struggling with. The
keep the crowds back,
; a soldier, on one
gh a man just above
as apprehended from

During the election of valid, Capt. Westenra, succeed him. Mr.
Counsel retained by against Mr. Mahony
st energy and ex-
Assessor at Tralee
ing, for Dublin.

our last impression:
Reform ranks of the
which the remaining repair. Of the 135
are 112 Tories. It represented English
have been re-elected;
ned, twenty-four are

related in the Club-
ed to very good Whig Premier has formally office at the close of imputed reasons for
to him, we can have tion—

understood to say,
y by abandoning the
me during the elec-tempt me to hold
the people of Eng-
ptful majority, sup-Connell's nominees.
a majority of British f such a majority of ll send to Parliament
cannot be withheld
the British empire in
h Roman Catholic
ever felt an incon-
I never will endure.

ne King of Hanover, adamental law of the revision of the Conn up by the German manner.

Or a son.
In Cork, the Lady of Edmund Wright, Esq. of a daughter.
At Moor-park, King's County, the Lady of Thomas Robinson, Esq. of a son.
In Grosvenor-square, the Countess of Wilton, of a daughter.
At Heden, Barham Downs, the Lady of Sir Richard Plassket, of a son.
At Mount Congreve, Waterford, the Lady of John Congreve, Esq. of a daughter.
At Little Campden House, Kensington, the Lady of Sir Henry Willock, of a daughter.
At East Hall, Kent, the Lady of Percival Hart Dyke, Esq. of a son.
At Hampstead-heath, the Lady of Captain Gribble, of a daughter.
At Hamptou Lodge, near Farnham, Lady Catherine Long, of a son and heir.
The Lady of Sir E. Antrobus, Bart. of a son.
At Boxwell Court, Gloucestershire, Mrs. A. Shakspear, of a son.
At Chinsurah, the Lady of Lieut. Edmonds, 9th Foot, of a daughter.

DEATHS.

In Galway, of fever, Miss O'Reily, one of the Sisters of Charity of that Town.
On Friday, the 4th instant, at Rathkeale, Fanny, wife of Mr.
Thomas O'Connell, woollen draper.
Of consumption, John, son of the late Mr. Thomas Davis, of Clonmel.
In Thurles, Luke Bray, Esq.
At Castle-Connell, on Thursday, from the bite of a dog, Eliza
Anne, daughter of Constable Moran, aged 7 years.
At Cregane Cottage, Cork, Mr. Robert Rogers,
Anna, daughter of Captain Macfarland, Paradise Cottage, Wexford.
In Cork, a few hours after accouchment, Jane, wife of Edmund Wright, Esq.
In Prussia-street, Dublin, James Kirkwood, Esq. formerly of New Court, county Wicklow.
At Dresden, Donegal, Micah Cary, youngest son of Captain
Thomas Metcalfe, late of the 79th Regt.
At Dundrum, Caroline Frideswid Martin, only daughter of J.
C. Martin, of Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin.
Arthur Crawford, son of James M'Cullagh, of Great Denmark-street, Dublin, Esq.
In Upper Camden-street, Dublin, Mr. J. Burke, son of Mr.
William Burke, of Milltown Mills, county Dublin.
Emily Ball, daughter of Samuel Ball, Esq. of Crossmaglen, At Newtown-house, county Meath, Mr. David Blake, a most respectable farmer.
In Dungannon, Harriet Jane, only daughter of the late John Irwin, of Tully O'Donnell, Tyrone, Esq.
At Brighton, Captain Harry Bradburne, formerly of the 2d Dragoon Guards.
At Liverpool, Maria, eldest daughter of John Brownrigg, Esq.
of Waterford, and wife of Henry Brownrigg, Esq. of Liverpool.
At Brighton, J. Mortlock, Esq. late of Oxford-street, London.
In Upper Brook-street, London, Mary Charlotte, daughter of the Hon. John Carnegie.
At Stockholm, Elizabeth Mary, wife of the Hon. J. D. Bligh, and only daughter of G. Gisborne, Esq. late M. P. for North Derbyshire.
At Blackwall, Edward Victor Leopold, youngest son of Capt.
Charles Parish, of the West India Docks, and late of the Tyne.
At Stonehouse, Lieut. Colonel John Maule, late 26th Regt.
aged 26—leaving a wife and twelve children to lament his loss.
At Eton, William Monsell, Esq. one of the Knights of Wind sor.
Lord Stavordale, eldest son of the Earl of Ilchester.
In Great Corain-street, London, Eliza, eldest daughter of the late S. Palmer, of the Barrack Department.

renders the conveyance
and from the intermed economical.

The Coaches and C
times a-day to Ennis,
thence to Kildysart.
Bianconi's Cars run to Cork, and Kerry, whe
dance to convey pas
days of Sale.

If possible, the entire
the 1st of September.
JOSEPH
"Commercial Mart

M.
At Coventry, on Wedne
Esq. to Jane, eldest daug
Constable, Kilrush.
At Buchanan-street, GL
Mr. Dugald Graham, mer daughter of the late Benja
Richard L. Flanagan, Es
Philipsburgh Avenue, Clon
At St. George's Church, I
county Cavan, to Jane, Drumcondra.
At St. Peter's Church, J.
Terrace, to Anne, younges
Esq. of Athy.
Mr. Peter Dever, of Wes daughter of Mr. John M'H
At Tamlaght Finlagan C
limavady, Esq. to Julia, yo of Walworth, county Lond
In St. Werburgh's Churc
of Finglas, to Eliza, relict county Dublin.
At Kington, William Ur eldest daughter of E. Walk
At Dundas Castle, the H
of the Earl of Coventry, to Mary Dundas,
At St. George's, Everto
Temple, Barrister-at-Law,
late T. Samson, Esq. of Ki
At St. Mary's, Marylebor
second daughter of the late Lieut. Hutchinson, R. N.
daughter of J. Lacy, Esq.
At the Collegiate Church
R. Walker, Esq. of Bury, I Sarah, eldest daughter of
At St. Peter's, Walworth
Sussex, to Rosa Louisa, da
of Lloyd's, and of Brixton
At St. John's Chapel, Edin
John Kinloch, Esq. of Kilt
only daughter of the late Troup and Glenlyon.
The Rev. Henry Boys, y
Lewes, to Mary Ann, daug
of Stoyning.
At Bradwell Church, n
Esq. of Clapham, eldest sc riett, third daughter of S. C