

...were previously captain commanding
 a stone, while the difficulty, drove off,
 the mob, and the cruel reservatives met with,
 and Saturday, the
 valence; the military streets.—*We doubt numbers stood thus—00; Mr. P. Barker,
 for Sheil over Barker,
 ore, 1044; majority majority for Cave over all voted for Messrs.

—On the Bench Al-
 T. P. Vokes, Esqrs.
 for being drunk, and
 of the day police;
 stealing yarn off a House of Industry;
 silk stockings, silk-belonging to John ordered. Patrick drunk. Maurice
 2s. 6d. each for Ahern, fined 5s.
 Sullivan and John
 for being drunk.
 one month's imprison-road to Anacotty, and M'Malion was fined making glass. Thomas hours imprisonment, for was fined £1, or a giving his car furiously Margaret Casey.—
 against Denis Connors, trespassing on ground
 William Carroll was fined Casey; Maurice Fitz-10s. for having his usual hour. Informa-Margaret Connors, for
 to Bridget Fowles.— was fined 10s. for 2 o'clock, on Sunday.
 for same offence. Infor-John M'Eniry, John Grady, for assault on fractured. Margaret using the word "per-while before the magisred against John Regan, John Ryan.

near Canterbury, to Mary Frances, daughter of General Sir Thomas G. Montresor, of Ospringe-house, Kent.

DEATHS.

On Saturday last, at her father's house, Donagrouge Castle, county Clare, in her fifteenth year, of scarletina, Harriett, the beloved daughter of George Crowe Hodges, Esq.—Thus, after a few days illness, was this amiable and interesting young Lady, in the bloom of youth, almost suddenly separated from her parent and family, who are, by so melancholy a visitation, involved in the deepest affliction.

At Monfieldstown, his residence, near Cork, Thomas Cuthbert Kearney, Esq. of Garrettstown, county Cork, universally esteemed, and deeply lamented.

At Trevor Hill, county Armagh, in the 14th year of her age, Eliza Rebecca, only daughter of Nicholas Maunsell, Esq. Paymaster of the Northern District.

At Drumcondra House, Dublin, Julia Madelina, youngest daughter of the late Lieutenant-General Colin Campbell, and sister to Sir Guy Campbell, Bart. Deputy Quartermaster-General.

Augustus M'Culloch, M. D. son of the Rev. James M'Culloch, of Newtownards.

In John-street, Helena, widow of the late Mr. Christopher Bernard.

Ellen Maria, daughter of Daniel M'Carthy, Esq, of Knocknagree, county Cork.

At Roundwood, county of Wicklow, Elizabeth, wife of Dan. Heatly.

At her residence, South Mall, Cork, Mary, wife of Mr. James M'Sweeny.

Patrick, son of Mr. Patrick O'Neill, Clonmel.

On the 28th of July, of consumption, from the effects of influenza, William Freeman, Royal Artillery, second son of the late William Hughes, Esq. Mulgannon, county Wexford.

In Dublin, Dominick Daly, Esq. of Paris.

At Drumcondra, of the effects of influenza, Amelia Diana Grove Grady, youngest daughter of the late Henry Grove Grady, Esq. of Bellewood, county of Tipperary.

In Eccles-street, Dublin, Mrs. Elizabeth Strong, of St. Cloud, county Meath.

In Dundalk, of a paralytic stroke, John Chambers, Esq. of the firm of Chambers & Co.

In Richmond-street, aged 84 years, Miss Eliza Wilson, sister to Richard Wilson, Esq.

At his house, in Portman-square, after a short illness, the Earl of Cardigan. His Lordship, a posthumous son, was born in April, 1769, and was consequently in his 68th year. He succeeded to the titles, &c. on the death of his uncle, James, the fifth Earl, in 1811. He married in 1794, Penelope Anne, second daughter of John George Cooke, Esq. who died in 1826, and by whom he had issue 12 children, the third of whom, Lord Brudenell, now Earl of Cardigan, was born in 1797, and married Mrs. Johnstone after her divorce in 1826.

At Abbott's Ann Rectory, the son of the Hon. and Rev. S. Best.

At Caen, in Normandy, aged 85, James Lowther, Esq. for 35 years Member of Parliament for the County Westmoreland, and Colonel of the Militia. He was Equerry to the late Duke of Gloucester.

On the 17th of June, at Fort Barras, River Gambia, Captain Robert Copley, Royal African Colonial Corps, brother of John Copley, Esq. of Ballyclogh, in this county. This Officer, when 17 years of age, distinguished himself as a Gentleman Cadet on the Field of Waterloo, in the 71st Regt. and with his own hand fired the last gun upon the retreating enemy.

At Belline, Blanche Costabodie, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Currey.

In Liverpool, the Rev. John Birdsall, R. C. C. late of Cheltenham,

At Welbury, near Hitchin, the Rev. Lynch Burroughs, of Offley-place, Herts.

At Harrogate, William Camac, Esq. of Mansfield-street, London, and Hastings, Sussex.

At Barnstaple, Frederick Charles Chichester, son of Sir A. Chichester, Bart. of Doulston, Devon.

- Feathers—For every
- _____For every
- Flour—For every
- Goods—For every
- Hay—For every
- Hair, (Curled)—F
- Iron—For every
- Leather—For eve
- Lard—For every
- _____For every
- Merchants goods-
- _____For every
- _____For every
- Meal—For every
- Oats—For every
- Pigs—Weighing 2
- _____Weighing
- _____Weighing
- _____Every dra
- Porter—Every ho
- Potatoes—Every
- Raisins—For eve
- Rape seed—For e
- Soap—For every
- Sugar—For ever
- _____For every
- Seed—For every
- Straw—For every
- Salts—For ever
- Tallow (melted)
- _____For every
- _____For every
- Tobacco—For ev
- Tea—For every
- Trees—for ever
- Vetches—For ev
- Wine or strong
- _____Every pu
- _____Every ho
- _____Every b
- Wheat—Every
- Wool—Every p
- _____Every p
- _____Every p
- Yarn—Each p