Police Constable Riedy has apprehended in this City, a delinquent of the name of Thomas Enright, who it is feared has committed extensive depredations upon travellers, having made it his forte to watch the arrival of stage coaches, and possess himself of travellers' luggage in the hurry and confusion attendant upon such vehicles. This week Serjeant Riedy recovered, with other articles, part of the effects of a foreign traveller, on a tour in Ireland last summer, and evidently, from the diploma found among his books and papers, a professional gentleman. The diploma is that of M.D. of the University of Paris, and the practitioner is described as Sieur Charles I. Fauconnet, of Geneva.

Thursday, the Mayor held an inquest upon the body of Hannah Crotty, who died in Hospital of violent injuries inflicted on her person, while in a state of pregnancy. It appears the unfortunate woman ran to assist her husband while engaged in a conflict with one Michael Sheedy, who then struck her and knocked her down, by which, four ribs in her right side were broken, and premature accouchment ensued, of which she died.
A warrant has been issued against Michael Sheedy.
