

connexion, and British interests. This one of the most spirited and gratifying of public feeling ever manifested in Quebec. Expressive of the sentiments of the meeting, the Governor of Canada, to be transmitted from Sydney, New South Wales. to so late 15th of May, have been received at the CHRONICLE OFFICE. The following Officers sent out from England—Lieut. Owen, 17th; Lieut. Baxter, 50th; Ensign Hon. 30th; and Brevet Major Delisle, and Assis- n Party, 4th Regt. with convict detachments. Naughten emigrant ship was released from and the remaining passengers allowed up to John Jones, a convict, was found guilty of the Private Thomas O'Brien, 50th Regt. The nt arrived for giving the Bishop of Australia Legislative Council.

General Sir John Buchan, accompanied by his up, Captain Fordyce, of the 35th Regt. has for England. Colonel Birch, of the Royal l command during Sir John's absence. Barry, of the 89th Regt. has joined the ndonderry.

Intelligent and respectable veteran, Colour- ladine, 19th Regt. was discharged at Dublin ago, having been awarded a pension of 2s.

9th ult. we regret to learn that Major e British Legion, received a musket-shot while heading a foraging expedition in of St. Sebastian. His recovery was con- celess on the 30th.

A woman was yesterday relieved of severe inconvenience at the Dispensary, by the of a needle, which the Surgeon Apothecary rom between the first and second fingers of l, where, curious to say, it had been firmly n the flesh the last five years, the needle ck into that place by some hasty and awkward of the girl, while at work, and became ible ever since.

A far advanced in pregnancy was thrown over Bridge, county Clare, this week, by two e of them a married man, and the reputed e infant she was bearing. The helpless ed in a few hours, and was buried by her erday morning. That well known active George Lloyd, of Mount Catherine, Esq. in tracing the foul transaction to its source, day apprehended the murderers, who are tted to Ennis goal.

A schoolmaster, of the name of Costelloe, dead this morning on the road near Kil- thought from intoxication.

Hon. Thomas Lefroy, M.P. has arrived at quess of Lansdowne is to attend the meet- British Association, which commences on t at Liverpool.

Maingaird, who is about to lead to the hymeneal onsonby, is in his 31st year. He succeeded he 11th of December, 1826. His Lordship Lord Kinnaird, and is a nephew of Lady dy Hope, &c. Miss Ponsonby is the the Hon. Mr. Ponsonby second son of the borough, and is related to Viscount Mel- count Duncaannon, and Countess Kerry. wtown special session, on Saturday, Mr. surgeon, put in a claim for compensation ge done to his house and property in of his having voted for Mr. Corbet, at the ry borough election. Proofs were put in ainant's windows being almost all broken, es, fences, and out-houses being destroyed, r for compensation was made for the sum

At Bordeaux, Edmond S. Coppinger, Esq. M. D. son of James Coppinger, Esq. of Paris, to Ultima, daughter of J. Dert, Esq. of Bordeaux.
At Edinburgh, Robert Edward Gregg, Esq. of Jamaica, to Charlotte, daughter of Professor Napier.
At Toronto, Upper Canada, John Joseph, Esq. Secretary of Sir Francis B. Head, Governor of Upper Canada, to Ann Eliza- beth, daughter of C. A. Hagerman, Esq. Attorney-General of that Province.

DEATHS.

