

H. Browne as Pny-
 The votes for the ion were even.
 his bailiff, a man of voted for Mr. Jones, trary to his Lordship's should remain neutral, was appointed his suc-
 ced on the public road, Fairbanks' religion (a another offence in the
 are now sitting in dis-facilitate business.
 e county Carlow, has continent, perfectly re-supposed, be elected on.
 e return of Mr. Fitzand against the return of Belfast, were, up to aper Office, Dublin.
 the 5th of December without referring to the n to the Speaker direct.
 this county, were sold brancer's office of the Esq. of this city, for titution by Messrs. Quin and others.
 distressed widow and of the Constabulary columns. This lamented of the Grand Jury of public services, after a d agrarian disturbance.
 ork, at the instance of nuted the sentence on one months' imprison-
 y at the election.
 , Esq. son of Richard t, was sworn in an art of Queen's Bench, of the Hon. Society of commenced teaching gierian principle.—See acknowledges £1 from additional donation to n's parish.
 hankfully acknowledges Subscriptions, in aid
 School, of St. Mary's
 Geary, 10s.; Doctor
 5s.; J. W. Haynes,

Sirhind Div.

At Moradabad, Lieut. J. Towgood, 35th Regt. to Amella, daughter of Colonel J. Moore, 59th Regiment.

DEATHS.

At her residence, Bunnratty, to the deep regret of her tenantry, Mrs. Palliser, wife of the late Richard Palliser, Esq. and sister of the late Lieutenant-General Sir Augustine Fitzgerald, Bart. of Carrigoran, county Clare.

At Montego Bay Barracks, Jamaica, on Sunday the 8th Oct. of yellow fever, Captain Dillon Hugh Massy, 37th Regt. son of the late William Massy, of Glenville, in this county, Esq.—an Officer sincerely regretted by his brothers in arms.

At Ennis, on Sunday, of fever, after attending the Quarter Sessions of Kilrush, Michael Greene, Esq. Attorney, and formerly Sub-Sheriff of the county Clare.

In William-street, on Monday, Mrs. Eliza Graham, wife of Captain John Graham, ship broker.

Mary, wife of Mr. Hugh Massy, spirit retailer, Merchant's Quay.

Of lockjaw, from a wound in the hand, Mr. Thomas Pennefather, of Kyffin, Tipperary, son of the late Mayor of Cashel.

At Donore House, county Kildare, Mary, relict of the late Rev. John Hussey Burgh, of said place, and of Dromkeen, in this county.

At South Main-street, Cork, Eliza Russell, of the Society of Friends.

At New-Ross, Captain Daniel Moran.

In India, of a coup de soleil, William Knox, Esq. son of the Rev. J. Spencer Knox, and grandson of the late Bishop of Derry,

At Chinsura, Assistant-Surgeon M. Griffin, 9th Regt. very much regretted.

In Cork, Mr. John Rorke, Printer, aged 66.

Jane, wife of Thomas Ryan, of the Royal Hospital, Dublin.

In the Parochial House, Francis-street, Dublin, of malignant fever, the Rev. Richard Murray, in the 37th year of his age.

In Westmoreland-street, Dublin, the Lady of Geo. Alker, Esq. At Edenville, Merrion-avenue, Abigail, wife of Lancelot Fisher, Esq.

At his house, Fitzwilliam-square, Joseph M'Dermot, Esq.

At Raphoe, Elizabeth Lynch, wife of Mr. Henry Lynch, Revenue Officer.

On Saturday, at the residence of his son, the Rev. John Condon, P. P. of Rathcormac, Mr. John Condon, aged 99 years.

In Fownes's-street, Dublin, of apoplexy, Mr. John Kibble, mathematical instrument maker, of Liverpool, James, son of the late Mr. George Wren, of Cork.

Mr. W. Osborne Wilkinson, of Cork, watch-maker.

Friday, in Tralee, Oliver, second son of Ths. O'Connell, Esq.

At Deerlet, Armagh, the Rev. Hans Boggs, Pastor of the Covenant congregation.

Lovel, third son of Captain Hort.

Aged 75, Mrs. Rachael Powell, of Brecon, aunt of Lieutenant Colonel Powell, 40th Regt.

At Landour, Nepal, Lieutenant Richard Sheridan Ewart, of the 30th Nat. Inf. to Susan Margaret, eldest daughter of Major Hogan, of the 53d Regt.

At Exeter, Thomas Hutchinson, Esq. barrister-at-law.

On Tuesday, at South-bank, Regent's-park, aged 88, the Dowager Lady Cockburn, relict of the late Sir James Cockburn.

of Langton, Bart.

At Bowls, Chigwell, Essex, Mrs. Hodgson, in her 89th year.

At Grey's House, near Maidenhead, the Right Hon. Jane Lady Lindores, aged 78.

At Leith, John Hunter, Esq. merchant.

At Walmer, Robert Edward, only child of the late Colonel R. Gordon, many years Adjutant General in the Bombay Establishment.

At Delhi, Susan, wife of Captain W. Ramsay, Brigade Major.

At Delhi, Emily, wife of Captain T. Fisher, 48th Nat. Inf.

At Cannanore, Ensign Warton Morgan, of the 57th Foot, eldest son of F. T. Morgan, Esq. of Dolellan, Carmarthen.

At Kamptee, East Indies, Edward Constable, fifth son of Sir William Curtis, Bart. a Lieutenant in the 1st Madras Cavalry.

At Calcutta, Allan Gilmore, M. D. Hon. Com. Service.

Ireland. No V

Case of Un-FAMILY OF

THE Friends of assist the di
 KEILY, (whose Fa
 North Mall, Cork
 denly at Kilkenny,
 most destitute circ
 For a period of the confidential en
 been engaged in th
 Limerick, and Co
 most disturbed tir
 Grand Juries and M
 in which he served,
 The widow of Orphans, now conf
 hoping that they wi present state of des Donations and S
 ceived by the Re Shandon, Cork; by
 by the Rev. John
 Leger Chinnery, C
 Gerald Fitzgerald,
 Killenaule; by B
 Joseph Greene, Es
 Esq, S. M. Carlo
 the County of Co
 Inspector, Rathkea
 and at the Office o
 The following C ceived :—
 Earl Glengall,
 T. P. Vokes, Esq
 W. Smith, Rathke
 N. J. French, Esq.
 Robert Long, of L
 B. Nangle, Esq. S.
 Robert Courtney,
 Gerald FitzGerald,
 Sir William Wrixo
 A Friend, O.M. pe
 Misses Dillon, Bl
 Chinnery,
 Thomas Butler, Es
 Laurence Creaghe,
 John Scully, Esq.
 Nicholas Greene, I
 Richard M. Ducke
 John Chaytor, Esq
 Richard Creaghe,
 November 22.