

of Ballinrobe.
 from the Depot of the 73d Regt.
 consisting of Ensign Bamford, one Officer, and 39 rank and file, garrison, with an escort under proceed on Monday for Cork,
 to join the service companies.
 freight ship has been appointed to the 8th, 37th, and 68th Regts. to and 89th to the West Indies.
 arrival at Malta with the 77th
 there embark the 70th for Barba-he will take the 65th to Quebec, with the 15th to Ireland. This is the economy of the rotation system,
 and in a few months by one vessel.
 at sea, besides the advantage of all other, with every accommodation, a short time to hear of no move-manner now described.
 been circulated of the 10th Hussars sent for India; the 9th Lancers is according to roster.
 antry Depot are not to leave Ireland.
 3d Fusileers, has gone on leave to orth, rank, age, or sex afford any the scurrilous attacks of the United we have no right to expect to be ilarly, when we recollect we have hat respectable print, by our expo-nual blunderings, especially during . The Editor says, we copy his we are anxious to know in what he we should apologise for an over-a question. He is original in his ility, and his ignorance; in his persons, and his equally abject re-

 e. To all of these he may, indeed, few will attempt to dispute, and as e.
 tried this Term in London which it
 e very interesting to military men;
 brought against the United Service erke, of the 77th Regt. Eminent engaged by both parties, and Captain confident of success.

to acknowledge £18 17s. 6d. net
 e play by the Limerick Garrison istributed in the following manner:—
 n, £11 17s. 6d.; Lying-in Hospital, ly of the son of an Officer, £2.

THIS DAY—On the Bench, the rips, and M. Gavin, Esq. Daniel e, George Riely, John Clampett, mmoned for having manure on the annoyance of the coaches and passenger if not removed within a week.
 ned 2s. 6d. for intoxication on the nformations were ordered against atrick M'Mahon, for assault on hree factory apprentices were sen-imprisonment, for absence from girl belonging to the factory, days imprisonment for throw-es warrant in the inspector's an was fined 2s. 6d. for abusive O'Neil; Michael Hackett was fined ng the passage in Wickham-street;
 ordered against John Dillon, for nder false pretences from Cath-st Wm. Taylor, for keeping possession belonging to John M'Namara;
 was fined £1 for having his house ick on Sunday night. The Magis-the Special Sessions, for revising 1838, when a number were qualified.

At Moulmein, Lieut. J. W. G. Kenny, 13th Madras Native
 Infantry, to Eliza, daughter of Lieut. Beatty, 62d Regt.
 At Dinapore, E. Sugard, Esq. 31st Regt. to Isabella, eldest daughter of Henry Hart, Esq. M. D.

DEATHS.

On the 10th inst. at Stream Hill, the family residence, at the advanced age of one hundred years, in the full possession of all mental faculties, Christopher Crofts, Esq. He was endowed with every virtue which could adorn the Christian and the Gentleman—steady and sincere in friendship, strict honor and integrity were the ruling principles of his conduct. His belief was in his God, and his faith in a Saviour, with whom it is hoped his spirit now dwells. He lived beloved and died deeply regretted by a numerous family, and an extensive circle of acquaintance.

Last Wednesday, at his house, in Mallow, John Evans, Esq.
 In Broad-street, yesterday, Mr. Michael Fitzgibbon, cabinet-maker, brother of the Rev. Henry Fitzgibbon, R. C. Curate of St. Mary's.

In George's-street, Miss Cleary, confectioner.
 At West House, Galway, the seat of J. L. Reilly, Esq. Helen Amelia, youngest daughter of the Rev. John Hill, Vicar of Donaghadee.

On Friday, at Langford-row, Cork, Jane, relict of St. Leger
 John Watkins, of Old Court, county Cork, Esq.

At Tramore, the Hon. Mrs. Armstrong, Lady of the Rev. W.
 Armstrong, of Meallife, county Tipperary, and daughter to the late Archbishop of Tuam, Baron Decies.

At the Institution, Edgeworthstown, Mary, wife of the Rev.
 Henry Murphy.

Of scarletina, at Weston Park, county Dublin, Margaret, fourth daughter of John H. Reid, Esq.

In Prussia-street, Dublin, Henry Collis, Esq.

In Bandon, on Sunday, Mr. George Perrott.

In Sligo, Thomas Brew, Esq.

Mr. Bishoff, late of the Theatre-royal, Hawkins'-street.

Of fever, at Ballinteer, Emily, daughter of Edward G. Mason, Esq.

In Enniskillen, aged 75 years, Mrs. Kiernan, relict of Bryan Kiernan, of Aughalough, county Leitrim, Esq.

Of fever, Jaques Nash, Esq. of Kilpatrick-house, Cork.

On Friday, in Denmark-street, Mr. James McTeigue.

Thursday, at Sheffield House, Maryborough, Matthew Cassan, Esq. late Major Queen's County Militia, the oldest magistrate and grand juror for that county, aged 84 years. Major Cassan was one of the few remaining members of the Volunteers of '98. A number of leases in the neighbourhood of Maryborough expire by his death.

In Clarence-street, Cork, Elizabeth Ruth, eldest daughter of the late James Cowen, Esq. Attorney.

At Connemara, Galway, Mr. John McDonough.

At Mallow, Kate, wife of Mr. Francis M'Keever, apothecary.

At Newcastle-house, Tipperary, Barbara, wife of Southwell Mulcahy, Esq.

Emma, wife of Mr. S. J. Eveleigh, Westmoreland-street, Dublin, and daughter of the late James Hooper, Esq. of Bath.

In Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Frances, relict of Robert Marshall, Esq. late of Upper Fitzwilliam-street.

Sarah, daughter of William Rudd, of Wexford, Esq.

