

cks and quays remain in an hedral is to be built at Belfast,
men-hall.

Mr. Downes, to publish some ect new and interesting to the avourite of the Muses is the ilation, whose merit has won
in the Temple of Fame.
on Wednesday.

r Cecil-street, Treasurer to edges ten shillings from the per Alderman Gabbett.
rrington's Hospital and City
hfully acknowledges £1, a Rhodes, Esq. in support of n part of our last impression :

'clock, the Commissioners for anon assembled at the Tholsel
cate upon the respective claims
e removal of mills, eel weirs, and secure navigation of the
ers presiding are Colonel Bur-Jones, and Richard Griffith,
eene is their Assessor, and Mr.
opened the proceedings in a ature and objects of the com-mote a work of great national e free navigation of the first ere is a singularly novel prin-
s occasion, the ordinary adjunct ess the value of premises hav-
as the Commissioners possess
under a special Act of Parliampensation to claimants, and ction in these matters. As an ctors on the Upper and Lower
such extensive improvements,
Chancellor of the Exchequer,
e foregone all private consid-

loss, is appointed a Magistrate

Scotland for vindicating the ust had a meeting, at which
d to petition against any addi-granted to the church of Scot-petitions to be got up in every e same effect.

ans having got into the church
, contrived to enter the church windows. They forced open y a silver chalice and plate, a rplices and robes. They also and drank another on the spot.

CHEQUER—MONDAY.

amly v. John Ryan and others.
at up in the custody of the sion of rebellion, for the nonprisoner stated that he was ee weeks, and confined in the d that he was taken in a wrong
the man at all.—(Laughter.)
ated that the prisoner was the
, and who was liable for the
) was then committed to the fully investigated the several uinness to compensation, for

of their property since the ve passed and allowed the rding the full amounts res-Messrs. Guinness.

the late John Rait, Esq. of Anniston, Forfarshire.

At Berne, Switzerland, John Oliver, Esq. eldest son of Vice-Admiral Robert Dundee Oliver, of Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, to Emma Matilda, only daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Morgan, of Llandough Castle, Wales.

In the town of Chatham, Upper Canada, by the Rev. Dr. Fuller, John Marshall Taylor, Esq. eldest son of Captain Ingram P. Taylor, of the British Navy, to Sarah, daughter of Lieut. James Delmege, formerly of Rathkeale.

DEATHS.

On Sunday last, at Duagh House, Kerry, in his 59th year, James Eidington, Esq. late of Gargunock House, Stirling.—Seldom if ever, did the grave close over a more affectionate husband and father—a more sincere friend, or a more amiable and exemplary Christian. His demise, caused by violent fever, is deeply and deservedly regretted by his numerous friends and acquaintance, particularly by his immediate and domestic circle, to whom was best known his mild and endearing habits. He has left a widow and two young children to deplore his loss.

Tuesday last, in Thomas-street, in her 14th year, to the inexpressible grief of her afflicted parents, Francis, only and beloved daughter of John Huleatt, Esq. of Scariff, county Clare. She was a young lady of a most amiable disposition, and possessed very promising talents.

In Brunswick-street, after a long and painful illness, John Gilmore, Esq. It is a consolation to his sorrowing family who always experienced his kindest affection, as also to his numerous friends, that patience in long suffering and resignation to the Divine inspiration here, has ensured to him an eternal reward hereafter.

In Denmark-street, Mr. James Norman, tailor.
Henry O'Hara, of Blackhall-street, Dublin, Esq.
Wednesday, Maria, wife of Mr. John Blundell, Brunswick-st. watch and clock-maker, a lady deeply lamented by her husband and children.

In Gloucester-street, Dublin, of fever, Thomas, second son of James Sheppard, Esq. of Clifton, county Tipperary.
Jane, fourth daughter of Dr. Sharkey, of Cork.

At Inistiogue, county Kilkenny, at the advanced age of 95 years, the Rev. William Carroll, more than half a century P.P. of Roer and Inistiogue.

At Bangor, county Down, Lieutenant Henry M'Minn, late of the 39th Regt.

At Coleraine, James Gribben, Esq.
In Mountjoy-square, of fever on the brain, Catherine Maria, second daughter of George Hudson, Esq.

On Sunday night, after a few days illness, Catherine, wife of Luke Reilly, of Summer-hill, only a week after her marriage.

At Corrinseca, county Cavan, John Pratt, Esq.
At Union-hill, the Rev. Meade Dennis.

In Paradise-row, Dublin, Miss Jane Irwin, aged 71, sister of James Moore Irwin, Esq. Drumglass, Dungannon.

At Bayview-avenue, Sarah Drought, daughter of the late T. Drought, Esq. of Cappagolan, King's county.
On Sunday, in Prussia-street, Dublin, in the prime of life, after a few days illness, Henry Going Collis, Esq. third son of the late Henry Collis, of this city, Esq. Sheriff, a young gentleman universally esteemed and deservedly regretted.

At Rockville, Dungarvan, on Monday, of fever, John Musgrave, Esq. brother of Sir Richard Musgrave, Bart. late M. P. for the county Waterford.

