

at Templemore, months' confinement have reduced the time for local on the Bench, the summons was fined being drunk in the court for throwing a Sub-Constables the city Police, striking a dog at against his brother. was imprisoned. of Horse Artillery, a soldier in that and striking him at the barrack. against the com- pson, a brother Mrs. Wrenshaw at the pavement, anything to him; ce to the Corpo- as fined 5s. 5d. e to her master. ell were bound to l, and Catherine za Scully. Mary es of furniture to as fined 2s. 6d. for potatoes. Garrett ce on the road in red against Patrick Cronin; against tone on Timothy or a violent assault t was ordered to be d security to keep ances for 1836, have gerald, to pay the ining in his hands: 's Hospital, £5; t Orphan School, two poor families, Total, £27.

nowledges the fol- r completing the in & Browne, £3; is Spaight, second Henry O'Sullivan, Edward Murphy, M.D. William F. otter, John Boyse, Henry Synan, John es O'Shaughnessy, nnell, B. M'Nulty, Kelly, James Barry, n, J. Goggin, 10s. Massy, F. Sykes, h, James Clampett, 5s. each; Cornelius nd, an Altar-piece; air of Candlesticks. lime-kiln at Fethard mediately.

At the British Ambassador's, Frankfurt, Peter Nugent Daly, county Mayo, to Jane Francis, daughter of Thomas Davies, Esq. At Bombay, James Farish, Esq. Member of the Council, to Rebecca, widow of the late Captain Alexander Lighton, of the Hon. East India Company's Service.

DEATHS.

On Monday evening, at Rosstrevor, Downshire, the Hon. Charlotte Knox, wife of the Hon. and Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Limerick, and daughter of the late Sir Thomas Dalrymple Hesketh, Bart. of Rufford, Lancaster—a Lady whose life was in unison with the precepts of that divine volume which purifies human nature, and prepares the way to eternal happiness. The Law of God taught her to love his creatures, and the widow and the orphan had cause to bless the hand which satisfied their wants. What Heaven in its bounty gave, she dispensed, like a ministering Angel, to the relief of the poor, the sick and the captive; with a heart thankful to that Providence whose agent she became in these works of mercy. Mrs. Knox was a most affectionate wife, and a tender parent, whose virtuous and edifying example will long endure in the memory of her loving husband and fondly attached children. The remains of this much lamented Lady were yesterday interred in the family vault, near Rosstrevor.

At Wilson's Quay, Mr. Henry Blackwell.
In this city, Deborah Carr, aged 103 years.
Wednesday, in Upper Cecil-street, at an advanced age, Susanna, relict of the late Denis O'Brien, Esq. Tipperary, a Lady generally regretted.

On Tuesday, in George's-street, Richard Lee, Esq.
Monday morning, after a long and painful illness, at his house in Marlboro'-street, Mr. Patrick Murphy.