In Upper Mount-st. Dublin, Stuart Weldon James Molony, Lieut. in the 6th Madras Light Cavalry, and late Adjutant in the Nizam's Horse.

On the 1st instant, at Boulogne-sur-Mer, Elizabeth Watson, upwards of 90 years of age—the widow of Mr. Watson, Assistant-Surgeon and Dispenser of the Royal Naval Hospital at Plymouth—the mother of Captain Watson, of the Marines, who died of fever on board the Polyphemus, at Jamaica, in 1805—of Lieut. Watson, who was drowned at the Nore while on duty, in 1797.

At his residence, South-street, Finsbury, Eliezar Montefiore,
 Esq. aged 77.

In St. Helen's-place, Samuel Winter, Esq. of Southwood-house, Isle of Thanet.

In Manchester, John Alexander, M. D.

At Up Park Camp, Jamaica, William Bond Lewis, aged 18, Ensign in the 56th Regt. and eldest son of the Rev. William Lewis, Vicar of Abbott's Langley, Herts.

In London, Mary Ann, wife of A. F. Gifford, Esq.

At Utrecht, Ann, relict of the late Admiral May, of the Dutch Navy.

At Woodbridge, near Guildford, Surrey, the Lady Harriet Onslow, only surviving daughter of the late Earl of Onslow.

At Manor-street, Circular-road, Michael Lawless Duigan, Esq.
 half-pay of the 57th, and formerly Assist. Surg. of the 89th Regt.

At Kenmare Castle, New Galloway, the Rev. R. Nixon, B.D. aged 78 years.

At West Park House, near Clifton, the Rev. Francis Knight, D. D. in the 71st year of age.

William Hargrave, a member of the Society of Friends, at his residence, Green-lanes, Stoke Newington.

Janet Patison, second daughter of the late William Patison, Esq. merchant, Edinburgh.

Charles Walton, of Haverhill, county of Essex, Esq. and late Major of the 4th Dragoons.

At York, Major-General Salmon, in the 72d year of his age.

At Funchal, Madeira, Martha, wife of Henry Kirk, Esq. of Piercefield Cottage, Regent's-park.

At sea, on board Her Majesty's Ship Vanguard, of dysentery, on his return from Athens to Malta, First Lieut. W. Topham, Royal Marines.

At Ghazeeepore, Lieut. T. W. Halfhide, 44th Foot, eldest son of Major B. Halfhide, Brig.-Major, King's Troops, Fort William.

of BELLGROVE, containing 80 Irish Acres sheltered, divided, and beautifully planted, poss-a command of water which might be made ava-to machinery of any kind; an extensive range of built offices with a large garden, stocked with finest fruit trees, and enclosed with a 16 feet of singular beauty and workmanship. There the premises a good supply of Turbary and man-BELLGROVE is situated in the midst of a sp-country, remarkable for its beauty and good two miles from Borrisokeane and six of Nenaglatter will become one of the Assize Towns County of Tipperary, and possesses advantages residence for any private gentleman not often met and which only require inspection to be appreciated.

Application (if by letter post-paid) to GOR-LEONARD, Esq. Bellgrove, Borrisokeane. The Ston the premises will shew the lands.

November

Parsonstown Fever Hospital

AT a Meeting of the Committee, held at the Hospital, Parsonstown, on Saturday, Nov-6th, 1837, the following Resolution was unanimagreed to:—

We, the undersigned Members of the Com-appointed to superintend the Building of the Hospital, in this Town, hereby wish to express our qualified approval of the workmanlike and satisfmanner, in which Mr. Hanley executed the according to his Contract.

Oxmantown, John Smith, Thomas Hackett, Marcus M'Causland, John Melsopp,	John Egan, Thomas Cox, Richard Robinson, John Warburton.
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------

Coghlan's Hotel, Parsonstown
 Nov. 6, 1837.

MY LORD,—I have to return your Lordship, a Gentlemen of the Committee generally, my most thanks for the very high compliment you have paid and beg to say that it is a source of pride and pl-to me, that any humble exertion of mine in forward the Works of so charitable an Institution, put fo-by your Noble Father and yourself, for the relief Sick Poor of Parsonstown and its surrounding bourhood, should meet your Lordship's approbati-

I remain, my Lord, with great respect,

Your obedient servant

JOHN HANLEY

To Lord Oxmantown, &c.

Nov.

BIRTHS.

At Camira Glebe, Queen's county, the Lady of the Rev.
 Kemmis, of a son.

At Lauraville, Mallow, the Lady of Eyre Coote Croke
 of a daughter.

At Kilkenny, the Lady of Edmond Smithwick, Esq. of at Cragbeg, the Lady of Captain Vandeleur, of a son.

Mrs. Young, Lady of the Rev. M. Young, of Lisbella daughter.

At Saunders-court, Wexford, the Lady of the Rev. V.
 Narcissus Lyster, of a son.

At Carrickfergus, the Lady of the Rev. Henry Cart-
 daughter.

At Clarence Buildings, Cork, the Lady of the Rev.
 Beauchamp, of a daughter.

Wednesday, in Leeson-street, Dublin, the Lady of T.
 Lefroy, Esq. of a daughter.

The Lady of William Hales Carroll, Esq. of Harcourt
 Dublin, of a daughter.

At Grenane Cottage, Mrs. Alexander Peallissier, of a
 In Cumberland-terrace, Regent's-park, the Lady of V.
 Newton, Esq. of a son.

At St. John's House, Cheltenham, the Lady of Major Ch-
 of a daughter.

At Pitfour Castle, N. B. the Lady of Sir John S. Rich-
 of a daughter.

At Fintray house, Aberdeenshire, on the 6th inst. the Lady Forbes, of Craigievar, of a son.