On Thursday night last, after a long illness borne with the most Christianlike resignation to the Divine Will, Marcella, daughter of Thomas G. Fitzgibbon, Esq. of Ballyseeda, near this city.
On Saturday, at his father's house, Henry-street, after a tedious illness, borne with the resignation of a Christian, Samuel, eldest son of the Rev. Samuel Jones, Rector of Ard- canny, in this county.
In Mary-street, Mrs. Flanigan, wife of Mr. Daniel Flanigan, Auctioneer and Ranger of the Exchange.
After a short illness, Mr. John Brogden, of Roches'-street, spirit retailer, and some time connected with the business of shipbroker.
At his son's house, Mary-street, Mr. John Mulqueen, aged 85 years.
At Blackrock, James, son of the late Mr. John Hare, of Cork.
At the Glebe, Newtonards, Esther, wife of S. J. Cassidy, of Magherafelt, Esq.
In Ennis, Hannah, daughter of the late D. Lysaght, Esq. of that town.
At Waterford, Mr. Daniel Kirby.
At Dunmore, county Galway, Mrs. Margaret Healy, mother- in-law of Major Mannin, 74th Regt.
In Bandon, on Sunday, Catherine Mary, widow of the late Captain Heazle, 33d Regiment.
On the Grand Parade, Cork, Mrs. Elizabeth Galwey.
The Rev. B. M'Adam, C. C. of Clones, county Monaghan.
On Sunday evening, Alicia, second daughter of the late William Abernethy, of Cork.
At Blackrock, James, son of the late Mr. John Hare, of Cork.
The Rev. James Hickson, aged 45, Wesleyan Minister, and formerly a Missionary to Newfoundland.
At Richmond-place, Mrs Fletcher, aged 77 years.
At Kildare-street, Dublin, Elizabeth Frances, wife of James W Cusack,
On Sunday, Sarah Victoria, only child of Doctor mooney,
In Waterford, Mr John Dalton.
At Island Bridge, near Dublin, James Williams, the son of Captain James A. Gilbert, Royal Artillery.
At Castlekeran, Kells, county Meath, in the 81st year of his age, Captain George Power, late of the 89th regiment.
At Ballyshannon, Patience, wife of Captain Hardinge, Adju- tant of the Donegal Militia.
At Moy, William Francis Langden, only son of William R. Needham, Esq. Royal Artillery.
At the house of his brother, Dean-street, Soho. Mr. W. Phip- pen, for many years publisher of the Morning Advertiser.
In Greenwich Hospital, Lieut. Thomas Renwick, late of H.M.S. Wanderer.
At Maida Hill West, Paddington, Mr. Massey, of the firm of Wiltshire and Massey, Cheapside.
At Ipswich, Mrs. Bourke, wife to Lieut. Bourke, 3d Dragoon Guards.
Emmeline Louisa, daughter of Captain Sir W. Edward Parry, R. N.
In Great Portland-street, Miss Euphemia Boswell, daughter of James Boswell, Esq. the biographer of Dr. Johnson.
At Falmouth, suddenly, Captain W. James, Commander in the Packet Service.
At Holloway, Mr. William Sherwood, of the house of Sher- wood, Gilbert, and Piper, booksellers, Paternoster-Row.
In New Burlington-street, John Haigh, Esq. of Whitewell Hall, Yorkshire.
Sir James Alexander Wright, Bart. late of Carolside, N.B.
Priscilla, wife of George Erck, of Regent-street,
Mrs. Ann Beale, of Bath, in her 91st year,
Fanny, eldest daughter of the late Colonel Johnson, of Wal- bury, Essex, in her 15th year,
Suddenly, at Greenock, Dr. John Speirs, sen.
Mr. David Prentice, who, for 26 years, conducted the Glasgow Chronicle,
At the Vicarage House, Wookey, the Rev. John Stevens Phillott, eldest son of the late Archdeacon Phillott,
Mary, wife of J. Chapman, Esq. of Paul's Cray-hill, Kent, aged 75.
At Everton, near Liverpool, William Radcliff, Esq. of Tinni- killy, county Wicklow, and only son of the late Dr. Stephen Radcliff, Judge of the Prerogative Court.
At Gelligron, near Neath, Glamorganshire, Owen Rees, Esq. late of the firm of Messrs. Longman and Co. Pater- noster-row.
At Walthamstow, London, Major W. Hammond, late of the Bombay Service.
At the Hague, Demerara, Spry Bartlet, Esq. late a Captain in the 61st Regt. and a Special Magistrate for that Colony.
At Kingston, Jamaica, Major John Wilson, K. H. of the 56th Regt.
At Sydney, New-South-Wales, Robert Henry, third son of Mr. John Henry Hall, of Cork.

BEGS to inform those afflicted with E he has returned to No. 6, Old Ge CORK, where he will be constantly Medicines for curing the above complaint.
On account of the strict secrecy always Mr. Dockrall, he cannot give publicity cases in which he has been most eminent but, for the satisfaction of any person wi Mr. Dockrall's Medicines, he refers to or regulated Public Establishments in the K Cork Lunatic Asylum. The Moral Gov him to say, he will feel great pleasure in a inquiries of any individual afflicted with th disease. From the many invitations Mr received from Dublin, London, Liverpo chester, &c. he thinks his stay in Cor long this time. Cork, Sep

THEATRE-ROYAL, CHARLOTTE LIMERICK.
By Permission of Right Worshipful JOHN Esq. Mayor.
On WEDNESDAY EVENING, FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE MANAGER
On which occasion the Celebrat MISS SHIRREFF

Has most kindly consented to give her vices, assisted by Messrs. Bedford, Bish George, the Four Persian Brothers, a strength of the Company, being most last night of the present short Season Shirreff's engagement.

MR. SEYMOUR takes leave to ann Nobility, Gentry, Officers of the Public in general of Limerick and its vic the above Evening, under most Distinguish will be acted, for the firsttime these 3 ye brated Opera of

MASANIELLO

The Princess .. .. Miss SH
Alphonzo .. .. Mr. BED
Masaniello .. .. Mr. SEY
Pietro .. .. Mr. BIS

In the course of the evening. Miss Shi the new Scotch Ballad of "Whistle a to you my Lad."

After the Opera the Four PERSIAN will appear in their celebrated Morise Da The whole to conclude with (by desire, positively the last time,) the third

GUSTAVUS III

OR THE MASKED BA Oscar, (favorite Page to the King,) Miss Col. Lillienhorn,..... Mr. Gustavus the Third,..... Mr. Madame Aukarstrom,..... Miss

IN THE LAST SCENE GALOPADE OF EIGHTEEN C

An efficient Band will attend—Leader M On this occasion Dresses will be suppli application, to suit Ladies and Gentlemen to appear in the Masquerade, and Tickets will be given for the Stage to those who mingle in the Ball,

BOXES, 4s.—PIT, 2s 6d.—GAL Second Price will be taken to the Boxes at half-past 9 o'Clock:

BOXES—2s, 6d.—PIT—1s. 0 Tickets and places for the Boxes to Theatre, at Mr. Goggin's, Printer, 34, C and of Mr. SEYMOUR, at 7, William-st Sep

NOTICE—The Theatre will re-open on the 18th instant.