

pel at Lyme, Dorset-
ich John Stein, Esq.

—THURSDAY.

d for sale at this fair
at of any previous year, ether shown was about disposed of at excel-000 sheep were sold,
d of, on the first day,
aced at eleven o'clock, sed of at two. On were in good demand,
5s. on the preceding aher) sheep exceeded 0 ewes, three and four rams were allowed, by or to any ever shown ired at from 17l. to 21l.
at 55s. and his second 200 tups at 52s. 6d.; at 45s. and Mr. T.
ve hoggets, which did
f some at four pounds on, purchased a lot at Roscommon, sold a French, for 52s. 6d.
t been so brisk a sheep estetra's horses were ed from 50l. to 150l.
purchaser of one horse
ther, for 100l.

Blakeney, commanding aken severely ill, and nsequence of which the veral corps in Dublin

have settled in this Carroll; we find Dr.
and devoted attention Cholera Hospital and e unanimous approbaurhood; the gentry of esigning, published an s in February, 1836, reditable. Dr. Davies
keaton, been Hospital
h Doctor Marsh.
wledges £10 from the
of the amateur play, to f the Poor; also, £1 nt, Esq. and £1 from same object.
of Industry thankfully ay of £5 from Major
s. from Col. Mansel, of the above Asylum,
an beings.

At Madras, Lieut. R. Hamilton, 1st N. I. to Mary, eldest daughter of Captain Cox, 54th Regt.

DEATHS.

On the 7th inst, at Castle-Connell, after a tedious illness, which he bore with Christian resignation, Joseph Gubbins Bouchier, Esq. late of Prospect Hill, in this county.

At Ashgrove, in this county, on Sunday last, John Upton, Esq. a gentleman of the most humane and beneyolent disposition—a patron and kind friend to the poor in his neighbourhood.
His loss is regretted by a large and respectable circle of relatives and friends. He died in the full assurance of a glorious eternity, through faith in Jesus Christ his blessed Saviour and Redeemer.

In this Garrison, Corporal James Howard, Bombadier Royal Horse Artillery. He was interred yesterday with military honors, by the officers and men of his own corps in full dress, and the soldiers of the Queen's Bays, the body being drawn on a gun-carriage.

At Enniskillen, Andrew Armstrong, Esq. brother of the late Rev. George Armstrong, of Cork.

On Monday last, at her residence, at Thorp Arch, in the 90th year of her age, Elizabeth, relict of Captain Vincent, son of the late Alderman Vincent, of Parteen, near this city.

At his house, in Laurence-street, Dublin, in his 82d year, Edward Fairtlough, Esq. M. D. Doctor Fairtlough was the senior Alderman of the Corporation of Drogheda.

Mary, wife of Mr. Hugh M'Mahon, of Clones.

In Drogheda, Sarah Jane, youngest daughter of Edward Atkinson, Esq.

At Kilcock, Rose, daughter of John Colgan, Esq.

In Maryboro', Mr. John Campion.

At Mountrath, William Dowson Roberts, of Kilbrickin, Esq.
a member of the Society of Friends.

In Maryboro', Mr. John McDonnell.

At Miltown, county Galway, Mr. Charles O'Connor.

Aged 78 years, Mr. Ambrose Morrison, of Waterford:

In Drogheda, Edward Fairtlough, Esq. M. D.

At Cork Hill, Dublin, Mary Kingsmill, wife of Henry James Sibthorpe, M.D. and daughter of Kingsmill Brady, Esq. Mallow.

At Bandon, in the 75th year of his age, Francis M'Carthy, Esq.
late of Laurel Hill, county Cork.

At Bothwell, Dr. James Dalziel, Royal Navy.

At Ilfracomb, Margaret, daughter of the late celebra'd Dr.
Wm. Cullen, of Edinburgh.

In Sloane-street, London, aged 19, Louise, youngest daughter of Dr. Baillie, Deputy Inspector-General of Army Hospitals.

In Green-street, Grosvenor-square, Carolina, widow of the Hon. Basil Cochrane, of Portman-square.

Aged 90, at Glandovan, Pembrokeshire, Abel Anthony Gower, Esq. brother of the late Admiral Sir Erasmus Gower, and formerly a merchant of London.

At Harbledown, Canterbury, Ellen, daughter of Lieut. Archer, late 48th Regt.

At Drumsheugh, Edinburgh, Sir Patrick Walker, Chief Usher of the White Rod for Scotland.

Captain George Bevan, of Cambridge-Row, Hackney, in his 94th year.

In Upper Brook-street, Grosvenor-square, Grantley Francis, fourth son of the Hon. William and Mrs. Best.

At Cheltenham, Mary Ann, relict of the late Captain Flint, R. N. and sister of the late Sir Stamford Raffles.

Mr. McCrie, Director of the Normal Schools, Glasgow.

At Somerstowh, Mr. George Purvis, Printer, formerly of Glasgow.

At Falmouth, Jamaica, William Watkins, son of the Rev. W.
Knibb, Baptist Minister.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, on the 2d instant, in his 65th year, Colonel Neil Mackellar, C. B. late of the 1st Royal Regiment of Foot, in which he served 39 years in the East and West Indies.

Off Madeira, on board H. M. S. Pearl, Lieut. Edward Williams, Royal Navy,

In camp, at Vishnoochuckram, of cholera, Lieut. Col. J. Noble, 43d N. I.

At Bellary, Lieut. C. Nott, 41st Regt.

Lieut. J. F. Rose, 1st L. C.

At New-York, W. Fraser, Esq. M. D. late Royal Navy.

Creagh, alias Clonetra and each of their sever tenances, situate in t Moyarta, and County
thereof for the purpos
Dated this 2nd day

For Rental and to be made to Messrs.
Attorney, 20 Summer
and HUNT, Attorney
M'MAHON, 25 Col
O'DWYER, Esq. Rece

CH
COUNT
James Ferguson,
Plaintiff,
Edward Bourke Eyre,
and Others, Defend

Same
a.
Martin.

o'Clock, in the aftern quay, Dublin, set up highest and fairest bid of Four Hundred year Nineteenth day of Ap dred—and All That a of Cloone, otherwise
thereunto belonging,
Fourteen Acres, Stafo
of Kiltarton and Coun
Lands of Cappunugh
Staford's survey, situ said County, the Esta BOURKE EYRE, in th petent part thereof f specified.—Dated this

The Lands of Capp
thereof, have been fo
Irish Plantation meas valuable Bog attache 2 r. which is capable Lands upon the expira
existence, of which th will bring £100 a-yea
The above Sa
adjourned to MOND next, at the hour of C being already sold.— 1837.

For further particu
dition of Sale, apply
GUSON, Plaintiff's Sol
Dublin; or to JAM
Receiver, Galway.