

age had arisen from a coigne mountains. It early stage, as the real parties can only be then defendants come in to i, now on record. The parte at present, and it ference pendente lite.
 ty-five criminal convice Magistrates at Thurles very indicative of the Tipperary.
 y, attacked the house of leur's-wells, Tipperary, an entrance, they fired ws and posted a threaten-ublican, named Carroll, in that town, by a lady unds, sterling, extracted. ednesday last, disposed to be the best in Scotland, the original cost.

Y—On the Bench, the Gavin, and F. Spaight, 5s. or 4 days imprison-Bridget Nolan; Sergeant er, for having a saddle in olen; Mann gave up the possession of Mr. Clees forward; Blakeney and William Ryan, at the Operative Conser-last—Ievers being sworn, of the Northumberland ark; that on the night in he rooms, and on going up d pulled down and kicked, e Popish rascal's brains Ledger striking him at or Dartnell deposed that e he came to the rooms; keys himself and lock the ing ever used the expresh said such conduct was arke, for keeping forcible ging to John Roche, a dered to find security to
 , of Broad-street. William as fined £1 for having his rits after nine on Sunday d 40s. for same. Mary the peace to Ellen Kelly.

Mont-terrace, Pentonville, to Sophia, daughter of Mr. David Allen, of Warwick-lane, Newgate-street.
 At St. George's, Hanover-square, Joseph Jekyll, Esq. to Anna Louisa, only daughter of the late Sir Charles William Flint.
 At St. Vincent's, Tertius Kendrick, Esq. Ordnance Storekeeper, to Isabella, daughter of the late Robert Lindsay, Esq. Jamaica.

DEATHS.

On Sunday last, at Craigg Lodge, near Fermoy, rather suddenly, William, second son of Henry Massy, of Springvale, county Tipperary, Esq.
 Tuesday, at his house, North Main-st. Cork, suddenly, Wm.
 Gosnell, sen. Esq. who for years conducted a Medical Establishment of great extent in that city.
 Wednesday, suddenly, Samuel Bewley, Esq. of William-st.
 Dublin, an eminent member of the Society of Friends. He was the first in the trade who imported tea direct from China.
 At Island-bridge Barracks, after a short illness, of fever, Lt.
 Cockburne, of the Royal Horse Artillery, leaving a widow and five children.
 The Rev. Matthew Kinsella, Roman Catholic Curate of Rath-villy, county of Carlow.
 In Crosbie Row, Dora, wife of Mr. William Parker, ship agent.
 In Bridge-street, Rebecca, wife of Mr. Robert Coote.
 At North Glastullie, near Tain, Ross-shire, Mr. Andrew Fraser, late in the employ of Messrs. Todd and Co. of this city.
 In Ennis, Mrs. O'Keeffe, widow of the late Mr. James O'Keeffe.
 In North Great Georges-street, Dublin, Elizabeth, the beloved and only remaining daughter of Edward Croker, Esq.
 Suddenly, at his house, Blessington-street, Dublin, John Moore, Esq.
 At Gardenmore, Larne, Henry John, eldest son of Solomon Darcus, Esq. Clerk of the Peace for the county Antrim.
 Ann, daughter of Mr. James Molloy, Jervis-street, Dublin.
 In Dublin, Mr. Joseph Carson.
 In Castlebar, Mrs. Maloney, wife of Mr. Austin Maloney.
 In Dublin, Thomas C. Madden, Esq.
 In Coleraine, John Cochran, Esq.
 Tuesday, at Castle-Connell, Captain George Ingham, R. N.
 In Cove-street, Cork, Mr. Samuel Miller.
 At Edgeworthstown, where he was for fifty years Parish Clerk, James Denniston, aged 84 years.
 At his mother's house, at Lucan, Wellington Clarke, Esq. youngest son of the late Edward Clarke, Esq. of Palmerston.
 At Williamstown Avenue, Jane, wife of Mr. John Caldwell, of Dublin.
 Cornelius, son of Bryan O'Donnell, Esq. Shanbally, Tipperary.
 At Orchardstown, Waterford, Miss Alice Walsh, niece of the late Mrs. Aylward, of Gracedieu.
 At Woolwich, Ann, eldest daughter of the late John MacCoy, Esq. Royal Artillery.
 At North Brixton, Surrey, George Grove Unwin, Esq. late of the Navy Office.
 At Penrith, Rowland Nicholson, Esq. Surgeon, in Upper Brooke-street, London, Emma Harriet, daughter of Michael Bruce, Esq. and Lady Parker.
 At Blackheath, Janet, only daughter of Captain Malcolm Nicolson, of the Bengal Native Infantry.
 At Tailleville, Normandy, on the 29th October, Sir Henry Osborne, Bart.
 At an advanced age, at Stonehouse, Mrs. General Williams.
 Mrs. Pascoe, wife of Mr. Pascoe, District Registrar, Devonport.
 At Cephalonia, of fever, Matilda, wife of the Rev. John Busherman, Chaplain to the Forces.
 On passage from Malaga to Cowes, R. Ratsey, Esq. of the Daring Yacht.
 At Rome, Cardinal Luigi Frezza, in the 55th year of his age.
 At Calcutta, William H. Phibbs, late a Lieutenant in the 21st Native Infantry, eldest son of W. H. Phibbs, of Kingstown.

tremely fine quality,
 Sale at ONE o'Clock
 The Trade will find Sale, as it is comple rupt's account, and procured. They we the celebrated firm 1834 and 5.

JOS
 HENRY O'SHEA, mission, and Assign

24
Raising

JOHN ABRAHAM
 His Friends of supplying of the ab given out in the bes several Hundred season, therefore ea disappointment ma
 Sold on reasonable to the best manner
 ABRAHAM, 8, Geor
 IMPOR

A supply of Hick with bold yellow, an has arrived this w
 "ANNE," Captain
 lection of Prime Haarlem, in Hollan

Outrag

HAVING been
 Saturday, th
 Molony and Patric at Fanningstown, w home from Limeri with stones on thei consisting of eig lying in wait for the the skull of the fo effects of which h latter so desperate death also. Now POUNDS sterling to conviction, with hereof, the perpet
 or TWENTY-FIV mation as shall lea tion, within the s 4th day of Novem