

glas, and Ensigns Nugent, Kin-Surgeon Scott. Lieut. Wilson, 47th—Captain Wright, Ensigns Fox. 56th—er and Conran. ton and Gordon. Captain Leman, -Captain Dean, 69th—Captain Ensigns Coates, Captains Holyoake her for the Medi-haps neither. ction by Admiral ers at Brighton, tion of their disci-ve shall next have by some gallant f the compliment uite surprised the dmit that it is the any years, not ex- Alderman Cash, ervice, by the sale lary force in Eug-ances, appears to only disappointed Dublin Metropo-ood authority that y supply ready to the act passed for done in the inspec- l, Mr. Arkins, the ch easier to offer to n order, as clothing it will experience, competent to do so. et merchant under- eat coats in Dublin, ands. Mr. Howell, the ne shilling towards srs. O'Connell and at he had given to succeeded, and in ed, left St. Sebas-prise Guetaria; it , with much booty.

Cox Bowden, Esq. Brook-park, county Cork, to Mary Elizabeth, only surviving daughter of the late James Wolf Charlton, Esq. Curraghtown, county Meath?
At Pondicherry, East Indies, Robert H. Rennick, Esq. M. D. East India C's Ser. son of the late Major Rennick, of Derryargan, Enniskillen, to Miss La Bel, grand-daughter of the Viscount De Parny.

DEATHS.

At Milan, on the 23d ult. Jonas Morris Sealy, of Gortnahorna, county Cork, Esq. a Magistrate of that county.
In Dublin, of fever, Nathaniel Bland, third son of Francis C. Bland, of Derry Quin Castle, Kerry, Esq.
At Ennis, the wife of James Boyd, Esq. Surveyor for this city. Saturday morning, at his residence, Canning place, Passage, Cork, after a long and painful illness, occasioned by the upset of a boat, William Parker, Esq. The deceased devoted much time in endeavours to ameliorate the condition of the poor, to whom he was a kind friend; and whilst he was at the Cape of Good Hope, cheerfully sacrificed his own personal interest, and that of his family, rather than be the instrument of injustice.
At the house of her relative, John Primrose, Esq. Tralee, Miss M'Crohan.
On Friday, at Carrick-on-Suir, Richard Dooly, Esq.
At Beaumont, Dublin, Maria, wife of Arthur Guinness, Esq.
At Sunday's-well, in her 89th year, Mrs. Susanna Herrick, late of Kinsale.
At South Great George's-street, Dublin, Mr. Thomas O'Hara, of the Quarter-Master General's Office, Lower Castle-Yard.
In Dublin, Sir Percy Gethin, Bart. of Percymount, near Sligo. He is succeeded by his grandson, Richard, of Heavitree, near Exeter.
In Armagh, Hugh Hawthorne, Esq. solicitor.
At Headford, county Galway, Mrs. Jemison.
In Henry-street, Dublin, after a short illness, Miss Durham.
This day week, in Duncan-street, Cork, John Brumhall, Esq. a retired Commander of the Royal Navy, formerly of Lough Foyle, Donegal.
Margaret, wife of Charles Costello, Esq. Ffrenchville, Galway.
At New Ross, Sarah, eldest daughter of Joseph Lanphier, Esq.
At his residence Oldcourt, county Dublin, James Magrane, Esq. aged 77.
Mrs. Margaret Kenny, of New Ross, aged 72.
In Wexford, Richard, son of R. Green, Esq. Comp. Customs.
At Tunbridge Wells, the Hon. Jane Smith, daughter of Lord Carrington.
In London, Frances, relict of the late Matthew Derinzy, Esq. of Clobemon Hall, county Wexford.
At Cheltenham, Francis Byrt Morgan, Esq. of Shepton Mallet, a Deputy Lieutenant of Somerset.
In Liverpool, Mr. Thomas Rigby.
At Fenton's Hotel, the Right Hon. Lord Glenlyon, aged 55.
At Caverswall Castle, Staffordshire, Mrs. Shuttleworth, Abbess of the Benedictine Nuns, of that place.
At Lymington, Hants, John Forbes, Esq. late of the Navy Pay Office.
At Fulham, Philip Francis, Esq. son of the late Sir Philip Francis.
At Rochester, Alexander Broadfoot, M. D. Dep. Insp. Hosp.
At Gateshaw, Roxburgshire, aged 64, Sir Charles Ker, Principal Director of the Medical Department of the British Army, and a Deputy Lieutenant of Roxburgshire.
At Pease, near Paris, Jane, wife of Charles Blake, jun. Esq. of Merlin Park, Galway.
At Versailles, Mrs. Henderson, widow of the late A. Henderson, Esq. M. P.
At sea, Charles Forbes Gordon, of the 19th Madras Infantry.
At Montreal, Lower Canada, Eliza, wife of R. H. Hamilton, Esq. of the Customs.
Edward Faunce, Esq. late Lieut.-Colonel of the 4th or King's Own Regiment, and of St. Mary's Hall, Kent, aged 73.
At Southwell, Captain Stenton, formerly of the Nottingham Militia—He shot himself in his garden.
At Calcutta, in May last, the Hon. Frederick John Shore, Chief Commissioner for the Saugur and Nerbudda Provinces.

Masters, about 1000 Vol-ful and ornamental Fur-nificent Pier and Chimne-French Musical Clock, el-Kitchen and Pantry requ-and well matched grey-Harness, nearly new; Stable Furniture, &c. &
This attractive Proper-Saturday, the 20th and 2-of the Books and Paintir-Admission by Tickets of-MARSHALL, Commercial-George's-street.

Valuable Fr
IN THE COUNTY O
TO BE SOLD the Lar-
BOY and GRAIG
FRANCIS GREEN, Esq. Charleville, in the Baro-Limerick, containing in-prime Land, statute me-monage and right of Tu-renewable for ever, at-subject to the yearly he-producing as at present-
Profit rent of £678 15s-ten highly respectable s-valuable Interest in thei-neighbourhood.
Apply (if by letter p-Cove; GEORGE DA-or at the Chronicle Off

Woodside
NEA
PETER BAYLOR b-the Nobility and C-are at present abundant-of Fruit, Forest and C-and Flowering Shrubs, the exposed situation-tiguous to Cairn moun-bleakest and most barr-P. B. avails himself-thanks for the decided-and by strict attention-a stock of Trees unsur-South of Ireland, he b-patronage.
N.B.—Priced Catal-cation at the Nurseri-the fairest Terms, and Woodside N