At Kilronan, Nicholas B. Jagoe, Esq. the last surviving son of Abraham Jagoe, Esq. of said place.
In London, of fever, Mr. Daniel M'Carthy, originally of Kerry.
In Westport, Mr. John Macready.
Robert, second son of the late Edward Kent, Esq. Stephen's-green, Dublin.
Wednesday, at Alta Villa, the residence of her father, near Cork, Delia Augusta, second daughter of Dr. Woodroffe.
At the house of his uncle, Andrew Vance, Esq. Rutland-square, James, eldest son of John Falls, Esq. of Dungannon.
Thomas Hayden, Esq. an old and respectable merchant of Clonmel.
At Douglas Road, Cork, Mr. Cornelius Homan Eames.
Of mortification of the foot, James Charles Wood, Esq. late Captain 71st Regt.
At Clontarf, Luke Norman, Esq. of North Frederick-street.
At Golden Terrace, Pentonville, Mrs. Munden, widow of the celebrated Joe Munden, the veteran comedian.
In Belfast, Mr. Valentine Rennie, the celebrated professor of the Irish harp, and second cousin to Robert Burns, the poet.—He performed before George IV. on his Majesty's visit to Dublin, and was appointed professor to the harp in connection with the Irish Harp Society in Belfast.
At Neddins, Tipperary, the residence of her father, Ellen, daughter of Francis Mulcahy, Esq.
At Clogheen, on Monday night, Margaret, wife of Mr. Mich. O'Donnell.
At Castle Dawson, in the 38th year of his age, F. K. Bouverie, Esq. late Captain 62d Regt. and son of Edward Bouverie, of Delapre Abbey, Esq. Northamptonshire.
At Sidmouth, Edward Lee, Esq. formerly M. P. Waterford and Dungarvan.
At St. Margaret's Bay, Kent, Anne, wife of J. Ratch, Esq. R. N. chief officer of coast guard.
At Harbledown, Canterbury, Ellen, daughter of Lieut. Archer, late 48th Regt.
At the Earl of Carnarvon's, Highclere, Susan, Countess of Guilford, widow of the late George Augustus Earl of Guilford.
R. J. Stevens, Esq. Organist of the Charter-house, and Gresham lecturer, London, at an advanced age.
Mr. Isaac Hardman, of Trinity-street, Cambridge.
In Bedford-Row, London, Dr. Uwins.
At Tenby, South Wales, Eliza Camilla, only daughter and heiress of the late Cadwallader Edwards, Esq. of Ballyhire, Wexford.
At Poynton Park, Stockport, Lady Vernon, Viscountess Bulkeley.
At Gosport, Mrs. Elizabeth, wife of Captain William Green.
Francis H. Kelly, Surgeon, Islington.
At Twickenham, Michael, eldest son of Captain H. Stewart, R. N. aged 17.
At sea, on his passage from Jamaica to London, Mr John M'Auliffe, son of the late Mr. Andrew M'Auliffe, of Cork.
At Barbadoes, Rebecca Anne, wife of C. T. Cunningham, Esq. Colonial Secretary.

of all accounts due to him, and nouncement of his intention to sel
15 READY MONEY
that he will not be obliged to refuse
No. 36, George's

AN EXTENSIVE AND SPLENDID WINTER GOODS
Is now unpacking at the West of England and London HAT Establishments
MRS. PATRICK-S
(WITHIN ONE DOOR OF DE
Michael M'Namara
HAS to announce to the Public the first arrival (for the present) of Winter Goods, comprising an entire department of his business, which will be found not to be exceeded by any other in West of England CLOTHS & HATS—This department is extensive, comprising a variety of the first manufactures from some of the first manufacturers in London, comprising a variety of colours worn; also, an extensive collection of HATS—This department is extensive, comprising a variety of the first manufactures from some of the first makers in London, and most fashionable shapes worn.
M'NAMARA takes this opportunity to thank the Public for the kind patronage he has received since its opening, and to assure them that nothing on his part will be wanting to merit their continuance. In selecting the stock with care and notice, he has spared neither time nor expense, and on inspection, will be found at prices only one price will be asked for the lowest marked in plain figures.
An Apprentice Wanted.

Auction of EXHAUSTIVE HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE,
At the "Limerick Commercial Buildings," Brunswick-street, Limerick.
On WEDNESDAY NEXT, the 11th inst., JOSEPH MARSHALL has the honor to announce that he is instructed to sell by public auction a very elegant collection of useful and valuable Plate, Ware, &c.—Sale at One o'clock.
Among the Furniture will be found a variety of Parlour Chairs, handsome Pedestal Tables, Wardrobe, Sofa, Lounge, Secretary and Book-case, Pier-table, and a handsome Piano Forte by Cleme-son, with improvements; Bedstead, Curtains, Beds, Bedding, Bed-room Carpet, Basin-stands, Commodes, Biddiscombe Bed-room Chairs, large Kitchen and Rods, Hall-bell and Chair, Curtains, Hair Mattresses.
The PLATED WARE (which has been used,) consists of Venetian Dish, Side Dishes, Cruet Frame, Liquor Snuffers and Trays, Salvers, Spoons, &c.
JOSEPH MARSHALL
On Private Sale—A Bath tub, constructed on approved principles.