

Whitehall, Oct. 16, 1837.
The meeting will meet on Wednesday for the choice of a Speaker, the 20th, to the despatch request your attendance on Monday to be your most obedient servant,
"J. RUSSELL."

One hundred and fifty Roman Catholics voted for Mr. Vessey, at the election.

Admitted to Clonmel gaol for an Ahern, a farm servant, at Dungarvan on Monday, a horse, Cock Robin and a zelle, for a bet of £40 in sporting country. Cock Robin by Thomas O'Brien, Esq., and by E. Longan, Esq. of Commissioners for Ireland having been appointed to the office of the Treasurership of St. John's, after the death of the Rev. John Orr, met on Wednesday, to discuss the matter, but without success. F.T.C.D. was appointed.

Also recommended the suppression of the English Martin, in the diocese of the Rev. John Orr. The Master in Chancery, is quite satisfied that he enjoyed better health for at Mr. John Scully is to be removed, has been appointed to the County of Waterford; and appointed a tide-waiter, in at the Clonmel Protestants meeting on Thursday, when a considerable number of persons were present. Joseph Cooke, of at the Clonmel Protestants meeting on Friday, for the next theatrical performance, the evening's entertainment, and Turning the Tables.

The Ordnance has appointed Mr. C. B. of the Royal Engineers, K. H. in the command of the department in Ireland.

Also appointed Colonel Sir John Macartney, to the Royal Engineer department at Major General Mann.

Rev. Henry Dyson, Rector of Wrexham, Bucks, to Fanny Jane, daughter of the late Rev. J. A. Woolls, Vicar of Fareham Hants.
At All Saint's, Dorchester, John Neville Fielder, Esq. to Ellen Harriet, eldest daughter of W. C. Callow, Esq. M. D. of the Inniskilling Dragoons.
At Holcombe Burnell, Devon, Benjamin Cherry, Esq. to Northau, Deputy Lieutenant for Hertfordshire, to Charlotte Cassander, third daughter of the Lord Bishop of Exeter.

DEATHS.

On Monday last, Andrew Vokes, Esq. of Ballinacurra, in the 99th year of his age. This venerable Gentleman was able to walk in his garden until a few days before his death, and retained full possession of his mental faculties.

At Summerhill-house, the seat of his brother-in-law, George Newenham, Esq. of an apoplectic attack, William Watson, Esq. of Glaneskin-lodge, near Kilworth, Cork.

Saturday, of fever, caught in the discharge of his duties, in the 25th year of his age, the Rev. Hamilton J. Maginnis, of Frankford, King's county. It was only a few days before he was attacked with the illness which has terminated fatally, that he received the order of priesthood, at Glasnevin Church, from the Bishop of Kildare.

In Bridge-street, Mrs. Mulready, wife of Mr. James Mulready, cabinet-maker.

At her house in Harcourt-place, Dublin, Miss Catherine Davoren, daughter of the late James Davoren, Esq. co. Clare,

At Tralee, Thomas Neligan, Esq.

At Scilly, Kinsale, of apoplexy, Lieut. James Coane, half-pay Unattached, late of the 73d Regt.

At Lower Glanmire-road, Cork, Mr. John Warner,

At Odorney, Listowel, Mr. Thomas Rice.

At his father's house, Lower Glanmire-road, Cork, James, eldest son of Thomas James Fitzgerald, Esq.

The Rev. Daniel O'Rafferty, P. P. of Forkhill.

Dominica, wife of Mr. James Fogarty, Summer-hill.

Christopher, son of Christopher Drake, Roristown, county Meath, Esq.

At Charlemont-street, Dublin, George, son of the late William Smyth, of that city.

At York-street, Dublin, George Edmund, youngest son of James Curtis, Esq.

In Maryboro', Mr. Henry Coleman.

At Stapleton, Gloucestershire, Thomas Jones, Esq. aged 90.

Robert Child, Esq. of Russell-square, London.

At Windsor, Mrs. Jeffreys, aged 72.

At Dedham-lodge, Barbara, wife of the Rev. J. T. Hurlock, D. D. Prebendary of Sarum, and Rector of Langham, Essex, sister of Sir T. Barrett Lennard, Bart.

At Bolton, aged 86, Thomas Cooper, Esq. 42 years Assistant Actuary of the Equitable Assurance Office, Blackfriars.

At Walmer, Kent, Mary Fuller, wife of Rear Admiral E. W. Browne.

At Roche Court, Southampton, James Whalley Smythe Gardiner, Esq. eldest son of Sir J. W. S. Gardiner, Bart.

At Geneva, Thomas Macalister, only son of A. Slater, Esq. Liverpool.

At Gower-street, London, Thomas Martin, Esq. barrister.

At Somerset-place, Somerset-house, aged 32, Fanny, daughter of the late Captain Daniel Ross, R. N. and widow of the late J. Theodore Rooney, Esq. of Newry.

In Hoxton-square, London, Elizabeth, wife of the Rev. Watts Wilkinson.

At Carnsalloch, Scotland, aged 88, Peter Johnston, Esq. formerly of the English bar, and 50 years ago M. P. for Kirkcudbright.

At Portobello, Edinburgh, Catherine Anne, daughter of Lieut. Macartney, 9th or Queen's Lancers.

In September last, at Lisbon, Captain Christie of Leslie Park, Strathgshire.

At Doyleston, Philadelphia, Thomas Henderson Brown, of typhus fever, son of the Rev. Adam Brown, Kilmarnock.

WILLIAM LEC
ELIAS
JOHN
JAMES J.

THE advantage
utmost po Society, by the
is founded on th
original model
exercised by th
lives, but in the
nomy of its ma
almost no Socie
the small amou
management, an
security of the p
bution of the s
that the Memb utmost, all the possibly procure

This Society
HEREAFTER bes
the sure and st
to the solid and ferred on those sisting of a Bon upon the sum as
the premiums po
third of the pro
looked for mort calculation. T permanency and
such as the Scot fund, whence is receiving the Bo

Proprietary
Capital Stock,
with this decid
Society, that th
of no sudden or
augment the pr
whereas, in Pro
not to the assur
but always tend

Prospectuses,
mation, obtaine
Society's Agenc

SCOTTISH A
Glasgow
A