Anthony Daly, Esq. youngest son of the late Captain Hyacinth Richard Daly, of Galway.

On the 10th inst. at Riverview, near Bantry, Margaret, wife of John Westropp Carey, Esq.

At Loughrea, John Fahey, Esq.
Margaret, wife of Alexander Castell, Esq. Saltmills, Wexford.

At Sawbridgeworth, Herts, Thomas Barry, Esq.
At Cheltenham, Mrs. Mary Helsham, of Kilkenny.

At Bruges, aged 83, Lady Margaret Augusta Dillon, widow of Luke Dillon, Esq. (uncle of Lord Cloncurry.) Her ladyship was one of the daughters of John, eleventh Earl of Clanricarde, and aunt to the present Marquess of Clanricarde.

At Danbury Park, Essex, Eliza Mary, the youngest daughter of John Round, Esq. M. P.

At Newman-street, John L. Bond, Esq. an eminent architect, who designed Waterloo-bridge.

At Tottenham Court Road, Mr. George Shuter, comedian of the Drury-lane establishment.

At Broom-house, Fulham, the Hon. Mrs. Sullivan.
At his house, in Upper Marylebone-st. Mr. Joseph Bicknell, in his 73d year.

Lately, at Liverpool, Millikin Hunter, Esq. formerly of the firm of Hunter, Gouger, and Co. Old Broad-street, London.

At Ascot Lodge, Sunning-hill, Lovell Thomas, third son of Captain Hort.

In Maddox-street, after a protracted illness, brought on by long service in tropical climates, James Forbes, M. D. Inspector General of Hospitals.

In Coldbath-square, Mrs. Sophia Charlotte M'Lean, widow of the late Major Joseph M'Lean, 3d West India Regiment.

George Watkins, Esq. formerly of Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn.
At Edgbaston, Birmingham, the Rev. Richard Hartley, late Minister of the Scots' Church, Plymouth.

Suddenly, at Teignmouth, J. Jordan, Esq. one of the partners of the Bank in that town.
At Robber Island, Cape of Good Hope, Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Wolfe, Commandant of Robber Island, diate possession given, the House and Demesne of BELLGROVE, containing 80 Irish Acres, well sheltered, divided and beautifully planted, possessing a command of water which might be made available to machinery of any kind; an extensive range of well built offices, with a large garden stocked with the finest fruit trees, and enclosed with a 16 feet wall of singular beauty and workmanship. There is on the premises a good supply of Turbary and manure.

BELLGROVE is situated in the midst of a sporting country, remarkable for its beauty and good roads, two miles from Borrisokane and six of Nenagh, the latter will become one of the Assize Towns of the County of Tipperary, and possesses advantages as a residence for any private gentleman not often met with, and which will only require inspection to be duly appreciated.

Application (if by letter post-paid) to GODFREY LEONARD, Esq. Bellgrove, Borrisokane. The Steward on the premises will show the lands.

November 18.

The Earl of Dunraven.

THIS patriotic and munificent resident Nobleman has refunded and forgiven to Michael Butler, of Baybush, in this county, the Tithes of One Hundred Acres, per manus of his Agent, which said Michael Butler, of Baybush, had paid at his office in Limerick, on the 7th November, 1837. and for which noble instance of generosity, Michael Butler returns the Earl of Dunraven his sincere and heartfelt thanks.

November 18.

Kenry Dispensary.

THE SUBSCRIBERS of the above Institution, are hereby informed that DOCTOR DANIEL GRIFFIN, the Medical attendant, has notified to us his resignation.

We therefore request a Meeting of the Subscribers, on FRIDAY, the first day of December next, at the Dispensary, Pallaskenry, at the Hour of 1 o'Clock, for the purpose of appointing a Medical attendant, as his Successor.

WILLIAM WALLER, Treasurer.
ARUNDEL HILL, Secretary.

November 13, 1837.

The Mark-Lane Express

IS the largest Agricultural and Commercial Journal in the United Kingdom, and is Published every Monday evening in time for Post. In authenticity and extent of market information the MARK-LANE EXPRESS stands unrivalled, as a medium of communication to the practical Farmer, Dealer in Grain, Wool, Malt, Hops, Seeds, Flour, &c. &c. a review of the British and Foreign Corn Trade, detailing with accuracy its weekly progress and characteristics, the state of the Monday's Market in Mark-Lane. Letters of some of the most eminent Factors appear every week, whose names are a guarantee for the genuineness of the reports, as Messrs. Giles, Son and Co. Messrs. Hunter and Coventry, Messrs. Richard Harris and Sons, and Messrs. Kingsford and Lay; beside another full account, &c. &c. by a practical party, expressly for the Paper. These Letters are not written till the close of the Market, which is frequently a source of considerable importance, as it is well known that an unexpected turn in the Trade often takes place during the last half-hour of business. Letters from Correspondents of high character in all parts of the United Kingdom. The reports of the Cattle, Provision, Wool, Seed, Hop and Commercial Markets, and strict attention is paid to the country Fairs, and Agricultural Meetings.

Office, 19, Old Boswell-Court, London.
Supplied in Ireland, either direct to, or through the Agents of JOHNSTON and CO. Eden-quay, Dublin.
November 18.