eace, be a. in, arrives here now was murdered by returning from the street, Cork, of Mr. ground. invitation to dinner tion, a most Radical ersal suffrage, and all of Government. nmon Pleas, London as brought by Mr. ing Chronicle, against ie Age newspaper, fer latter journal on the mputed to Mr. Eastthe Stock Exchange deficiencies, and then ras a debt of honour taken for the plaintiff. he House of Industry the inclosure it refers f the Provincial Bank Bank of Ireland." erick, 28th Oct. 1837." nt you that I have this London Office, of the e bearer." ROBERT HUNTER."

dged by an anonymous y, North Strand, which our obedient servant," y-On the Bench, the lderman Crips. Infor ane Mulcahy, for keepging to Richard Rose for delapidating the against Margaret and on Mary Connors er, for rescuing a pig Police; against Michael ag Johanna Molony and nat Bridget Crowe, for nerine O'Brien; agains Ryan, for assaulting and Margaret Ryan for nst Edmond Barry for Thomas Bull, saddler Donohue for assaulting a Kilfoy, for assaulting as ordered to pay 8s. 6d on his lands.

Burlington-street. At Edinburgh, on the 5th Sept. Dr. S. S. Alison, of Tranent, to Mary, eldest daughter of the late Captain John James Hamilton, Adjutant General's Department, Bengal Army.

On the 21st ult. at St. Peter's, Leeds, Charles Hancock, Esq. of Clapton, to Helena Mary, daughter of Mowld Robinson, Esq. John Browne, Esq. of Bellsbrae, one of the Magistrates of Kilmarnock, to Mary, daughter of Archibald Morris, Esq.

DEATHS.

In Denmark-street, after a short illness, Miss Margaret Bourke, daughter of the late Tobias Bourke, Esq. of Nenagh. she was highly esteemed for her mental endowments and moral standing in society.

On Sunday morning, of fever, at his father's residence, Plassy, near this city, aged 17 years, James Christy, eldest son of Reuben Harvey, Esq. a young gentleman whose amiable disposition and early promise of creditably filling the various duties of an upright citizen, render his demise a source of deep and poignant grief to an affectionate family.

In Patrick-street, Bridget, wife of Mr. William Taylor, hardware merchant.

On Monday, the 23d ult. at Tenby, John Lavallin Puxley, jun. Esq. only son of John Lavallin Puxley, Esq. of Dunboy-house, county Cork.

At Demerara, of fever, Captain Henry Briscoe, Royal Engineers, son of the late Edward Villiers Briscoe, of Willmount, County Kilkenny, Esq. Captain Briscoe was a distinguished Officer in the Corps to which he belonged. He served eighteen Years in Kingston, Upper Canada, where he constructed various public works of magnitude. On his departure from that town the inhabitants memorialed Government for his recal, in so Freat respect was he held as an Officer and a Gentleman.

At Donard House, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Abraham Critchly, of Casino, county Wicklow, Esq.

At Bath Lodge, Sligo, Frances Ann, daughter of Captain Cochrane.

At his residence in Henry-st. Dublin, Mr. Geo. Payne, aged 78 Years.—For twenty-seven years he filled the office of Chief of the late Mr. C. M'Mahon. Mr. John Lee, Newspaper Agent, of Abbey-street, Dublin. At Rathmines, Jane, youngest danghter of Alfred de Lessart, Esq; of Stephen's-green, dentist. At the Manor, Waterford, Mr. George Lyon.

Constable of the 3d Division, Dublin. On Sunday last, at Comber, George Johnston, Esq. distiller. Suddenly, in Belfast, Mr. Thomas Harrison, officer of Excise. In Dundalk, at an advanced age, Mrs. Alicia M'Mahon, relict

At Kilkea, near Athy, Mr. Jonathan White. In Fethard, Margaret, widow of Richard Walshe, Esq. of Tullamaine.

At her father's residence, Leeson-street, Dublin, aged 18,

Nannie, daughter of P. Burrowes, Esq.

Lady Catherine Bathurst, sister to the late Earl Bathurst, aged 72.

in Regent-street, the Lady of Frances Brodigan, Esq. barrister-at-law, of Dublin. John Russell, Esq. solicitor, only son of the late John Russell, Esq. of Russell-place. The Rev. Daniel Warr, author of "Letters on Church Reform,"

"Lectures on the Pilgrim's Progress," &c.

At Weimar, the celebrated composer, Hummel. On Friday night, 21st ult. at his residence, Gravesend, Kent, Samuel Hazard, Esq. in his 84th year.

In Liverpool, Jane, third daughter of the late Thomas Hayes, Esq. of Denbigh.

At Dryburgh Abbey, Sir David Erskine.

At Gray's Inn, Major Wilson, in his 80th year.

At Sittingbourne, Kent, Emma, wife of Captain W. L. Castle, R. N. and second daughter of Sir John Hill, R. N.

James, eldest son of Alexander Dennistoun, Esq. of Golf hill. At Woolwich, Staff Serjeant Hill, of the Rocket Troop Royal Horse Artillery.

John Tait, Esq. Secretary to the Duke of Buccleugh.

At his house, Place de Neuilly, Paris, at the advanced age of Wyears, Major-General William Armstrong, many years ago a popular leading character in Derry.

TIANO-FOR WAREROOMS,

M'CULLAGH

D ESPECTFULLY extensive Warer with an elegant assor Piano-fortes and Harp fully chosen by their following eminent Mar lard, and Collard, Er

Several Second double action Harps, Spring Caravans for th Piano-fortes and Harp

Tuners of Experience ment of Spanish and Rudall's Flutes, Violo Guitar, and Violin str

** Country orde Music Warerooms, House from Suffolk-st where every new M weekly per Mail from Paper, Blank Books article connected with

A fresh supply of L just received.

/ Equity Jane Grnsby O'Bei Spin ter, Plaintiff.

Maria M'Mahon, wi and several others, Defendants.

the 14th day of June 8th day of Novem o'Clock at Noon, quay, Dublin, set u best bidder, all that a CLONINA, alias C Clonigallon, Cragg, Creagh, alias Clonet and each of their seve tenances, situate in Moyarta, and Count thereof for the purpo Dated this 2nd day

For Rental and to be made to Messr Attorney, 20 Summ and HUNT, Attorn M'MAHON, 25 C O'DWYER, Esq. Re